

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The term "Communion of Saints" refers also to the communion of "Holy Persons" (Sancti) in Christ who "died for all," so that what each one does or suffers in and for Christ bears fruit for all.

HELP NEEDED AFTER LITURGIES

Assumption Church needs many volunteers to help us assist those attending Mass each weekend, to answer questions, to sanitize the church after each Mass, and monitor compliance with the requirement to wear a mask or face covering. Volunteers should be between the ages of 18 and 60, and have no underlying health conditions. Personal protective equipment, i.e. masks, hand sanitizer, etc., as well as training, will be provided.

First Reading: RV 7:2-4, 9-14

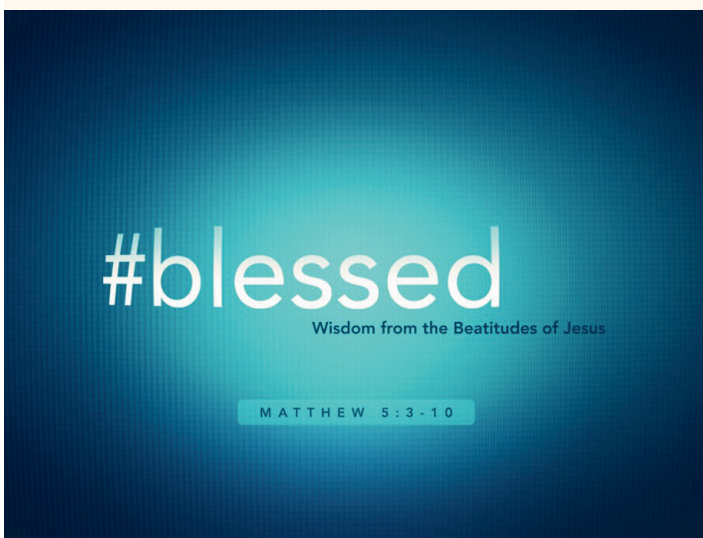

The book of Revelation was written during a terrible persecution of Christians by order of the Roman Emperor at the end of the first century. In this reading, the writer imagines the final victory of the saints who have persevered in their faith despite the threat of torture.

Second Reading: 1 JN 3:1-3

In this passage from the First Letter of John, the author recognizes that believers are often rejected by the world. Nevertheless, they will ultimately share in Christ's glory.

Gospel: MT 5:1-12A

The following portion of the Sermon on the Mount from Matthew's Gospel describes the attitudes that should characterize those who strive for holiness.

2020 DIOCESAN MINISTRIES APPEAL "LOVE THY NEIGHBOR"

One of the benefits of giving to our Diocesan Ministries Appeal is the knowledge that the funds stay in our own Diocese and only support important needs in Morris, Passaic and Sussex Counties. This local connection means that you may be helping your next-door neighbor, a former pastor now living in our priests' retirement residence, the store owner you see each day as you shop in town – perhaps even a family member. What better way to "Love Thy Neighbor"? For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2020appeal.org.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

MATTHEW 5:6

ALL SAINTS

For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day. John 6:40

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

“Blessed are the poor in spirit . . . they who mourn . . . the meek . . . they who hunger and thirst for righteousness . . . the merciful . . . the clean of heart . . . the peacemakers . . . they who are persecuted for the sake of justice . . . ” (Matthew 5: 1-12a)

We begin the month of November, dedicated to prayers for all our dear departed, with the Solemnity of All Saints. This year it occurs on a Sunday. Here is a reflection I hope you will enjoy.

In Graham Green’s novel The Power and the Glory, a priest is about to be executed by the anti-Catholic junta ruling 19th-century Mexico. Greene describes the “whisky” priest’s last hours:

When he woke up it was dawn. He woke with a huge feeling of hope which suddenly and completely left him at the first sight of the prison yard. It was the morning of his death. He crouched on the floor with the empty brandy-flask in his hand trying to remember an Act of Contrition. “O God, I am sorry and beg pardon for all my sins . . . crucified . . . worthy of thy dreadful punishments.” He was confused, his mind was on other things: it was not the good death for which one always prayed. He caught sight of his own shadow on the cell wall; it had a look of surprise and grotesque unimportance. What a fool he had been to think that he was strong enough to stay when others fled.

What an impossible fellow I am, he thought, and how useless. I have done nothing for anybody. I might just as well have never lived . . . He felt only an immense disappointment because he had to go to God empty-handed, with nothing done at all. It seemed to him, at that moment, that it would have been quite easy to have been a saint. It would only have needed a little self-restraint and a little courage. He felt like someone who has missed happiness by seconds at an appointed place. He knew now that at the end there was only one thing that counted — to be a saint.

We don’t think of ourselves as potential saints. We can’t help but feel that the extraordinary “holiness” of the saints we read about is well beyond us and the lives we live in the times and place we live them. But sainthood is as simple as the condemned priest in Graham Greene’s novel comes to understand: the resolve not to come to God “empty-handed,” but to come before God at the end of our lives with offerings of justice and mercy, of peace-building and compassion — small and ordinary, perhaps, but all our sincerest attempts to mirror the love of God in which we were created. Today we celebrate all the saints who now dwell with God: both the heralded saints of the Church calendar and the mostly unknown saints whose presence have blessed our lives. Let our prayer this All Saints Day be that we may seek to be among their company one day, that the object and purpose of our lives is to come before God at the end not “empty-handed” but with the humble offering of a life lived in the spirit of the Beatitudes. (Connections)

In Christ’s Peace,
Father John

RECEIVE THE WORD AS GOD'S VERY OWN WORD

One of the easiest things to do is identify inconsistency and hypocrisy in others. One of the most difficult things to do is see inconsistency and hypocrisy in ourselves.

Adults: What would it take for me to look at myself, especially my religious commitments, with unflinching honesty and directness?

Children: How can I make sure that I do what God wants me to do and not just what I want to do?

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

The Assumption Thanksgiving Food Drive is an effort to provide holiday food for our neighbors in need. This year more than ever, the need is so great. There are many ways in which you can answer Jesus' call to feed the hungry, and to give thanks for our own blessings.

- Donations: There are Food Drive Donation envelopes in the pews of the church. Any funds donated in these envelopes will be used for purchasing Thanksgiving Day dinners, and to help our year-round food certificate program. You can place your turkey envelope donation in the Sunday collection basket, or you can make your contribution online at www.assumptionparish.org
- Interfaith Food Pantry: The Interfaith Food pantry is preparing for their annual holiday program. This year due to the pandemic they project that their need will be greater than ever, and thousands of families will be in need of food for Thanksgiving. They will accept turkeys and hams at their location at 2 Executive Drive, Morris Plains. Visit <http://www.mcifp.org/> for additional information.
- Food Donations: Non perishable food needs are: stuffing, box potatoes, yams/sweet potatoes, gravy, flour, pumpkin pie filling, Jello, cake mix, icing, pie crust, apple juice, sugar, candy, cookies, muffin or bread mixes, rice, dry or canned milk, canned vegetables, soup mixes, mayonnaise, Parmalat, coffee, tea, and paper products. All Food donations will be given to the Interfaith Food Pantry to support their needs. Drop off your food donations at Assumption Saturdays and Sundays only, or bring them directly to the Interfaith Food Pantry.
- Distribution: Parishioners, if you know anyone in need, please contact Claudia Nardi at 973-539-2141, extension 19. Morris County residents may sign-up directly by calling the Interfaith Food Pantry at 973-538-8049.
