A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 4, 2022

"If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if there is enough for its completion? ...In the same way, anyone who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

A surprising challenge. A famous Lutheran martyr, Bonhoeffer, wrote a telling book, 'The Cost of Discipleship.' The title itself echoes the challenge Jesus put to the crowds who were seeking and following Him. The gospel cost Jesus His life, for us. As we claim discipleship, we learn not to hate, but to make sure our relationship with others does not interfere with or block our relationship with God. Nothing should get in the way of that basic requirement.

We might summarize the first commandment God gave to Moses and the first part of the great commandment of Jesus simply by stating: 'God comes first in my life.' The Spanish speaking people use this expression continually, 'Dios primero.' Does He?

PRAYER FOR THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Lord Jesus, who in the Eucharist makes your dwelling among us, gather your children, feed us with your Body and Blood, and become our travel companion. Grant that this time of the preparation and the celebration of the Eucharistic Congress would serve the spiritual renewal of our diocese, parishes, and families. Send us your Holy Spirit, so that we may better appreciate and recognize the gift of Your Real Presence in the Eucharist and respond with a renewed commitment to proclaim in word and deed the Good News. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

GOSSIP!!

Would information which is absolutely true about a person be damaging to his/her reputation, if you shared your knowledge of it with someone else?

Unfortunately, some people believe that simply because something is true about a person, anyone is free to say whatever he/she desires, and to whomever is willing to listen! A person who thinks and acts this way is very much wrong.

Why? Even though the information shared is absolutely true, it is considered a sin of detraction and insult. A sin of detraction occurs when a person makes known the short comings of another void of a good reason for doing so. Insult happens when the other person is refused respect of his/her good name. Both seriously disregard the virtue of charity.

Therefore, it is incorrect to assume that if something is true about someone else, I have the liberty to spread it around to whomever I wish.

A good "rule of thumb," as you know, is "if you cannot say something good about someone, keep quiet."

May the Lord assist all of us to carefully select what to say, when to say it, and to whom it should be said.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18b

This reading acknowledges that people have had a difficult time attempting to know God's wishes. At times we have difficulty understanding the things that happen on earth. Therefore, learning of things in heaven would have been impossible, except that God sent us wisdom and the Holy Spirit to help us understand him.

Second Reading: Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul writes to Philemon regarding Onesimus, a slave who ran away and encountered Paul. Although Paul wished Onesimus could remain with him, he did not want to violate Philemon's wishes. Paul asks that Philemon receives his friend Onesimus as a beloved brother, not as a slave. He closes by saying, "Welcome him as you would me."

Gospel: Luke 14:25-33

Jesus warns people who wish to follow him that they must abandon everyone else first. A person calculates the amount of money needed to complete a project before they begin it. In the same way, Jesus warns these people to consider exactly what is involved before they make a commitment to follow him.

The eyes of the Lord watch over those who love Him; He is their powerful shield and firm support, a shelter from the scorching wind and a shade from the noonday sun, a guard against stumbling and a help against falling. He revives the soul and brightens the eyes; He gives health, life and blessing. (Wisdom 34:19-20.
