GATHER IN PRAYER

- Pray the Rosary weekdays 20 minutes before the 12:05 p.m. Mass.
- Eucharistic Adoration the first Saturday of each month 8:30 - 9:00 a.m. and the first Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m.

First Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10

During the Babylonian Exile, the prophet called Isaiah of the Exile urged the Jewish refugees not to forget the torah ethic that marked them as God's people. Light would break into their darkness through their actions.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

In addition to a divided community, the Apostle Paul was confronted with other problems by the Church at Corinth. The following passage from his letter to that church addresses people who used their oratorical skills to glorify themselves.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

As the Sermon on the Mount continues, Jesus, like Isaiah, reminds both his fellow Jews and us that our actions should reflect the goodness of God.

We invite you to prayerfully reflect on the Readings for the week of February 5

Monday	Gn 1:1-19; Ps 104:1-2a, 5-6, 10 & 12, 24 & 35c; Mk 6:53-56

WE ARE THE SALT OF THE EARTH

“You are the salt of the earth . . . You are the light of the world. ” (Matthew 5: 13-16)

Jesus continues his Sermon on the Mount and teaches us that we are called to be salt and light.

Herman Cruse drives a school bus in Cape May, New Jersey. His young passengers love “Mr. Herman”— and with good reason.

One morning, Mr. Herman noticed that a kindergartner on his bus seemed a little sad. He asked what was wrong. The boy told Mr. Herman that he wasn’t able to complete his reading assignment because his parents were busy with his four siblings at home. It was hard to find one-on-one reading time with his busy mom and dad.

Mr. Herman said, “Listen, I have some free time, and if you don’t mind, I’d like to come to the school and read with you.” So, with the permission of the six-year-old’s teacher, Mr. Herman began coming to her kindergarten classroom. The bus driver and his young friend went to a quiet corner and began to read to each other. “So he read to me, I read to him and we read together, and from there it took on a life of its own,” Mr. Herman remembers. “A second student wanted to read to me, then a third. All these kids were going to the teacher asking, ‘Can I read with Mr. Herman?’”

That was two years ago. Now, two days a week, Mr. Herman spends the four hours between his morning pick-up and afternoon return drives working with kindergartners and a third day with the school’s first- and second-graders. His reading circles have been dubbed “Mr. Herman’s Kids.”

Kindergarten teacher Alex Bakley says of her “reading assistant”: “Herman is goofy, silly and super positive and the kids love him. He’s a bright light at our school and makes every child feel loved and heard — they’re drawn to his energy.”

Mr. Herman sees his new challenge as a natural extension of his work as bus driver. “Bus drivers are the eyes and ears of students when they’re away from home. We have an uncanny gift to discern what kids are feeling. “It’s a joy to see the kids get excited when they learn to sound out words,” the 55-year-old Cruse, the father of five grown children, says. “They feel a sense of pride. I love how reading opens up a new world for them. I feel lucky to see that firsthand.

“What started out as a way to kill time has now blossomed into a way to make a difference in the heart of a child.” [The Washington Post, December 7, 2022; NJ.com, December 19, 2022.]

“Mr. Herman’s Kids” mirror Jesus’ challenge to let the light of God’s wisdom shine forth in the simplicity and hiddenness of our everyday lives, to refuse to allow the light we possess — and the light possessed by others — be diminished or extinguished because of fear, isolation or pride. Every one of us has the ability to be “salt” that can enrich our world with compassion, forgiveness and joy; every one of us possesses “light” that can eradicate the darkness of fear, hopelessness and injustice. But fear and doubt can lead us to keeping our light hidden — or worse, we can force the brilliance of others to remain hidden, as well. May we realize Jesus’ challenge to be “salt” for the earth: to make God’s presence and grace realities in our own time and place; to be “light” for the world: to illuminate the dark, hopeless corners of our world with justice and hope. ## THE DISCIPLES OF JESUS - A MOVEMENT TRANSFORMING THE WORLD

The world and our very lives are often complicated, challenging, and beset by troubles of various kinds. In all of this, people of faith find their hope and direction in Jesus and his proclamation of the coming of the Kingdom of God.

Adults: When Jesus tells me that I am salt and light in this world, what new thing do I understand about myself and fellow believers?

Children: How can I bring the light of Jesus to my family and my friends?

A Family Perspective: The widespread use of electricity in our society may make us less aware of the value and importance of light. To re-engage with the power of the metaphor that Jesus offers, gather your family in a darkened room. Bring only one flashlight. Sit together for a minute and consider what you are able to do and see in so little light.

Read today's Gospel by the light of the flashlight. Ask everyone to consider what it means to say that Christians are to be the light of the world. How might your family act in a way that is a light for others, a light that is worthy to put on a lamp stand? Choose one thing that your family will do this week to show that you are the light of the world.

In the home: Ask family members to consider and pray over how your home can be a light in this world, a beacon of hope.

In the workplace or in school: Identify one way in the workplace or in school that would contribute to a more reconciled environment and do something to bring it about.

SUPERBOWL SUNDAY BAKE SALE

Our 7th & 8th Grade Edge Youth Group have committed to sponsoring two children, Shembu Tholley (Male, 12 years old) and Ramatulai S. Kamara (Female, 8 years old), from Sierra Leone through Africa Surgeries, Inc. The funds raised will help provide education and other necessities to help these children. To support this cause, we are hosting a bake sale after all of the masses during Superbowl weekend - February 11th & 12th. Please consider stopping by and purchasing something to take to your Superbowl party or bring to a friend or neighbor or keep for yourself to snack on! The funds raised will go to a great cause!

ASSUMPTION SCHOOL

Assumption School is happy to welcome new students at any time when space is available. Pre-registration forms for the 2023-2024 school year are available at Assumptionnj.org under the Admissions tab. Please call the school to set up an appointment at 973-538-0590, or stop by the school office for further information.

FINANCIAL BLESSINGS

Assumption is a Tithing Parish

The total collection for the weekend of January 28/29 was $21,827. The collection for that weekend last year was $16,259

Pastor's Note: Thank you for your generosity and your great love of Our Lord which is so evident when people come to Assumption. Serving the Lord here with you is an immense blessing and an incredible joy.

Our parish community is such a great gift to our life of faith: it is the Body of Christ alive in our midst! And I am glad to share with you that our Parish is robust and growing, even through the challenges of the pandemic.

Each year we are asked to supply the Diocese of Paterson with Sacramental Statistics, and I wanted to share this information with you. These figures are reported to the Official Catholic Directory, to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and to the Vatican Statistical Office, and are also used for our own planning needs here at Assumption. These figures represent the calendar year 2022.

Registered Families	3,488
New Families in 2022	147
Families Who Left the Parish	26
Baptisms	146
First Communions	108
Confirmations	65
Marriages	34
Funerals	56
High School Rel. Ed.	129
Elementary Rel. Ed	350
Assumption School
Pre-K through 8	432

As we consider these statistics, may we seek to carry out our own role in this Parish faithfully, and may we cooperate with the grace of the Holy Spirit, so that our Parish will continue to grow in faith, hope, and love.

My prayer for you and for the all of the 3,000 plus members of Assumption Parish, which serves as our spiritual homes for individuals, families, and our community, is that we will be enthusiastic and engaged co-workers with Christ who trust that, if we do our part, sharing generously all the gifts we have received from God's abundance, the world will recognize us for who we are: the Body of Christ.

WOMENS RETREATS AT LOYOLA JESUIT CENTER

The women of Assumption are invited to Women's Retreats at Loyola Jesuit Center, Morristown

- For the weekend of February 17 -19

The theme for this prayerful silent retreat is Women in the Hebrew Scriptures. The women of the Hebrew Scriptures are a great source of wisdom.

Come and explore how their lives are both INSPIRATION and CHALLENGE for women today. Our retreat leader is Sr. Margaret Ellen Burke, S.C..

- For the weekend March 3 -5

The theme for this prayerful silent retreat is It was the Women Who Stayed. We probably don't need to be reminded that we are living in a tumultuous period in history: an ambivalent economy, uncompromising politics, and deadly violence. Where do we find the hope and peace that Jesus has promised us? What gifts do we as women have that contribute to this fulfillment of hope and peace? You are invited to a week-end of prayerful silence, listening, and an optional sharing period to discern what gifts we have to offer to create an atmosphere of hope and peace. Our retreat leader is Judy Schiavo.

Questions? please contact Karen Florance at 973-476-5542 or kflo0317@gmail.com. Ready to register, please go to <https://loyola.org/weekend-retreats>

MORRIS CATHOLIC

Congratulations to all the students accepted to the Class of 2027 at Morris Catholic. At Morris Catholic, we are committed to helping students grow into persons of character, active members of their community, and committed lifelong learners. In the spirit of Catholic Schools' Week, we will continue to welcome students and families who have recently begun to consider a Catholic education with our rolling admissions process. We are also accepting transfer applications for grades 10 and 11 for the 2023-2024 year. If you would still like to experience a campus tour or shadow day.
