Today's Gospel begins as Jesus and his disciples are getting into a boat. Remember, Jesus had been teaching all day. He had been surrounded by crowds of people. Most likely, Jesus just wanted some peace and quiet. He must have been tired. As they crossed the sea, a severe storm came up. The waves were high and strong and the boat began to fill with water. The disciples became afraid. They were concerned for their safety. However, Jesus remained asleep despite the violence of the storm. He was completely unaware of the disciples' fear and concern. Finally, the disciples woke Jesus up. They accused Jesus of not caring about them. Didn't He know they were in danger? Doesn't He care about them? Jesus immediately commands the wind and the seas to be still. And Mark says: "There was a great calm." Can you remember a difficult time in your life when you were afraid? What was that time like for you? Did you turn to Jesus as His disciples did? Or did you try to control the situation all by yourself? Perhaps the question for us is: do we trust Jesus? Do we turn to Jesus when we are in need? Do we truly believe that Jesus is with us? Today thank Jesus for his presence with you. Thank Jesus for helping you survive difficult moments. And later on, you even may thank Jesus for the gifts that you may have received through this experience. Today may we pray for each other that we will trust Jesus, and may we ask for the patience to wait for our gifts and graces to manifest in our lives. They will come! Trust Him! He will not disappoint us!

Fr. Pawel

Year of Saint Joseph: "Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil." Amen

Corpus Christi Food Collection: Bishop Sweeney is asking all parishes to participate in our Diocesan-wide Corpus Christi Food Drive. This year, the drive has gone virtual, and you can shop online and have items directly shipped to Catholic Charities Food Pantries. Visit www.ccpaterson.org/corpus to make a monetary donation or for more information about this important effort. Here you can find our parish and shop for items of great need. You may also email: Info@ccpaterson.org or call 973-279-7100 ext. 2038 with any questions or to donate food directly to Catholic Charities Food Pantries.

Peter's Pence Collection: Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which is a way to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis with the funds to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.peterspence.va/en.html.

Respect Life Corner: "Respect for life from conception to natural death" affects families, healthcare workers and individuals. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website, www.USCCB.org posts several short videos that can shed some light into how "respect for life" can be challenged in ways that we least expect and at times when we are most vulnerable. You will find a link below to some of the personal stories of individuals, health professionals, or families affected by decisions they faced regarding their own health, the health of their patients, or their family members. Go to www.USCCB.org, type in Pro Life Videos, click GO, then click on Respect Life Videos: Jeanette's Story 15 Years Later. Jeanette had no hope that treatment would work for the cancer prognosis she had been given. Please see this short video to find out how Dr. Stevens supported and helped her through successful treatment instead of the only option she thought she had!

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11

Job, in his suffering, questioned the power of God.

The Lord proclaims his power and indicates that even the sea is subject to his will.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Christ died for all of us that we may live for him. Anyone who believes in Christ enters into new and eternal life.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

During a bad storm, Jesus ordered the wind and sea to be still, and his disciples were quite amazed at his power. Jesus reminds them to trust and have faith, even in times of danger.
