This Week's Question

For Adults:

What important work could bear fruit in your life right now if you have more confidence in God's loving care?

For Children:

What great work would you like to do as you grow older?
What can you do to begin now?

WELCOME

To all our visitors this weekend

Please remember the sick and homebound of our Parish.

We are all called to prayer. As a faith community, let us keep in mind all those who have asked us to pray for them, that they may experience the healing power of our gracious God

PREPARING FOR NEXT WEEK'S LITURGY

Fourth Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Joshua 5:9-12

After Moses died, God selected Joshua to lead the Israelites. In this reading, Joshua and the Israelites have just crossed the Jordan River and now at long last are in the Promised Land.

Second Reading: 2nd Corinthians 5:17-21

Some members of the Corinthian community found it hard to accept Paul's teachings. They challenged his credentials and sincerity as an apostle because he was not an eyewitness to the earthly life of Jesus. In this passage, Paul defends his ministry as an apostle.

Parish on a Journey

OVER THE LAST MONTH THE PASTORAL COUNCIL HAS BEEN MEETING TO DISCUSS THEIR ROLE IN PARISH PLANNING AND DIRECTION. IT IS FIRST AND FOREMOST A MINISTERIAL ROLE WITHIN A PARISH COMMUNITY.

DISCUSSION IS ALWAYS SITUATED WITHIN OUR OWN PARISH— OUR UNIQUENESS, OUR NEEDS AND OUR FUTURE. SINCE GROWTH IS A CONCERN, A MARKETING EXPERT PARISHIONER OFFERED SOME INSIGHTS ON HOW WE CAN MARKET OURSELVES MORE EFFECTIVELY USING CURRENT TRENDS AND TECHNOLOGIES.

MORE TO COME!

God's Grace is Young Enough

For the Young and Young At Heart

Readings for this Sunday

Exodus 3:1-15; 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10:12; Luke 13:1-9

Encountering God in the World

Suggested Reflection Questions

- Moses is tending the flock of his father-in-law. Amidst the desert at the base of Mount Horeb, he observes a bush blazing with fire but not consumed by the flames. The curiosity of Moses compels him to investigate this phenomenon. It is curiosity that leads Moses to an encounter with God that forever changes his life and the lives and story and tradition of an entire people. Has your sense of curiosity about the natural world ever yielded an opportunity to experience the presence of God? How can you incorporate Moses' quiet watchfulness into your own busy life??
- Jesus tells the parable of the fig tree. The orchard owner, frustrated the tree has yet to bear fruit, instructs the gardener to chop it down. The gardener suggests the tree receive extra care, nurture, and cultivation to be fruitful. Is there a relationship with a friend, colleague, family member, or significant other you've been tempted to end because it doesn't seem to be fruitful? Can you, like the gardener, give it the care it deserves to see if cultivation can help it flourish before cutting it down?

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT; FIRST SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

Scrutinize your intentions

Those wishing to join the Catholic Church go through a process that involves a great deal of reflection and self-examination. The rest of us get to join in on the middle Sundays of Lent when the “scrutinies” are observed. These ancient rites are meant to help heal what is broken and strengthen what is upright. We can all join in, and if you don’t happen to be present at a Mass where scrutinies are observed, you can still take some quiet time today to reflect on aspects of your life that need some renewing. Lent is the season for renewal, so you are in the right time and place!

TODAY’S READINGS: Year A: Exodus 17:3-7; Romans 5:1-2, 5-8; John 4:5-42 (28). “The hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.”

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 29 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Your faithful companion

God is with you (remember, Jesus said he is with you—and all of us—always). Sometimes you might forget that. But God’s presence is evident if you pay attention to the expected and unexpected details of your life. Perhaps you’re struggling with the appropriate response to a conflict and the answer comes from your best friend—expected, but surely a sign of the Spirit’s movement in your life. Perhaps you’re experiencing the pain of loss and you somehow manage to get up and keep going—unexpected, but a welcome sign of God’s grace. Think back over the past few days and consider the certain and surprising ways God has been at your side.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 5:1-15ab; Luke 4:24-30 (237). “If only my master would present himself.”

TUESDAY, MARCH 1 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Stand tall in the midst of hardship

Nobody ever wants to suffer or experience hardship. Tough times can’t always be avoided, but we can choose how we react to them. We can turn to God and open ourselves to finding a way (however small or seemingly inadequate) to persevere. Sometimes it might be a friend or inspirational quote, a fond memory or sheer determination that carries us through. For Saint Teresa of Avila, for example, having courage meant a lot. “To have courage for whatever comes in life—everything lies in that.” How does God help you face hardships? What scripture verses, saints, virtues, or life-giving techniques do you draw upon for strength?

TODAY’S READINGS: Daniel 3:25, 34-43; Matthew 18:21-35 (238).

“Azariah stood up in the fire and prayed aloud.”

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Learn from the students

Right now, parishes are preparing to welcome new Catholics on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil, when adults are baptized into the church. Lent is the final stage of preparation for these candidates, and you are called upon to pray for them as they get ready to become full members and to welcome them into the community. Take time to reflect, too, on what the sacraments they are about to receive—Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist—mean to you. And recommit yourself to the path they are on—one of spiritual discovery and formation.

TODAY’S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5-9; Matthew 5:17-19 (239).

“... teach them to your children and to your children’s children.”

THURSDAY, MARCH 3

FEAST OF KATHARINE DREXEL, VIRGIN, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Can money be sacred?

We call money “filthy lucre.” The love of it is the root of all evil, Paul tells us. Yet an American heiress and her sisters found a way to make their wealth a holy thing. The Drexels—Katharine, Elizabeth, and Louise—lost their mother early, and beloved stepmother and father while the sisters were in their 20s. With the Drexel fortune at their disposal, they vowed to provide sound educations and job training to forgotten communities in this country: post-Civil War black and Native Americans. Redeem some wealth to holy purposes.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Luke 11:14-23 (240). “Walk in all the ways that I command you, so that you may prosper.”

FRIDAY, MARCH 4 FEAST OF CASIMIR

Gotta hand it to generous Casimir

Traditions sometimes spring from quirky sources. Casimir was renowned for his generosity toward the sick and poor, and it was probably in attending the ill during an outbreak that he died at the tender age of 25. An early painting of the saint depicted him with two right hands, and legend sprung up that the artist tried to redraw the hand in a different place but was unable to paint over the old hand. Well, perhaps the painter intentionally wanted to leave Casimir with two right hands to emphasize his generosity. We’ll never know, and it doesn’t really matter. Let the extra hand inspire you to follow Casimir’s example and be a handy giver!

TODAY’S READINGS: Hosea 14:2-10; Mark 12:28-34 (241). “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

SATURDAY, MARCH 5 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Pray. Always.

The humble prayer of the tax collector—“O God, be merciful to me a sinner”—in its utter simplicity is the basis of what is called “The Jesus Prayer”: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner,” a favorite in the spirituality of the Eastern Churches. This prayer, or words like it, is a way to “Pray always,” as Saint Paul says, since it repeats itself within, even when you don’t think you’re praying. What would be your own slowing-down word or phrase? Let God whisper such words to your heart. Listen. Pray.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hosea 6:1-6; Luke 18:9-14 (242). “He beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

Preparing for Easter

Mercy

Merciful God,
even when we are slow to repent,
you show us kindness and mercy.
When our hearts are blinded by sin
we turn away from you and slowly wither like the fig tree.
O God of compassion, renew our hearts so that, like Moses, we might hear your nourishing
and life-giving words and turn from sin;
may we bear abundant fruit and be signs of your mercy to those who live in darkness.
Give us the grace to turn from our worldly desires and seek the repentance you graciously offer
so that, standing on holy ground, we may see your magnificence
and give you glory for ever and ever.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

LENTEN PRAYER

(Inspired by Isaiah 58:1-12)

We have chosen to fast not with Ashes but with Actions not with Sackcloth but in Sharing not in Thoughts but in Deeds.
We will give up our abundance to share our food with the hungry.
We will give up our comfort
to provide homes for the destitute.
We will give up our fashions
to see the naked clothed.
We will share where others hoard.
We will free where others oppress.
We will heal where others harm.
Then God's light will break out on us.
God's healing will quickly appear.
God will guide us always.
God's righteousness will go before us.
We will find our joy in the Lord.
We will be like a well watered garden.

We will be called repairers of broken walls.
Together we will feast at God's Banquet Table.

Feasting ... then Fasting ... then Easter Feasting again

Rice Bowl - CRS

Hungering for a Healthy Start

The next stop on our CRS Rice Bowl journey is the African nation of Rwanda, where we're reminded to care for the unborn. This week we pray for pregnant mothers, that they may have the medical and nutritional support they need to raise healthy, thriving children. Visit crsricebowl.org for more. Bowls are collected on Holy Thursday.

CRS' mobile app offers daily reflections sent directly to your phone during Lent. Learn about this year's featured countries, prepare simple meals, all from your phone! Available at www.CRSRiceBowl.org/app.

Having Mercy

A way to respond to Pope Francis' conviction that God is a God of all mercy and that we respond to God's mercy by living mercy in our own lives.

A program with examples, Scripture, and questions for discussion to help find pathways to understand and live Mercy more fully in our lives.

Two opportunities to be part of this program: Wednesday evenings at 7 pm and Thursday mornings at 9 am.

NO Stations of the Cross

Jesus the Healer, 8 pm

This devotion has captured the spirit of Lent for centuries. It is part of the first leg of the Lenten tripod — fasting.

Confessions on Mondays of Lent

Confessions are heard in most churches in the area on the Mondays of Lent. There are confessions at STM on the Mondays of March, beginning at 7 pm. The parish Reconciliation Service, celebrating the communal nature of both sin and reconciliation will take place on Monday March 14 at 7 pm.

Film on Friday

Peter and Paul is a mini-series, starring Anthony Hopkins and Robert Foxworth. The two most important figures of the founding of the Christian Church are considered to be Peter and Paul. Since this is a three hour series, it will be divided over three weeks: Friday Feb., 26, Mar. 4 & Mar. 11. Since Fridays are meet less, we will provide drinks, pizza and either salad or soup. If we find a suitable film for another week, we will extend it.

The Heifer Project Almsgiving Opportunity

Heifer International works to end hunger and poverty and care for the earth. By giving families a hand-up, not just a hand-out, they are empowered to turn lives of hunger into self-reliance and hope.

With gifts of livestock and training, families improve nutrition and generate income in sustainable ways. Families agree to give one animal offspring to another family in need. True Passing on the Gift — a cornerstone of the Heifer International mission, an ever-expanding network of hope and peace.

Make a donation to purchase animals for needy families. You can also donate a share of an animal, begin at $10. There are forms in the vestibule. Make checks payable to St. Thomas More. We will send one big check to Heifer International when Easter arrives, bringing resurrection or new life in the form of livestock to many poor families around the globe. You can also make your contributions electronically at www.stthommore.weshareonline.org.

Who, Where Why, How ...

What's so important about the Easter Vigil?

Sunday Eucharist is the only liturgy older than the Easter Vigil. This liturgy celebrates the passage from death to life. Beginning in darkness, the fire is lit, the Easter candle is lighted and the Easter proclamation announced Christ, the Light of the Word is risen. The several scriptures remind us that God has loved us into freedom and deliverance from the beginning of time.

In the blaze of light, triumphant music, and Easter filled hearts, the Easter Gospel is proclaimed and we the Church welcome its new members through the sacraments of Initiation. At the same time, we the already baptized renew our own vows. Easter is the most ancient and most appropriate time for Baptism and all the sacraments of Initiation. This recalls that in Baptism we "died and were buried with Christ" and raised with him to newness of life. The Vigil continues with the liturgy of the Eucharist and completes the sacred Three Days or Triduum, rejoicing with the risen Lord!

Welcome to St. Thomas More Parish

Recognizing Scouts on March 13

Each year, Scouting recognizes that there is most often a faith dimension in the lives of scouts. The National Catholic Committee for Girl Scouts and Camp Fire, and the National Catholic Committee on Scouting provide programs to integrate a young person's catholic formation with her and his scouting experience. Fr. Joe was fortunate to have been on one of these committees as they were developing national religious awards for scouting. Michael Pizzimenti has participated in the Light of Christ program and we are honored Present him with his emblem at the 9 am mass on March 13. There are a number of scouts and leaders in this parish. We invite them all to this liturgy in support of Michael and the value of Scouting in a young person's life. Anyone who would like to participate on this day should contact Fr. Joe.

Jesus the Healer

Join us on Friday 8 pm for an outstanding experience of healing presented by the Franciscan Mystery Players of Notre Dame Church, N. Caldwell Depicting Jesus' healing ministry and Passion and death, this dramatic meditation connects with individuals who try to understand suffering in life. The, and thousands of people have been touched by its message of comfort and love. This event promises to have a significant impact on our spiritual journey - we strongly encourage adults and young people to attend!

(Since the play addresses subjects of suffering and death, some parents may find the play unsuitable for children under seven.)
