First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

In our first reading, the prophet Elisha refuses to accept a gift from a pagan warlord who has just been cured of leprosy. Acceptance would imply that Elisha was responsible for the healing. Instead, the prophet wants gratitude directed where it belongs—to God.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

In this excerpt from a letter written in Paul's name, the author stresses the centrality of the resurrection for Christian faith. Because Christ was raised, Christians will also be raised.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

The first reading's stress on being grateful to God is also emphasized in the Gospel. A second point is made as well: sometimes those outside our faith community are quicker to acknowledge God's goodness than we are.

We invite you to prayerfully reflect on the Readings for the week of October 9

GRATITUDE

One of the lepers, realizing that he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. (Luke 17: 11-19)

Here is a reflection about gratitude I hope you will enjoy.

There was once a very wise and compassionate rabbi who served a congregation in a small European village. The villagers loved the rabbi and often came to him to pour out their hearts with their woes. Nagging spouses, aches and pains, lazy children - the rabbi listened patiently day in and day out. Why is God making my life so difficult? Why must I suffer more than others? Why can't my life be as profitable as his or as comfortable as hers? The rabbi heard it all over and over again.

Then the rabbi came up with a plan. He announced to the congregation, "Place your troubles in a bag with your name on it," the rabbi said. "On Friday, just before the start of Sabbath, we will hang the bags on the great tree in the center of the village. Everyone will be allowed to exchange troubles and go home with those of your neighbor rather than your own."

The rabbi's proposal was enthusiastically greeted by the villagers, eager at the prospect to exchange their troubles for someone else's, imagining that their lives would be easier and happier from that day on. On Friday, just before sundown, the villagers gathered beneath the tree with bags in hand. They tied their bags to the branches and the rabbi offered a blessing. Then the rabbi directed: "Now, if you will all move about inspecting the bags, you may choose someone else's troubles to take home, thus freeing yourselves from your own."

The villagers rushed to the tree and began peering into the bags of those they thought had happier lives than they did. But before long the villagers grew quiet, moved by what they read of the plight of their neighbors' struggles and disappointments - and feeling foolish. And wiser. Each family then sought out their own bag and walked home to celebrate Sabbath.

The rabbi smiled. It was just as he had hoped. The villagers had come to realize the sorrows of others. They became more thankful for what they had - and kinder to one another. [Adapted from "The Tree of Sorrows" from Doorways to the Soul, edited by Elisa Davy Pearmain.]

The rabbi understood that both sorrow and thanksgiving are choices we make, attitudes from which we approach life. We can be resentful and jealous and cynical - and we may have good reasons for feeling that way. Or we can put aside our disappointments and be mindful and grateful for what we have, for the good we possess that cannot be taken from us, for what we are able to do for others. Such a spirit of thankfulness can transform cynicism and despair into optimism and hope and make whatever good we do an experience of grace.

In Christ's Peace,
Father John

THANKFULNESS IN LATER LIFE

In today's Gospel only one of the ten lepers returns to give thanks. The lack of response by the others is a warning to us. Even though gratitude is essential for a joyful and complete life, it is often neglected.

Adults: What do I count as my greatest blessing? How often do I thank God for giving it to me?

Children: How can I thank God for what I have received?

A Family Perspective: Children fluctuate between moments of deep, heartfelt gratitude and an attitude of entitlement. These fluctuations are normal. Among our tasks as parents is to help foster the gift of gratitude, particularly gratitude to God for all God's goodness to us. Read today's Gospel, Luke 17:11-19. Make a poster showing some of the gifts from God to your family. Display this poster in a prominent place and, as a family, write a prayer of thanksgiving for all of God's goodness to you.

In the home: Discuss what young people and what older people in your family do best. Give thanks to God for both.

All funds contribute directly to the Community Soup Kitchen and Outreach Center's many services that address local hunger and poverty.

Please join us by registering as a walker at hungerwalk2016.kintera.org or consider contributing a general donation, or sponsoring a walker. You can make a difference in the lives of local individuals and families. Call 973 -267-0709 for more information.

Know that you are not alone.

This Young Professionals event is designed for those in our community between the ages of 21-45. Light refreshments will be served. ## 2016 Bishop's Annual Appeal Diocese of Paterson

Your support of the Bishop's Annual Appeal helps fund important ministries throughout our diocese.

Seminarian Education and Our Diocesan Priests' Retirement Residence

The Bishop's Annual Appeal helps fund Nazareth Village, our diocesan priests' retirement residence as well as the education of our seminarians. This is especially important since the number of seminarians has increased dramatically in recent years, along with the cost of their formation. Your support of the Appeal helps both of these groups of men: those who are preparing for a lifetime of service to the Church and those who have faithfully served for decades.

School Support

With the help of the Bishop's Annual Appeal last year, much was done to support Catholic schools in the inner-city area, including capital improvements such as roof replacement, HVAC upgrades, interior lighting and exterior doors. The Appeal also helped with technology upgrades to enhance the academic programs offered in the schools.

Parish Rebates

Half of the amount received over a parish goal is returned to the parish for its own needs. Not only does the Appeal support many worthwhile ministries throughout the diocese, it can also help parishes through the rebate program.

How You Can Help

There are several ways to provide financial support to the 2016 Bishop's Annual Appeal:

- One-time gifts or pledges paid over five months with reminders sent for your convenience
- Credit card contributions – see information on your pledge card or call 973-777-8818, ext. 218 for details
- On-line contributions – go to www.2016appeal.org and follow instructions for making a one-time gift or pledge
