Ask the Pastor

Promises, Promises

Question: Okay, regarding my question... I was always quite curious of this; if someone is faithfully wearing the Brown Scapular and dies without warning and without the ability of confessing one's sins, are you still taken right up to Heaven? Are you sent to Purgatory until you are "purged" then taken to Heaven? Thank you for taking the time in reading this!

Response: Regardless of one's devotion to the Brown Scapular or First Friday/First Saturday, anyone who dies with mortal sins has chosen to not go to heaven and has put their soul in a state of peril: "Mortal sin is a radical possibility of human freedom, as is love itself. It results in the loss of charity and the privation of sanctifying grace, that is, of the state of grace. If it is not redeemed by repentance and God's forgiveness, it causes exclusion from Christ's kingdom and the eternal death of hell, for our freedom has the power to make choices for ever, with no turning back. (CCC, 1861)" Again, regardless of one's devotion to the Brown Scapular, etc., if one dies in a state of venial sin, then these sins must be purged from us in Purgatory before we can enter heaven and enjoy the blessed vision of God: "Venial sin weakens charity; it manifests a disordered affection for created goods; it impedes the soul's progress in the exercise of the virtues and the practice of the moral good; it merits temporal punishment. Deliberate and unrepented venial sin disposes us little by little to commit mortal sin. However venial sin does not set us in direct opposition to the will and friendship of God; it does not break the covenant with God. With God's grace it is humanly reparable. 'Venial sin does not deprive the sinner of sanctifying grace, friendship with God, charity, and consequently eternal happiness.' (CCC, 1863)" Thus, venial sin will not deny us eternal beatitude, but must still be purged before we can receive entrance into Heaven.

Devotions like the Brown Scapular are meant to deepen our spiritual practices and docility to the Holy Spirit who is calling us to holiness of life. Thus, they do not mechanistically or magically bestow eternal blessedness upon us. We, in our freedom, must still choose to do the work necessary, cooperating with the graces received through these devotional practices, to respond to God's invitation and free gift of salvation.

Pompeii

Visit the Historic Ruins of Pompeii

$70 USD

Experience the eerie pull of history as you walk through Pompeii, the excavated ruins of a Roman city at the foothills of Mount Vesuvius. Discover what was buried under more than 60 feet of ash and pumice, sealing history away until it was discovered in the mid-1700s. The walking tour begins at Porta Marina, the city gate leading to the Sea. Ascend to the Forum, which was once the core of daily life in the city, as well as Pompeii's main places of citizen worship. Along the way see the theatres, bath complex, and plaster casts while a local expert guides you through Pompeian life and history. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 15 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Rome

Rome: The "Eternal City" Revealed

$85 USD

On a compelling tour of Rome's most famous antiquities, you'll discover why this city has been known through the ages as the "Eternal City." Spend your afternoon with a local expert leading you through Rome's iconic monuments. Visit the legendary Colosseum, the site of ancient gladiator contests. Discover the harrowing legends of this symbol of the plight of early Christians. The Colosseum was once believed to be one of the sites where the first Christians were martyred, though it was later proved a myth. Still today the religious significance endures, and the Colosseum marks the start of the Good Friday Procession, during which the Pope commemorates the stages of the Passion of Jesus. Your tour continues with a visit to the Roman Forum, a social space once located at the center of Rome and surrounded by the ruins of the Senate and of ancient pagan temples. As you step on the ancient flagstones paving the Via Sacra, or "Sacred Way" close your eyes and imagine it as it was more than 20 centuries ago, when Julius Caesar walked there. Please note this option needs to be pre-purchased 90 days prior to departure; bookings requested while on tour may not be possible. Due to these conditions, once purchased it is non-refundable. Please note this option requires walking on uneven terrain. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 15 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Post Tour Extension

Rate: $899.00 USD per person, double, land only, airfare is not included. The purchase of an additional air segment is required for this extension. Please inquire for air rate at time of booking.

3 Meals: 2 Breakfasts, 1 Dinner

Day 11: Rome - Basilica of St. Anthony of Padua - Mestre, Venice

Start your morning with a transfer to Padua and spend time in the Basilica of Saint Anthony. A sprawling church of iconic domes, this Franciscan sanctuary is visited by millions of pilgrims each year. You will have the option of celebrating Mass here. End your day in the city of Mestre, nestled along the coast of mainland Venice. Settle in for a 2-night stay, your gateway to the Venetian lagoon.

Day 12: Mestre - Murano Island - Venice - Mestre

Enjoy a full day tour of Venice. Start your day with a boat trip* to Murano Island for a glass-blowing demonstration. After getting a glimpse into the local culture, make your way to St. Mark's Square and join a local expert for a walking tour. You'll explore this famous square and the St. Mark's Basilica, which enshrines the body of Saint Mark the Evangelist under the high altar. Although Saint Mark was originally buried in Egypt, legend claims that two Venetian merchants stole the saint's body from Alexandria and relocated him to Venice in the early 1800s. You will have the option of celebrating Mass here. Enjoy free time in the afternoon to explore the canals on your own before returning to your hotel on the mainland. This evening, experience the flavors of the region with a relaxing dinner at your hotel. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 13: Mestre - Tour Ends

Say goodbye to Italy as your tour comes to a close today. Today breakfast will be included.

Please Note:

The space on this extension is limited. Applicable charges may apply at time of request. Extension space may be increased to accommodate large groups, but it is not guaranteed.

When travelling in a group of less than 16 people, Wi-Fi may not be available on the motorway transfers.

*Your visit to Murano Island may be substituted with a visit to a local glass factory in Venice in the event of inclement weather.

Fully-guided extensions are a great way to explore a new destination. Enjoy sightseeing and local experiences led by a Tour Manager or local expert. If you are traveling in a group without a priest, we cannot guarantee daily Mass. However, you'll be able to attend Mass on most days, but the Masses will be in public churches and presented in Italian.

A minimum of 6 passengers is required for this extension to operate.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first come, first served basis.

Effective immediately and until further notice, all guests will be required to bring one of the following: proof of vaccination (official vaccination certificate in paper or electronic form), proof of recovery from COVID-19 or a negative test result (FDA Approved diagnostic) for a test performed 72-hours or less from the start date of the tour with you on tour to verify information you will be providing to Collette when filling out the Wellness Declaration upon arrival.

The overall activity level of this extension is a level 3. This means walking and standing for longer periods of time (1-2 hours) isn't a big deal for you. You can navigate hills and uneven ground, climb into various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, Zodiac, etc.), and could possibly anticipate changes in elevation. You can expect some longer days balanced with free-time to recharge or set out on your own adventure.

We Are Living in a MARIAN AGE

There is a great need in our society for our children to be brought closer to Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Blessed Mother has appeared to many individuals with her plea to bring everyone to salvation.

Why aren't we LISTENING.

In the final vision of Fatima, October 13, 1917, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel appeared in the sky holding the Brown Scapular. Sister Lucia said this is because, “She wishes everyone to wear it; it is the sign of consecration of Her Immaculate Heart”.

Lucia saw additional visions representing the mysteries of the Rosary; Our Lady of Mt. Carmel represented the Glorious mysteries.

The last appearance of Our Lady to Bernadette Soubirous was on the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

Our Lady of Good Help – October 1859 (The only approved apparitions in the US, Champion, WI, was on Dec. 8, 2010 The Feast of the Immaculate Conception.) Our Lady asked Adele Brise in these apparitions to teach children what they should know about salvation.

The little Brown Scapular Coloring Book, The Story, Miracles and the Rosary Prayer will teach children about the Brown Scapular and the benefits received by wearing it. In addition, children will learn how to pray the Holy Rosary Prayer. The Brown Scapular is Our Lady's garment and protection, and St. Padre Pio called the Rosary, “the weapon”.

Each book includes a children's size Brown Scapular and a Glow in the Dark Rosary. The little Brown Scapular Apostolate, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that was formed to spread the devotion of the Brown Scapular to parishes, Catholic schools and anyone who has a heart for Jesus and the Blessed Mother.

Presentations are available and volunteers are needed.

$7.99

Discounted prices offered for parishes, Catholic schools, homeschoolers, and wholesale prices for ministries/retailers and retreat centers. Parish discount prices are available to individuals interested in purchasing books for parishes or Catholic schools. All tax deductible.

“Say your Rosary everyday....Wear the Scapular devoutly and perseveringly. It is my garment. To be clothed in it means you are continually thinking of me, and I in turn, am always thinking of you and helping you to secure eternal life.”
