“BE MERCIFUL, JUST AS YOUR FATHER IS MERCIFUL.” (LUKE 6: 36)

Perfection belongs to God alone. Mere mortals like you and me, will never reach perfection. We will always fall short of the mark whether academically or spiritually, in our relationships, or in the workplace. Virtue is when we live up to our capacities. When we do the best we can with what God has given us. The theological adage is: grace builds on nature. Your natural abilities differ from mine. You may be the mother of six children and able to care deeply for each of them with great patience and gentle understanding. While another mother is overextended emotionally with just two children to rear. The Holy Spirit can only do so much with each of us. Very few, or maybe none of us, can be as virtuous as St. Francis of Assisi or Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

The word of God in the Scriptures and the teaching authority of the church (magisterium), offer us values and principles, rules and regulations, to guide us in the path of virtue. We learn them and try to internalize them so that they will affect our behavior. But we cannot live up to them at all times and in all ways. We cannot live up to them even with the grace of God, the Holy Spirit and the power of the sacraments. We can only do the best we can with what God has given to us.

The life and teachings of Jesus Christ offer us ideals to aspire to. “But I say to you that listen, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.” (Luke 6. 27-31)

But we fall short of the mark. Is there room for us then, in the kingdom of God? Of course there is! Pope Francis has declared that this year will be a Jubilee of mercy. The concept of mercy is a synonym for compassionate care and love. When we say that God is merciful, we are speaking about a central attribute of God. At its core it means that the Lord has a special interest in the poor and powerless. This is not referring simply and only to physical deprivation. It is a reference to a recognition on our part that we are poor: radically dependent on the creator of the universe for our life and breath. It is a deeply felt awareness that we are creatures who desperately need the Creator’s love and sustaining power. “I have come not to call the self- righteous, but sinners to conversion.” This includes all of us.

The merciful God knows who we are, and loves each and every one of us just as we are right now. In order to give us guidance in our journey of holiness, the church offers commandments and life-giving rules of compassion to support us in our efforts. But the church knows that we will not live up to the ideal. The ideals are often heroic, and generally we are not such heroes. The holiest of men and women had the nature and the supernatural grace to come close to the ideal. Is there a place for us in the church when we do not achieve the ideal?

In his synthesis and response to the two synods on marriage and the family, Pope Francis made it clear that “general rules set forth a good which can never be disregarded or neglected, but in their formulation they cannot provide absolutely for all particular situations.” Francis made clear that the church rules about marriage and receiving communion cannot be expected to cover every eventuality or every circumstance. “Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” Remember that there have always been exceptions to the rules. The early church created what is known as the Pauline and Petrine privileges. These “privileges” allow a marriage to be dissolved between a baptized person and his or her unbaptized spouse “in favor of the faith.” This is an ancient exception to the rule that marriage cannot be dissolved.

Pope Francis makes clear that the Eucharist is not to be understood as a weapon to afflict Catholics whose marriages have failed. It is to be understood most of all as a gift that brings healing and nourishment. When a marriage fails, the couple can seek counsel from their parish priest in the formation of their consciences. “Not all discussions of doctrinal, moral or pastoral issues need to be settled by interventions of the magisterium (teaching authority of the church).

Human beings differ in their capacities. Human life is complex. The church’s rules can be compassionately and pastorally discussed with those who have been wounded by divorce, in the confidentiality of the rectory. Their informed consciences will be their guide.

Peace, Father Bruce

Bulletin Reflection:

In today's gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

Living Stewardship:

We are grateful this week for all stewards who continually develop their relationship with Jesus through prayer and the Eucharist.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Sharing
Our Giftedness

Our heartfelt thank you to those parishioners who expressed an interest in, joined or remained a member of a ministry and/or organization. We are indeed, as a church family, the Hands of Christ. If you are new to a ministry you will be contacted by a ministry representative.

Today's Gospel reading from Luke tells the story of the five loaves and two fish as blessed by our Lord to allow the disciples to feed the crowd. Did you know that our Eucharistic Ministers, whether at Mass or to sick or homebound individuals, have the opportunity to be the Body of Christ to others through their ministry? Have you ever considered becoming a Eucharistic Minister yourself so that you can also become the Body of Christ by bringing Holy Communion to others? We have a wonderful Eucharistic Minister ministry at St. Kilian's and training is provided. Think how joyful it would be to feed others with the gift of the Eucharist!

Would you be willing to help out with hospitality as needed when there are events in the Parish Center or Auditorium? Remember that many hands make light work. If you are unsure what is involved call and leave your name and phone number at the rectory (516-249-0127). If you already know that you would like to join this ministry please fill out the Time & Talent Commitment Form and return it either with the regular collection or at the rectory, attention Stewardship Committee.

If you are still mulling over the idea of becoming part of a ministry at St. Kilian, we pray that you will be open to seeking out the information you need to make your decision. If you are unable to join a ministry, please pray that the parish will be served by others who are in a position to do so.

God Bless!

St. Kilian Stewardship Committee

Monday is Memorial Day and we would like to recognize and show our sincere appreciation to all of the men and women who are serving their country to help insure the freedoms we all enjoy.

Please take a moment tomorrow to pray for all of those who have and are serving our country in the military as well as for their families.

As we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice let us also be thankful that through generous donations to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, and Catholic Charities Project Veterans Independence, our Church has been able to help homeless veterans find permanent housing, gain independence and live in dignity.

Thank you for your support and God Bless America!!!

29 DE MAYO DE 2016

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

La liturgia de hoy nos lleva a un compromiso hacia la participación y valoración consiente y activa de la Eucaristía. En muchos lugares este día hacen procesión con el Santísimo Sacramento; en otros ya se ha perdido esta bella costumbre. De cualquier manera, la Eucaristía es un sacramento que pide y exige cambio de actitudes, internas y externas. La palabra Eucaristía significa acción de gracias. Jesús en su vida terrena vivía dando gracias y también nosotros debemos hacer de nuestra propia vida una continua acción de gracias. ¿Pero a quién debemos dar gracias? ¿Por qué y para que debemos dar gracias? Jesús nos enseña que es importante dar gracias al Padre del cielo. Veamos el texto de hoy: «Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronuncio sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a los discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran» (Lc 9, 16).

San Pablo también nos ayuda a reflexionar en las siguientes palabras de la Eucaristía: «Esto es mi cuerpo, que se entrega por ustedes. Hagan esto en memoria mía» (1 Cor 11, 24). Y ¿qué es esto que tenemos que hacer en memoria de Cristo nuestro Señor? En primer lugar es hacer lo que Cristo hizo, dar de comer a los pobres, vestir al desnudo, visitar al enfermo, etcétera. En segundo lugar, dar la vida por los demás, quiere decir trabajar y llevar el sustento a casa, amar sin reservas a la familia, perdonar al que nos ha ofendido. Recuerda, no se puede comer el cuerpo y beber la sangre de Cristo y seguir viviendo egoístamente encerrados en uno mismo.

Muchas gracias a todos los que expresan interés en unirse y renovar un ministerio en la parroquia de San Kilian. Hemos sido bendecidos con una comunidad que está abierta a prestar servicio a nuestra iglesia, a los fieles y necesitados. Aún puede enviar su Tarjeta de Compromiso por correo o haciéndola llegar a la oficina de la rectoría.

Que Dios bendiga a todos ustedes y a la parroquia de San Kilian.
