MESSAGE FROM FR. ROBERT

August 2, 2020
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

The Summer continues and it does not seem any clearer how things are going to be in the Fall for school, for businesses, and for the Church. Will we be able to open up more seating? Will we be permitted to hold parking lot Masses? How will our commitment to the Religious Education of our children take shape? The answers to many of these things is uncertain and we are busy making plans to address as many contingencies as we can think of. Two things I ask of us all (including myself!) during these uncertain times:

Be patient – nobody has the answers, so impatience just makes everyone upset

Pray – pray for a cure, pray for a vaccine, pray for endurance

We will come out of this at some point – let us keep our faith strong in the process. I believe that the precautions that we have implemented have kept everyone safe at Guardian Angel – I ask that all of you that come to please continue to be vigilant – wear your masks over both nose and mouth – practice social distancing – stay home if you do not feel well in any way – and, of course, wash your hands and use hand sanitizer!

For our spiritual nourishment this week, let us read the Angelus address of the Holy Father from the Vatican last Sunday:

Dear brothers and sisters, good day!

This Sunday's Gospel reading (see Mt 13:44-52) consists of the final verses of the chapter Matthew devotes to the parable of the Kingdom of Heaven. The passage includes three parables that are very briefly outlined: that of the hidden treasure, that of the precious pearl, and that of the net cast into the sea.

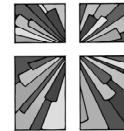

I will look at the first two in which the Kingdom of Heaven is compared to two different "precious" items, namely, the hidden treasure in the field and the pearl of great value. The reaction of he who finds the pearl or the treasure is practically the same: the man and the merchant sell everything to buy what is now most dear to them. With these two similes, Jesus proposes to involve us in the building of the Kingdom of Heaven, presenting an essential characteristic of Christian life, of the life of the Kingdom of heaven: those who fully pledge themselves to the Kingdom are those who are willing to stake everything, who are courageous. Indeed, both the man and the merchant in these two parables sell everything they have, thus renouncing their material security. From this it can be understood that the building of the Kingdom requires not only the grace of God, but also the active willingness of humanity. Everything is done by grace, everything! We need only have the willingness to receive it, not to resist grace: grace does everything but it takes "my" responsibility, "my" willingness ... and who is responsible for this?

RECTORY OFFICE HOURS

The front rectory office will be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9am to 4pm. Please wear a mask when coming to the office.

Daily Mass intentions are available for 2020. You can come to the rectory to get a Mass card or if you prefer to be contactless please call the rectory office at 201-327-4359 x202 and we can assist you.

Religious Education office will be closed August 3rd to September 1, 2020.

The gestures of the man and the merchant who seek to buy more precious treasures, depriving themselves of their goods, are decisive gestures, and radical gestures; but I would say that they are "one way" gestures, not a "round trip": they are "one way" gestures. Moreover, they are gestures made with joy because both of them have found treasure. We are called upon to assume the attitude of these two Gospel figures, so that we too may become healthily restless seekers of the Kingdom of Heaven. It is a matter of abandoning the heavy burden of our worldly sureties that prevent us from searching and building up the Kingdom: the covetousness for possession, the thirst for profit and power, and thinking only of ourselves.

In our times, as we are all aware, some people's lives can end up mediocre and dull because they probably do not go in search of real treasure: they are content with attractive but fleeting things, whose bright lights prove illusory as they give way to darkness. Instead the light of the Kingdom is not like fireworks, it is light: fireworks last only an instant, whereas the light of the Kingdom accompanies all our life.

The Kingdom of Heaven is the opposite of the superfluous things that the world offers, the opposite of a dull life: it is a treasure that renews life every day and leads it to extend towards wider horizons. Indeed, those who have found this treasure have a creative and inquisitive heart, which does not repeat but rather invents, tracing and setting out on new paths which lead us to love God, to love others, and to truly love ourselves. The sign of those who walk this path of the Kingdom is creativity, always trying to do more. And creativity is what takes life and gives life, and gives, and gives, and gives... It always looks for many other ways to give life.

Jesus, Who is the hidden treasure and the pearl of great value, cannot but inspire joy, all the joy of the world: the joy of discovering a meaning in life, the joy of committing oneself to the adventure of holiness.

May the Blessed Virgin help us to search every day for the treasure of the Kingdom of Heaven, so that the love God has given us through Jesus may be manifested in our words and gestures.

STEWARSHIP NEWS

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to them, 'There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves'."

MATTHEW 14:16

This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand men. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But, we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need. We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us.

Businesses and churches are reopening, however Guardian Angel still depends your donations in church and on online donations to continue our ministry.

We prayerfully invite you to sign up for eGiving from your computer, smartphone or tablet and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NJ513.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

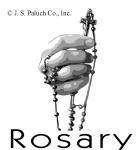

God Bless You,
Fr. Robert

How to Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Newark takes very seriously any and all complaints of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, religious and lay staff of the Archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform the Archdiocese immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse. Individuals who need to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do by calling the Victim's Assistance Coordinator of the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at 201-407-3256.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Dear Young Friends,

"In order to succeed in prayer, it should be done when we first awaken, when our whole being is calm and recollected. We need to make our meditation before anything else." This is a quote from Saint Peter Julian Eymard, whose feast day is August 3rd. Not many teens like waking up in the morning. All the duties of the coming day tend to hit us as soon as we open our eyes. This is why quiet prayer is so important! If you have trouble getting out of bed each day, take that time to thank God for your many blessings, to offer Him your day, or just talk to Him about what lies ahead. Need extra help? Try the "Hallow" app on your phone. There you will find "one-minute meditations" that help you calm down and focus on Jesus' presence in your life. With practice, you will begin to rise each morning with joy!

LESSONS TO BE LEARNED

The miracle of the loaves and fishes is one of the best known in the Gospels. It is also one that people have tried to explain as a myth, or say that Jesus called for people to share what they brought and that turned out to be sufficient. The fact that the story is repeated in all four Gospels (one Gospel says Jesus did it twice) leads us to believe that it is a genuine miracle. When Jesus performs a miracle, he is not trying to show off his power. He always has a lesson that his action illustrates. This miracle can teach us many things. Let's look at a few of them.

One is the compassion of Christ. He has pity on the crowd and first shows his love by curing their sick. Then he sees they are hungry and feeds them. This reminds us that Jesus knows what we need and cares about us.

The bread reminds us of Jesus' temptation in the desert, where he said "man does not live on bread alone." He meant that mere food is not enough; we need to hear God's word. The people all followed Jesus because they wanted to hear more from him. Just as the miracle satisfied the hunger of five thousand families, so his word will satisfy the spiritual hunger of millions.

Notice the actions of the miracle: he blessed, broke, and gave the bread to the disciples to distribute. These are the actions of the Eucharist where bread is blessed, broken, and given to us, his disciples. So the miracle reminds us that Jesus will give us himself as Bread and Wine to be our food and drink. The miracle of bread and wine becoming the Body and Blood of Christ happens every day.

So the question is, do we learn from this miracle? Do we trust the Lord to care for all our needs? Do we thirst for God's word to inform our lives? Do we try to live by that word? And finally, do we take advantage of the great gift of the Eucharist daily or at least weekly? The miracle may have happened two thousand years ago, but the lessons are meant for us today.
