CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

PERSPECTIVE We must often draw the comparison of time and eternity. This is the remedy of all our troubles. How small will the present moment appear when we enter that great ocean!

—St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Luke 20:27-38

The gospel this Sunday can, on first reading, seem a little strange if not confusing. The Sadducees, like the Pharisees were not Jesus' greatest friends or fans! They too accused Jesus of blasphemy, complained when he ate with those they thought were sinners, and condemned him for breaking their sacred Sabbath laws. They never missed an opportunity to try and trap him publicly with some tricky question — all to serve their own self-righteous needs. The gospel this Sunday is one such encounter and conversation they have with Jesus.

According to their laws and traditions when a woman's husband dies, his brother is allowed to marry her. In their story this happens seven times! They ask Jesus, at the resurrection, to which of them will she be a wife since she had been married to all seven? Perhaps, like Jesus, we today are also confused and bewildered about such an odd and seemingly complicated question!

Perhaps, we could focus on the last line of the Gospel; 'Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all are in fact alive.' It may sound a bit obvious; but we all live exist in this real world around us. We have families, friends and neighbors. We are retired, some go to work and to school; we shop and we go about our daily business and generally don't think too much about the next world and or what happens to us when we die. This is normal. But perhaps, we might give some consideration as to how we live our daily lives and how we are preparing for eternal life. St. Paul challenges and reminds of this when he says; 'Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people.' (Eph. 5:15).

Be careful what sort of lives you lead... What we do, what we say and how we treat other people really do matter. What we do affects other people and not just ourselves. Our daily lives are made up the relationships we have others. One poet tells us that God is in the bits and pieces of every day. Daily life is where we meet and encounter each other. Daily life is also where we experience God. To repeat the word of Jesus; God is a God of the living, not of the dead.

Let us live our daily lives with faith, honest and integrity and let us also keep our eye on the next world!

—Br Michael Moore OMI

HOPE IN THE LORD ~ Bishop's Annual Appeal

With expectant devotion, we place our "Hope in the Lord". In times both certain and unsure, we trust in the One who assures our salvation and our part in the ministries of the Church. Even as we lean on Jesus Christ, we understand that others in their need look to us to help provide spiritual nurture and practical assistance. We hope in the Lord, and others trust that we will put our faith into practice, serving God by showing love to our neighbors. For more than three decades, the Bishop's Annual Appeal has provided loving parishioners a meaningful way to address those needs, in our immediate community and beyond it.

Our parishes share that commitment. A total of 43 members from our family of faith, St. John the Baptist and Our Lady of the Assumption, participated in this past year's successful campaign, contributing a total of $9,520.00. Please plan to take part in this year's BAA, and offer your generous support.

You will soon receive an information packet from Bishop Michael G. Duca concerning this year's BAA, an effort shaped by his motto, "Hope in the Lord."

"Be strong and take heart, all who hope in the Lord" (Psalm 31:25)

Committed to the work of Christ, please read the material you receive, and pray carefully about your response. If you do not receive your packet shortly, please call the Office of Stewardship at 225-336-8790.

Give Thanks
TO THE Lord for
He is Good.
His Love Endures
Forever. psalm 136:1
