Respect Life Corner: About the New Jersey Safe Haven

Law: Why are states offering Safe Haven Laws? The purpose of Safe Haven is to protect unwanted babies from being hurt or killed because they were abandoned. You may have heard tragic stories of babies left in dumpsters or public toilets. The parents who committed these acts may have been under severe emotional distress. The mothers may have hidden their pregnancies, fearful of what would happen if their families found out. Because they were afraid and had nowhere to turn for help, they abandoned their babies. Abandoning a baby puts the child in extreme danger. Too often, it results in the child's death. It is also illegal, with severe consequences. But with Safe Haven, this tragedy doesn't ever have to happen again. In New Jersey, no one ever has to abandon a child again. You can leave your baby, up to 30 days old, at an emergency room of any licensed hospital or at any state, county or municipal police station in New Jersey. For more information <http://safehaven.tv/states/newjersey/#info> or call 1-888-510-2229

What is the main requirement to get closer to Jesus? It's to suffer for the sake of the advancement of His kingdom in this world. Without suffering for Christ there would be no close friendship with him.

Many of us are so afraid to suffer for Christ sake because this will disturb us. If we have this mentality, we therefore are only thinking of ourselves and not thinking of the welfare of others. We only are concerned of what we can get from this present world. And forget about what is there for us after this world.

We may be stripped of our riches in the process of our desire to get closer to Jesus. Many will hate us! We have to understand that we don't live in this world to be in this world. We live in this world now so that we can go to heaven and be with the Lord someday.

Our motivation should be heaven, to be with Jesus. Otherwise if our motivation is centered in this world alone, we would never have peace. We may have all the things in this world, but we still will have no peace for there will be absence of Christ in our life.

In this Sunday's gospel Jesus tells us: "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man" (Luke 6:22).

Therefore, let us not be afraid of the challenges. That we might face for the sake of advancing the kingdom of God in this world. For this is the reason of our existence. God made us to exist in this world so that we could bring others closer to Jesus.

Have you already suffered for Christ and have you already brought somebody closer to him? If your answer is yes, you are truly blessed!

Fr. Pawel
