*Because the loaf

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 14, 2020

FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

Last week, we covered:

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

This week:

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social.

How we organize our society -- in economics and politics, in law and policy -- directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

Scripture

It is not good for man to be alone. Genesis 2:18

I am my brother's and sister's keeper. Genesis 4:8-15

What you own belongs to the Lord and is given for the good of all. Leviticus 25:23-43

If you act justly with one another, God will dwell in the land. Jeremiah 7:5-7

Act justly, love kindly, walk humbly with God. Micah 6:6-8

This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you. John 15:12-17

Life among the believers. Acts 2:43-47

We are one body, individually members one of another. Romans 12:4-8

Rouse one another to love and good works. Hebrews 10:24-25

Our faith is dead if we ignore others in need. James 2:14-17

Serve one another with the gifts you have received. 1 Peter 4:8-11

We ought to lay down our lives for one another. 1 John 3:16-18

Those who love God must love their brothers and sisters. 1 John 4:19-21

Tradition

"The family is thus an agent of pastoral activity through its explicit proclamation of the Gospel and its legacy of varied forms of witness, namely solidarity with the poor, openness to a diversity of people, the protection of creation, moral and material solidarity with other families, including those most in need, commitment to the promotion of the common good and the transformation of unjust social structures, beginning in the territory in which the family lives, through the practice of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy." (Pope Francis, On Love in the Family [Amoris Laetitia. . .], no. 290, quoting the Final Report of the Synod of Bishops, 10/24/15)

Insofar as it is a "small-scale Church," the Christian family is called upon, like the "large-scale Church," to be a sign of unity for the world and in this way to exercise its prophetic role by bearing witness to the Kingdom and peace of Christ, towards which the whole world is journeying. Christian families can do this through their educational activity—that is to say by presenting to their children a model of life based on the values of truth, freedom, justice and love—both through active and responsible involvement in the authentically human growth of society and its institutions, and by supporting in various ways the associations specifically devoted to international issues. (St. John Paul II, The Family in the Modern World [Familiaris Consortio. . .], no. 48)
