Thinking Out Loud . . . .

Ms. Leslie Dreps, our school Principal, does an outstanding job in all that she takes on, and we are so lucky to have her here at the helm of our parish school. Ms. Dreps is also a remarkable organizer, and she is to be thanked for coordinating the tables, chairs, tablecloths, and napkins at the reception held two weeks ago. When asked if she might need help out, her response was, "I got it," and you don't have to keep looking over your back or checking-up, as I have a tendency to do. Thank you, Ms. Dreps.

We have a nice pulpit, and the brass rails on either side add to it beautifully. The rails can get a little dingy with people going up and down the pulpit to do the readings. Mary Jean Hayek polished the rails about an hour before the anniversary Mass began. Mary Jean leaves no detail unattended.

We had bells. Did we have bells for the anniversary Mass! Unfortunately, the only one who knows how to operate the bells is Patrick Mullen who was away for that day. Jim Aulino is a quick learner, and after several tutoring sessions on "ringing Church bells," Jim took over and those bells rang like he was pulling that rope since he was ten years old.

Important days for all of us, whether a graduation or a wedding, go by so quickly, one can hardly remember what happened. As we get older, we remember even less. That is why God invented photographers. Sincerest thanks to Jake Greco and to Jerry and Michele Siccardi for recording in print form much of what happened two Sundays ago. It is so good that they would record for me what I could not see or remember myself. It is nice looking at all these photos as my mind says, "Aha."

Our grounds looked great, as so many visitors came to our Church for the first time. Thanks to Ray Ricciardi and Steven Nagy for their never ending care of our grounds.

This past week at the 10:15 am Mass, we had our 2nd graders serenade the congregation with their version of He's Got the Whole World in His Hands. They were wonderful. Additionally, our CCD children, students from the Academy of St. Francis, their parents, and our Cub Scouts and Boys Scouts filled the pews beautifully. We thank Steve Leech and the other parents who work with the scouts for revitalizing this fine organization. Last year, we had about six scouts present at their Annual Mass. This year we had about six times that number. To everyone involved in this more than worthwhile endeavor, sincere Thanks!

Here are a few letters from the mailbag for your reading pleasure.

September 27, 2016

Dear Father Patrick,

...Being still a very inexperienced, newly ordained priest, it gives me courage and confidence to see one of my older brothers in the ministry having persevered in "running the race" of the priesthood for so many years. Like any other human, questions of uncertainty can sometimes creep into the mind and heart regarding the possibility of persevering (Will I be able for the rest of my life... What happens if I mess up? etc). Yet, seeing examples of fidelity as your own, helps to calm those thoughts and give security to the heart. Yes, it's possible to live as a priest for a lifetime, and I too look forward to faithfully living it out myself!

Thank you for your fidelity to Christ's priesthood! Thank you for your daily decision to persevere as a priest of Christ, for so many years!

Please count on my prayers as you continue your priestly ministry. I ask that you keep me in your prayers too.

Father A.

September 27, 2016

Dear Father Patrick,

We were thrilled to be able to join you in celebrating the 40th Anniversary of your ordination as a priest. The day allowed us to get a little "taste of heaven" as parishioners and friends showered and embraced you with their love and respect. They jammed into the school cafeteria for a marvelous breakfast, and then filled the pews in St. James Church for a beautiful liturgical service with Bishop Serratelli presiding...and to think that fourteen or fifteen priest-friends arranged for "Mass coverages" in their local parishes so they could attend the festivities at your special Mass of Thanksgiving.

Love, S

The Mass was reverential and joyous. At the conclusion of the Eucharistic celebration, we were emotionally touched when the congregation, out of love and respect, broke out in spontaneous applause as you processed out of the Church. We can imagine how you must have felt with this genuine outpouring of affection.

Love, B

September 25, 21016

Dear Father Ryan,

Congratulations and thank you. Through the years, you have made me laugh when tears were the only emotion I thought possible. I thank God that you are the vessel through which we feel Jesus.

Love, S

October 3, 2016

Good Morning Father,

I want to say thank you again for all your support to the Cub and Boy Scouts. This weekend's Mass and Bake Sale were a great success for the Scouts. I am very proud of the boys and their accomplishments. We hope everyone enjoyed the home-made baked goods, as the funds raised will go to good use.

We are very grateful for the parish generosity, and we are very thankful for the donations received from those who did not purchase the baked goods but want to support the program. The Pack and Troop is already looking forward to our next Scout Mass in January.

Regards,

Steve Leech

Committee Chairman

The past few weeks and the beautiful celebration of my Fortieth Anniversary of Priesthood remind me that Priesthood is truly a gift from God. The support, generosity, and love which poured forth from so many are also gifts, truly inspired by the Holy Spirit. With a joyful soul and a humble heart, I thank all who have touched my life and my priesthood, and I pray that Our Father will continue to bless us as we all continue to grow together in His love.

Father Patrick

Peace and Joy

Dear Parishioners of St. James,

I'm Sr. Clare Poothakuzhyil, a member of the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, with our Mother House, in Italy. I'm originally from Kerala, South India. I spent 12 years in Italy for my higher studies and ministry. In the year 2000, I came to the US and continued my apostolate of teaching music in St. Joseph of the Palisade, West New York, NJ and in St. Thomas Syro-Malabar Catholic Church, Bronx, NY. In 2013, I moved to Our Lady of Libera Convent, West New York, NJ as the Local Coordinator. Since 2015, I am in our Provincial House in Peekskill, NY to serve my community as the Councilor and now as the Vice Provincial. It is my great honor and privilege to have the opportunity to serve at St. Francis Academy, Totowa and to continue my parish ministry with the Syro-Malabar Catholic community in New York. I thank you all, and Father J. Patrick Ryan in particular. Praise be to Jesus.
