

MARY'S MAGNIFICAT

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.

Luke 1:46-55

He spoke to us with a message of peace and taught us to live as brothers and sisters.

His message took form in the vision of our founding fathers

as they fashioned a nation

where we might live as one.

His message lives in our midst

as our task for today

and the promise for tomorrow.

With hearts full of love...

We give thanks to our Lord God.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you... 'Come to me, all you who are weary and are burdened, and I will give you rest.'"

Among the basic questions we are asked is, 'Where do you live?', 'Where is your residence?', 'Who else dwells there?' We do not hesitate to respond. Our response to St. Paul's teaching is that the Holy Spirit dwells in me to guide, strengthen and support me as I live my Christian life. I find meaning through Him.

In case I have forgotten this important truth, may I respond to the gracious invitation of the Lord to come to Him, ask Him to ease my many burdens and allow me to find comfort and rest in Him. He never ceases to offer me this invitation and the gift of His abiding in me.
