FOURTH SUNDAY OF

Easter

APRIL 22, 2018

I am the good shepherd,
and I know mine
and mine know me,
just as the Father knows me
and I know the Father;
and I will lay down
my life for the sheep.

John 10:14-15

SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED

Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it's no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world's crops and livestock. This week's scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John's letter we hear that we have become God's beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God's beloved flock?

At OLA TREASURE HUNT

The family of Betty Charlet is hoping you can help us find their treasured family heirloom:

One Large Glass Punch Bowl and Large Glass Tray.

The punch bowl and tray were in the dining hall at OLA.

It has disappeared!

If you borrowed it and forgot, or you might know where it is, please return it to the hall ASAP!

The family is very sadden to have lost such a precious gem that means so much to them.

The following rules and regulations have been set forth and approved by St. John's to ensure the safety and meaningful retreat experience for each participant.

1. Proper attire must be worn at all times with no exceptions. T-shirts with suggestive slogans, low cut shirts, midriff exposure, short shorts, shirt skirts, or see through clothing are not allowed.
2. Behavior of participants must reflect that of a good Christian role model.
3. All staff, chaperones, board members and others in charge must be treated with respect at all times.
4. Foul or inappropriate language is strictly and absolutely forbidden.
5. Inappropriate physical contact with anyone is not allowed. (NO PDA)
6. Respect must be shown to others and their property.
7. The use or possession of tobacco products, alcohol, or illegal drugs is forbidden.
8. Any and all medications (prescription) must be given to the head chaperone immediately before boarding the bus.
9. All rules set forth by the Diocese of Baton Rouge must be followed.
10. Any damage to hotel, retreat, private, or public facilities is the liability of the person involved and/or the parents of the minor involved.

Anyone witnessing someone not honoring the above rules is responsible for reporting them to one of the chaperones.

If a participant is caught not honoring the above rules, the following things may take place: The parent/legal guardian will be contacted and asked to provide the participant with transportation home at that point at the cost of the parent/guardian with no exceptions. Participant should understand that this will limit the participation in future youth group activities.

I have read the rules and discussed them with my son/daughter, and we agree to the conditions set forth by St. John the Baptist Youth Ministry Office.
