Pope Leo XIV
Message
Prayer Intentions
To grow in compassion for the world

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex ·
Looking without walking by, halting the frantic pace of our lives, allowing the lives of others, whoever they may be, with their needs and troubles, to touch our heart. That is what makes us neighbors to one another, what generates true fraternity and breaks down walls and barriers.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex
God's fidelity to his promises teaches us that there is a blessedness in old age, an authentic evangelical joy inspiring us to break through the barriers of indifference in which the elderly often find themselves enclosed.

The Spirit of the Lord God is Upon Me (Is 61:1)

<You, beloved, build yourselves up in the most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit. Keep yourselves in the love of God and wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life (Jude 1:20-21)> <We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit that God has given to those who obey him. (Acts 5:32)> Those confirmed who participated in total communion by receiving <The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send -the- name – of Jesus Christ- He will teach you everything and remind you of all that -Jesus- told you, (Jn 14:26)> <with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. (Eph 4:30)> by Bishop Stephen Parkes of the Diocese of Savannah, and in the presence of their loved ones.

<Now, the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. (2 Cor 3:17)> <May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit, (Rom 15:13)> <and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. (Rom 5:5)>

<The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. (2 Cor 13:13)>
