Rest in Peace

We remember those who have died in our parish community this week:
Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord;
and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God Rest in Peace,
Amen

Frances Raymond
George Timiani

Scripture Reflection:

Today's second reading tells us to put others before ourselves. There is a popular saying that is related to this reading, "God first, others second, me third."

Stand up To Bullying

“There is only one fair and right way to look down on a person:
To help them to get up.”

- Pope Francis, February 2020

Bullying is a widespread problem that touches on several Catholic Social Teaching principles. Join the St. Kilian Social Justice Committee this month in learning more about bullying and how to prevent it.

The stats are troubling:

- One out of every five students report being bullied (National Bullying Prevention Center).
- 75% of workers report being affected by bullying at work (University of Phoenix).
- The rate of cyberbullying is growing rapidly (National Bullying Prevention Center)

StopBullying.gov is a resource that helps us understand, prevent and respond to bullying. Here you will find a full training center, an interactive map showing the most current local bullying/ cyberbullying policies and a digital citizenship toolkit. Open your phone to take a picture,

Our parish established a Social Justice Committee with the goal of sharing Catholic Social Teaching information with parishioners.

Guide Dog Etiquette -

Guide Dog Foundation For the Blind

Guide dogs are the guiding eyes for people who are blind or visually impaired and they are specially bred and trained for this most important job. Here are guidelines people should follow when in the presence of a guide dog to allow for the safety of the dog and its handler. Disregarding these guidelines can distract the dog, which can create a dangerous situation for the dog and its handler.

Thank you for respecting me and my guide dog. Your consideration and support let us live without boundaries.

Thank you for not touching, talking, feeding, or otherwise distracting my guide dog while it is wearing its harness. Please allow my dog to work for our own safety.

Thank you for not grabbing me, or my guide dog's harness to show us where to go. Please ask me if I need your assistance and offer your left arm to guide us. My dog's harness handle is like a steering wheel of a car; as my dog walks, I can tell which direction it wants me to go in through the harness handle.

Thank you for speaking directly to me and not my friend, spouse, or dog.

Thank you for not focusing on my disability. It's OK to ask questions, but sometimes I may be too busy to answer, or I may not want to talk about that part of my life.

Thank you for keeping your children and pets under control around my guide dog. Although my dog has been trained to ignore distractions, it still can be difficult for us to work within that type of environment.

I appreciate that you pay attention when driving. My guide dog is trained to disobey a command if cars or other dangers are in our path, but it's much safer for all of us when you are watching out too.

Thank you for supporting my right to be in public places with my guide dog to assist me. It's very helpful when you and the public are aware about our civil rights under state and federal laws.

I understand that some people may have had bad experiences with dogs, but please know that you are safe around mine. My guide dog has been trained to not be aggressive and in control at all times.

Thank you for asking me first if it is OK to pet my dog. For more information, or if you would like to support the Foundation, by volunteering or to make a donation, please contact:

JESUS' PARABLES

Jesus often used stories about everyday objects to teach important spiritual truths. We call these stories parables. Use the code below to figure out the answers to these parable questions.

1. Jesus used me as an example of a true neighbor in this parable about what it means to love our neighbor.

(Luke 10:30-37)

2. A merchant sold all that he had to buy me in this parable about the Kingdom of Heaven.

(Matthew 13:45-46)

3. A woman swept her floor looking for me in this parable about heavenly joy over repentant sinners.

(Luke 15:8-10)

4. Ninety-nine were left in the pasture while a man looked for me. (Luke 15:4-7)

5. This tiny seed became a tree in this parable about the Kingdom of God. (Luke 13:18-19)

6. The prodigal son would have gladly eaten my food in this parable. (Luke 15:15-16)

7. I choked out the seed in the Parable of the Sower. (Matthew 13:7)

8. The foolish builders used me as the foundation of their house, but their house collapsed. (Matthew 7:26-27)

9. Jesus used me as an example of knowing the seasons in this parable about His return. (Mark 13:28-29)

10. Jesus said that I would not be placed under a basket or a bed in this parable about things hidden and revealed. (Mark 4:21)

“Estamos muy contentos con este nuevo ofrecimiento, dirigido a la evangelización de la creciente comunidad Católica Hispana en Long Island y aún más allá,” dijo Monseñor James C. Vlaun, CEO y presidente de Catholic Faith Network.

“Les invitamos a mirar periódicamente a CFN Español ya que estaremos pasando de manera continua nueva programación para los Católicos Hispanos durante nuestra programación 2020-2021,” Añadió.

Catholic Faith Network puede ser visto en los canales de Optimum 29 y 137, en Verizon FiOS TV en el canal 296, y en Spectrum en los canales 162 y 471. CFN también está disponible en sistemas seleccionados de cable, satélite y en vivo 24/7 en CFNTV.org. También puedes ver CFN en Roku, Apple TV, Amazon Fire TV, Android, o bajando la aplicación móvil CFN iOS en la tienda de aplicaciones buscando “Catholic Faith Network” o “CFN”.

Catholic Faith Network (CFN) también está disponible en seleccionados sistemas de cable y satélite a nivel nacional, además de una vasta lista “on-demand” de programación original y en alta calidad en vivo 24/7.
