PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Guardian Angel Parish in the Archdiocese of Newark, are a community of Catholic Christians being formed by the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As a community open to the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit, we strive to work, share, and enjoy life as a witness to the true meaning of Christian Living.

We believe our mission is:

- To be a community of loving and caring people.
- To teach and witness the Good News of Jesus Christ.
- To celebrate that Good News in Sacraments and Prayer.
- To minister to all people in their spiritual and physical needs.

A Message from the Pastor

May 6, 2018
Sixth Sunday of Easter

Dear parishioners,

This weekend at the Saturday 5:30 p.m. and Sunday 11:30 parish Masses we are celebrating "First Holy Communion" of many of our parish children. Of course that title is a little misleading – it is actually the first reception of Holy Communion. Like all baptized Catholics, these children and their families are called by Christ to participate every week in the celebration of Mass. I hope you will take time to also look around the church at the personal banners the children made with their parents – expressions of the faith we share!

In light of these special celebrations, I share with you the following address Pope Francis offered recently about Sunday Mass – well worth reading and reflecting upon!

We ask ourselves: why go to Sunday Mass?

The Sunday celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of the Church's life (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2177). We Christians go to Sunday Mass to encounter the Risen Lord, or better still to allow ourselves to be encountered by him, to hear his Word, to nourish ourselves at his table, and thus to become the Church, that is, his mystical living Body in the world.

From the first hour, Jesus' disciples understood this; they celebrated the Eucharistic encounter with the Lord on the day of the week that the Hebrews called "the first of the week" and the Romans called "day of the sun", because on that day Jesus rose from the dead and appeared to the disciples, speaking with them, eating with them, giving them the Holy Spirit (cf. Mt 28:1; Mk 16:9, 14; Lk 24:1, 13; Jn 20:1, 19). The great outpouring of the Spirit at Pentecost also happened on a Sunday, the 50th day after Jesus' Resurrection. For these reasons, Sunday is a holy day for us, sanctified by the Eucharistic celebration, the living presence of the Lord among us and for us. Thus, it is the Mass that makes Sunday Christian. The Christian Sunday revolves around the Mass. For a Christian, what is a Sunday in which the encounter with the Lord is lacking?

Some secularized societies have lost the Christian sense of Sunday illuminated by the Eucharist. This is a shame! In these contexts it is necessary to revive this awareness, to recover the meaning of the celebration, the meaning of the joy, of the parish community, of solidarity, of the rest which restores body and soul. Of all these values, the Eucharist is our guide, Sunday after Sunday. For this reason the Second Vatican Council wished to emphasize that Sunday "is the original feast day, and it should be proposed to the piety of the faithful and taught to them so that it may become in fact a day of joy and of freedom from work" (Constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium, 106) ...

Without Christ we are condemned to be dominated by everyday weariness, with its worries, and by fear of the

HOLY DAY - THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Forty days after Easter, the Church has traditionally celebrated the Ascension of Jesus Christ into Heaven. The prayers to God at Mass emphasize our hope that we too may follow God's Son to the joys of Heaven. The Solemnity of the Ascension is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Mass will be celebrated in our Church this Thursday, May 10th, at 9 am, 3:45 pm and 8 pm

future. The Sunday encounter with the Lord gives us the strength to experience the present with confidence and courage, and to go forth with hope. For this reason we Christians go to encounter the Lord on Sunday, in the Eucharistic celebration...

How can we respond to those who say that it is of no use going to Mass, even on Sunday, because the important thing is to live well, to love our neighbor? It is true that the quality of Christian life is measured by the capacity to love, as Jesus said: "By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn 13:35); but how can we practice the Gospel without drawing the energy necessary to do so, one Sunday after another, from the inexhaustible source of the Eucharist? We do not go to Mass in order to give something to God, but to receive what we truly need from him. We are reminded of this by the Church's prayer, which is addressed to God in this way: "although you have no need of our praise, yet our thanksgiving is itself your gift, since our praises add nothing to your greatness but profit us for salvation" (Roman Missal, Common Preface IV).

In conclusion, why do we go to Mass on Sundays? It is not enough to respond that it is a precept of the Church; this helps to preserve its value, but alone does not suffice. We Christians need to participate in Sunday Mass because only with Jesus' grace, with his living presence within us and among us, can we put his commandment into practice, and thus be his credible witnesses.

In Christ,

Father Charlie

BAPTISMS

By Baptism we become members of the Church the Body of Christ.

Many blessing to Anna Ella Oskin, daughter of Michael and Megan Oskin who is being baptized in our parish this weekend. May she always find a welcome home here at Guardian Angel.

BE MY WITNESS NEWS...

Be My Witness groups are continuing to get together, generally once a month to share scripture, prayer, and offer service to our church community? Inviting and welcoming new parishioners to the spaghetti dinner last Sunday is an example of service. The upcoming Welcoming Coffee after all the masses on May 19 and 20, Pentecost SUNDAY, is being planned by Chuck Assicurato's Thursday night group. It is an opportunity to enjoy refreshments while getting to know each other better. All are invited to participate. Deacon Rey Escalon is working on a bible study program and those who are interested should email Rey, escalonr@hotmail.com. Newcomers are always welcome to join a BMW group. For more information email at cblake38@gmail.com.

In today's Gospel from John, Jesus speaks of his disciples as his friends. God's invitation to loving friendship is present in all of our readings. God offers a relationship of mutual knowledge and trust. As with our ordinary human friendships, a space is created where we can relax, rest, and be playful with each other. We can feel safe enough to reveal our inner selves to each other, and to heal divisions between us. Friendship with God is not burdensome or dutiful, as with slaves and masters, because it leads to a shared joy. Nor is the friendship shallow or sentimental, because it involves a mutual laying down of one's self. Friendship with God eventually means extending this shared love to others, and becoming a part of the wider circle of God's friends. God longs to be friends with us, and extends an invitation.

STEWARDSHIP WEEKLY REFLECTION

May 6, 2018 6th Sunday of Easter

“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends” - John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

FULL-TIME DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

St. Paul Church in Ramsey is seeking a full-time Director of Faith Formation (Religious Education) for a large parish in Northwest Bergen County. The program is for children and families through 8th grade (with oversight of 9th-10th grade Confirmation Program). This position is a ministry to 1200 children as well as parents, families, catechists, and with a presence to the entire parish family. Responsibilities include sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. Ideal candidate should have an understanding of the catechetical ministry of the Church, be willing to work with what is already here but with a creative eye to lead Faith Formation to something new and exciting through openness to different models and experiences of religious education. The ideal candidate is a disciple in love with Christ, a desire to share Him with others, and with a passion for the New Evangelization so that we can catechize those who have been first evangelized rather than attempting to catechize those who have not. Candidate must be able to work with two part-time administrative assistants as well as a part-time Confirmation Coordinator, and also as part of a great parish staff that meets weekly for pastoral planning and prayer. Questions and resumes should be sent to dschifano@stpaulrcchurch.org.

A Tradition Worth Keeping

We traditionally honor Mary during the month of May. This is most appropriate for the Mother of God who gave birth to the Savior of the world. Mary's heart is filled with the love of Christ and also with the love of every one of God's children. Would you be so kind as to imitate that love of humanity by donating to the Catholic Charities bin located at the entrance to the small parking on our property? We need used clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, stuffed animals, novels, and children's books.
