VISIT THE IMPRISONED

The charitable act by which we come to the aid of our neighbor's physical necessity is considered a "corporeal work of mercy." To visit the imprisoned is one of the seven corporeal works of mercy of our Church.

In the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 25, Jesus, during the last judgment, will state, "I was in prison and you came to visit me!" What does it mean to "visit the imprisoned?"

1. Some people go into jails and prisons to visit the incarcerated.
2. Some people write letters to prisoners.
3. Some passionately work to address inhumane conditions in jails and prisons.
4. Some tirelessly fight to eliminate the choice of capital punishment which ends the lives of men and women apart from when it is an absolute necessity.
5. Some bring "comfort" to the imprisoned, by trying to support the family of the prisoner.

Can you recall a time in your life when the corporeal act of mercy mentioned above was fulfilled? If not, it may be worth considering before encountering Jesus!

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 15, 2019

"I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy in appointing me to the ministry...Indeed, the grace of our Lord has been abundant, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Of these I am the foremost. But for that reason I was mercifully treated..."

The pastoral letter of Paul to Timothy should have a notation at the end stating 'cc. to the reader today.' He offers us the opportunity to express our gratitude to God, as we too have been entrusted with the ministry of service to others. Paul encourages Timothy and awakens me to the reason of Jesus' coming and the reason for our church. Jesus came and comes as savior, granting forgiveness, empowering me to bring this message to others.

The gospel passage, the 15th chapter of mercy of Luke, then reminds me of Jesus looking for the one lost sheep, the woman searching for the lost coin and the familiar parable of the loving Father. Finding the wayward son. As we connect these two passages, we are ready for action.

2019 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL "For I Was Hungry..."

The 2019 Bishop's Annual Appeal is officially kicking-off this weekend. The theme of this year's Appeal is "For I Was Hungry..." It is a reminder that what we do for our neighbors in need, we do for Christ Himself.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal supports the work of our Catholic Charities, priests' extraordinary healthcare needs as well as Nazareth Village, our diocesan priests' retirement residence, urban elementary schools and seminarian education. These are all critically important ministries that touch many lives, and so please make a pledge today. Please know that funds from the Appeal are used only for the causes described in the campaign materials. They are used for no other purpose. Thank you in advance for your generous support!
