MEMORIALS – For January 7th to January 13th, 2018
The Sanctuary Lamp in the Church will burn in loving memory of Helen Martin.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

The 45th Annual “March for Life” - Friday, January 19th
Please take a Rose after Mass and sign up to attend the March for Life.

The secular world may think that it has attained a higher moral ground than the Catholic Church on the subject of abortion. After all, instead of asserting, “Every child should be a wanted child,” the Church is stating, in effect, “Every child should be accepted, even when a child imposes a terrible burden on his parents.” Thus the world can seem more compassionate than the Church, because it seemingly spares parents a great deal of grief. The world may think this way, but only because it has such little faith in, or understanding of love. The child who is loved will not be a burden, because love is stronger than any burden. In fact, love can transfigure burdens into blessings. And this is the central mystery of the crucified Christ. He was innocent and blameless. Yet His love transcended His suffering and gave us witness to the redemptive power of love.

Pastor's Gratitude: “I am grateful for the opportunity to be on retreat this past week in sunny Florida!”

Parishioner's Comments: “I hope the maintenance fund helped to offset some of the extra costs incurred with that bitter cold weather and snow.”

THANK YOU DECORATING & GARDEN ANGELS

We are extremely appreciative to all those who helped decorate the church and chapel this Christmas season. It was truly a beautiful sight. We are also thankful to Barbara & Rich Perino and Tom Black for watering and maintaining the plants for the past few weeks!

PLEASE TAKE A POINSETTIA PLANT HOME!

Parishioners are encouraged to take home a poinsettia plant or maybe two. They have decorated our sanctuary beautifully during the Christmas season...but it is time for them to go. Hope you enjoy them in your homes.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION DINNER DANCE

Saturday, January 27 – 6pm

Invitations to the Annual Appreciation Dinner Dance have been mailed to all OLM 2017 volunteers. If you are a volunteer, and did not get an invitation, please call Lauri Paporello at the rectory at 973-838-6838, ext. 103. RVSP is due by January 19th

ICICLE LIGHTS NEEDED

Do you have some outdoor Icicle Lights that we could borrow to decorate for the Appreciation Dinner Dance? If so, please call Lauri Paporello at the rectory, 973-838-6838, ext. 103

2017 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

In Giving, We Receive

If you have not yet responded to the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal, there is still time to do so as the 2017 Appeal funds are used to support ministries and programs through the end of the diocesan fiscal year on June 30, 2018. Your gift is a great blessing and valued so we can serve Christ by serving his people. For your convenience, you can make an online gift at www.2017appeal.org.

EVA'S KITCHEN VOLUNTEERS

The Eva's kitchen commitment for OLM is Saturday, February 3rd, 2018. Anyone wishing to volunteer to cook please take a pan/recipe and add your name to the volunteer list. Please drop off frozen casseroles at the OLM parking lot between 8:30-8:45 on Saturday, February 3rd, 2018. Thank you. Any questions please call Kathy and Joe Gravino at 973-830-0559.

LIFETEEN IS ON INSTAGRAM AND TWITTER!

Follow us on Instagram @OLMLifeTeen and Twitter @olm_LifeTeen.

LIFETEEN- WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2018

LifeTeen is finally here! Our weekly high school youth group, LifeTeen, will kick off on Wednesday, February 7th at 7:30pm in the youth lounge (OLM school). Each week we will have something different planned and you won't walk away disappointed. Come see for yourself what is changing hearts and parishes across the country- this ain't yo Mama's youth group! ALL HIGH SCHOOL TEENS WELCOME!

SAVE THE DATE: STEUBENVILLE EAST, JULY 13-15

This weekend get-away for all high school students (incoming freshmen through outgoing seniors) is like nothing you've ever experienced before. The Steubenville East Youth Conference will be held at the Tsongas Center in Lowell, Massachusetts. This arena has 6,000 seats and teens from all over the country will gather for a 3 day youth retreat led and sponsored by LifeTeen and Franciscan University of Steubenville. Some of the country's best speakers and musicians will be there and you should be too! Registration details will be provided in February, but the conference sells out every year, so mark the date on your calendar- you don't want to miss it! If you have any questions, please contact Kim Oliveira on 973-349-8341.

"CALLED AND CHALLENGED"

In today's readings we experience the call of the Lord and the response of those who are called. In our first reading, Samuel, who has been promised to the Lord from birth by his mother Hannah, hears the Lord call him. Samuel was not familiar with the Lord's voice, but with the help of Eli he answered the Lord saying, "Speak Lord, your servant is listening", and the Lord continued to remain always with Samuel. In our 2nd reading St. Paul reminds the Corinthians (and therefore us also) of Christ's call to remain pure and avoid sexual immorality. He instructs us to glorify the Lord with our body, which is the temple of the Holy Spirit. Your body belongs to Christ for "you have been purchased at a great price." Have you heard and answered the call of Christ? Do you know that "whoever is joined to the Lord becomes One Spirit with Him?" Like Samuel, are you willing to say "your servant is listening" or do you usually filter out the Lord's more difficult teachings, thereby turning your back on the Lord's call? In today's Gospel we hear the powerful witness of Andrew who tells his brother Simon, "We have found the Messiah." Andrew encounters Christ when he overhears John the Baptist proclaim "Behold, the Lamb of God"; then Andrew followed the Lord. Jesus asks Andrew and another Disciple "What are you looking for?" Today Jesus asks you the same question, "What are YOU looking for?" How will you answer Jesus's call to follow Him? The two disciples did follow and Christ challenged them to "COME AND SEE." Will you take the time necessary to get to know Christ in order to recognize His voice? Jesus invites those of you who are serious searchers, who deeply desire to seek and know Christ, to a more intimate relationship. Take up His challenge of putting your faith into action. Purify your mind and body, seek only those things of God and surrender all to the Lord, becoming a committed witness to the Good News of Christ. In today's readings all who were called by Christ answered 'yes' to His challenge. TODAY, YOU ARE CALLED BY CHRIST TO THE SAME CHALLENGE. WILL YOU RESPOND BY SAYING, "HERE I AM LORD, I COME TO DO YOUR WILL." THIS IS THE LORD'S CHALLENGE. WHAT IS YOUR RESPONSE? Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

ONE SPIRIT

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

This powerful story describes Samuel, who at the time was the servant of the high priest. The Lord called out to Samuel, who twice thought Eli had called him. They gradually realized that it was the Lord who called for him. So the third time Samuel answered and the Lord remained with Samuel as he grew.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Paul explains to the Corinthians that their body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. He tells them to avoid lewd conduct, and glorify God by keeping their bodies pure.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

John told two of his disciples that Jesus is the Lamb of God. They turned and followed him, immediately curious and attracted to him. Andrew told his brother Simon about Jesus. Simon also came to meet Jesus, who renamed him Cephas, or Peter.
