“Has only one returned to give thanks to God? Where are the other nine?” (Luke 17:17)

“Rip, rip, rip, Rap, rap, rap, Pius, Pius,...” “Harass them, harass them, make them relinquish the ball....” The explosive energy and spirit of Pius basketball can still be felt in our imaginations 50 years later.

As eighth grade at St. Dominic’s neared completion, I had applied and been accepted into a few high schools. I had not sent in my application to St. Pius X preparatory seminary. But I was not at peace with myself until I did. It required a special summer meeting with the Rector of the seminary, Msgr. James F. Coffey. I remember the interview. He asked me why I wanted to become a priest. Of course I was intimidated, and I mumbled something about saying mass. Coffey smiled and said “That’s the right answer!” What a relief! Now, 50 years since high school graduation, I have had 42 years of super abundant graces celebrating the Eucharist.

Born in the late ‘40s, we the St. Pius X class of 1965- began the ‘baby boomer’ generation. It was the heyday of American Catholicism with over 75% of Catholics attending mass each week. The Great Depression and the Second World War had brought people to their knees. The Catholic subculture was in full force. Bishop Fulton Sheen was a black and white TV media superstar. Vocations to the priesthood and religious life were at their peak. Catholic schools were packed, seminaries and monasteries were being built, and were quickly overflowing. Perhaps the World War II saying- “There are no atheists in foxholes”-had produced a banner crop of faith filled Catholics.

With my parents, I attended the dedication of the new St. Pius X prep seminary facilities with Cardinal Spellman presiding; along with the Bishop of the recently formed diocese of Rockville Ctr., Walter P Kellenberg who had confirmed me, and would later ordain me. In 1961, 166 idealistic and romantic freshmen began their high school years at Pius. The inscription “Christi simus non nostri” was our motto - “We belong to Christ and not ourselves”. Christ was to be the love of our lives; so the popular 60’s song lyrics - “Stay away little girl, go away little girl” were re-translated into our Spiritual Director Father Chiara’s seminary song - “...I belong to Father Chiara, and I must be true!” I remember Father Bernie McGrath telling us that maybe six or eight of us would be ordained to the priesthood in 12 years. He was not far off.

In the ‘60s, times were ‘a changing’.- ‘like a rolling stone’. Revolutions were in the making. For Catholics the Copernican revolution of the Second Vatican Council was perhaps most earth shattering of all. The Council was two-pronged: returning to the best of the tradition and opening the windows of reform and dialogue with the world. The sacrament of baptism became the sacrament of ministry- and the ordained ministry a specific way of living out our commitment to Jesus Christ and the church; no more holy than married life or the life of a consecrated religious. The sexual revolution, the Vietnam War, the Civil Rights Movement, Women’s equality – all profoundly affected us, our nation and the world. The priesthood was one option among many. The graduates of Pius dove into a future bright with promise; entering careers and making their mark in law, business, education, psychology, medicine and the arts – falling in love, marrying, having children, and delighting in grandchildren. The class of 1965 has truly enriched the world and the church.

The Scripture that I chose for our 50 year anniversary, comes from the Thanksgiving Day liturgy. In the middle of the Civil War, Abraham Lincoln asked the American people both North and South to stop the bloodshed, and give thanks to God. We gather in this 50 year anniversary liturgy to give thanks to God and to remember. We were formed at Pius by a faculty of priests and laity who loved Jesus Christ and the church. And we knew that they loved us. They made a profound impact in our formative years, that critical time in our journey through adolescence into adulthood. We are deeply grateful for their lives - and their dedication to our education, character formation, and well-being. They gave us wings to fly into the future!

In our gospel, ten lepers were cured, but only one returned to give thanks to the Lord. Today, 50 years later, as the class of 1965, dare I say like the returning leper who was healed and restored to the community, we have returned to honor our teachers and reconnect with one another.

We call to mind with profound respect, love, and admiration, our teachers and classmates who have returned to the Lord. They fought the good fight, they ran the race. They kept the faith. Now a merited crown of glory awaits them. May we see them again at that final reunion on the last day.

Ad multos annos! Congratulations Class of 1965! Happy 50th

Bulletin Reflection:

The crowd in today's Gospel demanded a sign of Jesus and wanted to know what "work" He did to inspire their faith. May our faithful stewardship be a sign to others that we, like the Ephesians in the second reading, have laid aside our former way of life and acquired a "fresh, spiritual way of thinking" in Christ.

Living Stewardship:

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who stand ready to change their lives whenever and wherever God speaks to them.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

The number of persecuted Christians in the world has topped a staggering 100 million according to a recent report from Open Doors USA, an organization that assists persecuted Christians. Paying homage recently to the courage of the Apostles and that of the first Christian community, Pope Francis referenced the atrocious, inhuman and incomprehensible persecutions, sadly present in many parts of the world today, often under the silent gaze of all.

Bishop Murphy urges us to reach out and protect these victims who are suffering and who are so often the targets of violence and murder, along with other ethnic and religious minorities. To that end, a special collection will be taken up in our parish this weekend August 1 -2, 2015, to assist those who are suffering religious persecution in Syria and Iraq and wherever needed.

Please continue to pray for peace and if you are able, to support this special collection to assist our brothers and sisters in Christ.

There will be a second collection this weekend.

PRAYER FOR PEACE

Lord Jesus Christ,
who are called the Prince of Peace,
who are yourself our peace and reconciliation, who so often said,
"Peace to you", grant us peace.
Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love.
Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
May all peoples of the earth become as brothers and sisters.
May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.
Amen.

POPE SAINT JOHN XXIII

MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE, PRAY FOR US!

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The Gospel tells us "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him." By listening we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to become a "listening heart" to the hungry, the homeless and the struggling poor.

If you are in need of assistance or would like information about joining or contributing to the Society, please call 516-473-9562. Leave a message and a phone number. A member will return your call as soon as possible. You may visit our website at www.svdprvc.org. Please remember the Poor Boxes at the exits of the church. They are the Bread Boxes of the poor and hungry.

Attention All High School Grads, Parents and Grandparents

Our Teens are becoming Young Adults- starting college with a lifetime of opportunities in front of them. There will be many choices that they will make during the next 4 years, let's help them to stay connected to their faith while they are making those choices!

Let's help our young people keep a faith connection while they are in college. Many will be away from home and out on their own, what better way to help them stay grounded and give them a safe place to meet new friends than through their University's Newman Center.

Newman Centers are Catholic ministry centers at non-Catholic universities throughout the country. These Centers provide pastoral services and ministries to their Catholic student population. Through the Newman Connection, students are connected to their Campus Minister and invited to join Catholic Campus Ministry- this becomes their faith community away from home!

It's simple to make that connection- the only information that is required is the student's first and last name and the name of the college or university they will be attending in September.

Then send this information to Marianne Sheridan, Director for Youth Ministry at msheridan@drvc.org. This information will be forwarded to the proper Newman Center and your teen will be welcomed in the fall when they arrive at their school.

Let's keep our Young Church connected and committed to their faith!

TAKING OUR RIGHTFUL PLACE WITH THE SCHEME OF THINGS

Why do we feel good when we succeed at anything?

Is it because we are admired for it, our ego gets stroked, or because we enjoy the satisfaction of doing something well? Yes, for all of these reasons, though none is the deepest one.
Ultimately, though we aren't generally aware of it, we feel good because, deep down, we have contributed our little piece to the big picture, filled in a piece of the jigsaw puzzle that only we can provide, been one necessary atom in the final establishment of things.

That is why we feel good whenever we build something, help someone, give birth to something, help raise someone, teach something, complete something, nurse someone, perform a successful surgery, score a goal, clean a bathroom, cook a meal, do the dishes, or simply do anything properly. The satisfaction we feel at these times has a deep root. We have just filled in our little piece in the big picture, helped free up one fragment of being.

Conversely, why do we feel badly whenever we fail at something, betray someone, or realize that we have wasted some of our potential? Is this simply a feeling of wounded pride, frustration, shame? Yes, all of these things, but, again, it is more. Ultimately we feel a certain intolerable futility because we have not taken our rightful place in the cosmos, not filled in our proper piece of the jigsaw puzzle.

Our everyday satisfactions and disappointments though can teach us something. We need to listen closely to what makes us feel good or bad. Our lives can seem small, but we do not especially enlarge them through fame and recognition. You don't get immortality for being a superstar. You get these for filling in that little piece of the big picture, that one wee atom, that is uniquely yours.

2 DE AGOSTO DE 2015

18º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El domingo pasado escuchábamos en el Evangelio cómo Jesús dio de comer a la multitud con tan sólo los pocos panes y pescados que tenían. Veíamos también la admiración de las personas por el milagro de haber comido hasta saciarse. La gente comió muy bien, por esa razón seguían a Jesús. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús, explica así: Yo soy el pan de la vida. El que viene a mí no tendrá hambre y el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed+(Jn 6, 35). Jesús, deseaba que sus seguidores pasaran del plano material al espiritual. Ya que existe el riesgo de quedarnos ahí solo en admirar el milagro. Tal como pasó a muchos en su tiempo. Las personas sabían que volverían a tener hambre, por eso lo buscaban · comer gratis no le hace mal a nadie· y Jesús les dice: Ustedes no me andan buscando por haber visto señales milagrosas, sino por haber comido de aquellos panes hasta saciarse+(Jn 6, 26).

¿Por qué buscas tú a Jesús? ¿Qué es lo que él sacia en ti? Para que puedas tener una respuesta más explícita veamos lo que el documento del Vaticano II, Lumen Gentium+(§48). Explica: Porque Cristo, levantado sobre la tierra, atrajo hacia sí a todos (cf. Jn 12, 32)+ Cuando se entra por el camino de la fe, se sacia nuestra hambre y sed. Es decir, el creer en Cristo Jesús como pan de vida es un fuerte llamado al encuentro personal con este misterio. Esto es un verdadero reto para nuestra vida tan ajetreada que llevamos, le damos muy poco tiempo a estar con Dios.

ORACIÓN POR LA PAZ

Señor Jesucristo,
a quien llamamos el Príncipe de la Paz, tú que eres nuestra paz y reconciliación, quien tantas veces dijiste:

Paz a vosotros+, danos la paz.

Haz que todos los hombres y mujeres sean testigos de la verdad, la justicia y el amor fraternal.

Destierra de sus corazones lo que pudiera poner en peligro la paz.

Ilumina a nuestros gobernantes para que puedan garantizar y defender el gran don de la paz. Que todos los pueblos de la tierra vivan como hermanos y hermanas.

Que la paz tanto ansiada vuelva a florecer y reine siempre sobre todos nosotros.

Amen.

MARIA, REINA DE LA PAZ, RUEGA POR NOSOTROS.
