LITURGICAL AND PRAYER LIFE

Greetings SJB and OLA! It is wonderful to be here with you!

I have always enjoyed visiting over the last 11 years when Fr Jeff was called away, so I know I will enjoy being able to stay with you now.

As many of you know I was raised in Baton Rouge, then my family moved to Walker, so I am familiar with South Louisiana and all the beauty it holds, mainly the beauty of its people; which I have come to appreciate more deeply after being away since I joined the Redemptorist. I have been a Redemptorist for going on 27 years; 15 years as a Redemptorist Brother and 12 years as a Redemptorist Priest. Throughout those years I have been assigned to Crowley, LA; Baton Rouge, LA; Grand Rapids, MI; Liguori, MO; San Antonio, TX and Tucson, AZ. Many years ministering as a Jr High Religion Teacher, Psych Nurse, Associate Pastor, Vocation Director and lastly a Pastor. I came home to Louisiana a year ago to be with my family when my father was placed on Hospice. We lost him in February so at that time I decided to stay in this area to stay close to my family. So I come with some experience, but there is always more and more to learn and I am looking forward to learning along with you.

The parish has grown and its faith has only deepened over the years. One of the defining virtues of SJB-OLA is the love that is evident and the hospitality that overflows; it's a sign that the Spirit of the Living God is alive in this place. I am blessed to experience both and I am looking forward to experiencing more, and sharing the power of the Holy Spirit with you.

May our faith be as hot as a Louisiana Summer and powerful as Hurricane! Together let us build God's Kingdom here and now!

Fr Lamar
