

COMMUNION WITH PERSONS SICK OR CONFINED

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

They are available to bring Jesus Christ, in the form of the Most Holy Eucharist, to parishioners who are homebound, hospitalized, or otherwise disabled who are unable to attend Mass and are spiritually prepared. (State of grace).

If you or a loved one desires to receive Holy Communion or if the parishioner requires a priest to administer the Sacraments of Reconciliation (Confession) or the Anointing of the Sick (Extreme Unction), please call the Parish Office at 229-726-3752. to schedule a visit.

Message of Pope Leo XIV

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex

Dear priests, by imitating the example of our Lord, let us grow in faith and become credible witnesses of the vocation we have received. When we believe, it shows. The joy of the minister reflects his encounter with Christ, sustaining him in mission and service. vatican.va/content/leo-xi...

Pope's Prayer Intentions To grow in compassion for the world

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex

The theme of the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation is “Seeds of Peace and Hope.” Environmental justice is an urgent need that involves much more than simply protecting the environment. It is a matter of justice – social, economic and human. vatican.va/content/leo-xi...

Protecting Our Youth: Diocesan policy requires all parish adult employees and volunteers to attend VIRTUS (Safe Environment) awareness training, undergo a criminal background check, read and sign the diocesan code of conduct before participating in any ministry.

For more information call the Parish Office (229) 726-3752 and speak with Lorena.

If you are a victim of abuse by clergy, an employee, or a volunteer in the Diocese of Savannah, or if you know someone who has been a victim of such misconduct, please contact civil authorities at 1-888-357-5330 or the child protective office at 912-201-4074 or visit the website: www.diosav.org/en/child-and-youth-protection
