Under the Big Tent

In the world of entertainment, the main event always takes place under the big tent. There is no doubt that the main event at Saint Vincent Martyr on Saturday, September 15, was our parish picnic. Like any big production the preparations began weeks before and were organized by our top notch producers - Kathy & Neil Simonelli and Barbara Doyle. The night before the grand event some of our office staff took on a different role from their day job, put on an apron and prepped for the next day - Pat Caccavale, Jody and Jim Costello, Joanne Novack and Sr. Ann were among their number. Meanwhile, our road crew - Randal Matthis, Tom Kenny and Michael Pascuite were at work in the Ministry Center parking lot getting the stage ready for the curtain to rise on Saturday morning.

And then it was show time! The opening act was beautifully and powerfully orchestrated by our Knights of Columbus who were joined by a chorus of cooks who danced around their grills and sterno trays bringing the house down with their show stopping, star quality, super delicious food! The audience gathered under the big tent to eat and to talk, taking a moment here or there to listen to the musical portion of our really big show! They were welcomed by our name tag crew who helped make sure that everybody knew each other's name.

And the children had a show of their own as they filled the playground with their happy feet and happy voices. Of course the backdrop for the production was our banner of Oscar Doyle, the founding father of the parish picnic who was smiling down on us from his balcony seat in heaven.

All in all it was a spectacular event that continues to receive rave reviews. Thanks to the cast and crew and all who made it a really big show - the biggest ever! If you weren't able to attend, don't worry - the picnic will roll into town again next year - tent and all! Again thanks to all our workers!

Stewardship Corner

SAINT VINCENT MARTYR CHURCH
GIFTED, GRATEFUL, AND GIVING!

Our Parish Veterans Ministry wrapped up an active spring and summer schedule:

An excellent Memorial Day program was held for veterans (both VA Hospital nursing home residents, as well as veterans in the Madison/SVM community more broadly). This day included a flag raising, short music program by SVMS lower grades, a coffee and mingle with SVMS junior high students, and a program on Veteran Grave sites. It was attended by 20 veterans and was warmly received.

Thanks to the SVMS faculty, students, Hui Boon Wan, and Tom Crimmins for organizing!

The ministry also hosted two on-campus music socials at the VA facility in Lyons on June 27 & July 31. These two programs were arranged and staffed by 10 SVM volunteers who served refreshments and helped out with keeping our Vets from the nursing home and mental health facility engaged and comfortable.

Thanks to all who are continuing to show stewardship in this ministry!

For any questions or follow up on the SVM Veterans ministry contact Bill Heskett at heskettw@gmail.com

2018 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Here I Am, Lord!

While there are many ways to give to the Bishop's Annual Appeal, there is a particularly beneficial opportunity if you are 70 1/2 or over and have an IRA. If you are in this category, the IRS requires you to take a required minimum distribution from your IRA each year. As a result, this distribution is added to your taxable income and increases the amount of taxes owed to the government. However, instead of taking your required minimum distribution, you can instruct your IRA investment manager to donate this distribution to a charity such as the Bishop's Annual Appeal and this automatically omits this amount from your adjusted gross income. This tax benefit can be realized by all qualifying individuals, whether you take the standard deduction or itemize your deductions. This can be a significant benefit to you and a great way to support the work of the Bishop's Annual Appeal. If you are considering making a charitable donation using your IRA required minimum distribution, please be sure to first discuss this with your financial or tax advisor to make sure it is right for you.

St. Vincent Martyr, a welcoming, diverse Catholic community in Madison, shares the love of Jesus Christ through prayer, ministry, education, and service.

This vision of who we are as Church has served us well since it was formulated in 2009. The Pastoral Council is now asking you to help us to expand our vision and embrace our path for the future.

Father George shared details recently about how we as a parish can Expand Our Vision. In order for us to move forward in our mission to share the love of Jesus Christ, we would like your ideas and feedback.

Please take our parish survey, sponsored by your Pastoral Council. It is easy to access on our parish website, www.svmnj.org or at Survey Monkey <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/XXW58H7>. If you are not comfortable taking the survey on your phone, tablet, laptop or computer, feel free to pick up a paper copy at the doors of the Church or in the Parish Office.

CAN YOU REALLY RECOVER FROM A PERSONAL LOSS?

Most of us deal with grieving experiences on a regular basis and never realize it! While most people associate grief with death, it's something that reaches far beyond that narrow focus. Grief is the normal and natural reaction to every change we experience in life. Many of those changes are so small that, while we have feelings attached to those events, we do not label them as grief. Whether the loss is due to the death of a spouse, a parent or friend – or perhaps because of the breakup of a relationship through divorce, or even the loss of our youth, it's possible that your loss gave way to intense feelings of sadness and affected your life in immeasurable ways.

If you have found grief to be overwhelming for you, it's not because there is anything wrong with you. Grief is the normal and natural reaction to change in your life. Likewise, if you have felt lost in how to deal with that emotional pain, it's simply because you never had the proper tools to deal with it effectively. The Grief Recovery Method® can offer you that direction and the opportunity to look forward to another day, rather than fearing what it might bring. Grief can be scary, but it does not need to destroy your ability to feel joy again, unless you allow that to be the case!

Please join me to find out how joy can be part of your life again. The program is free but you need to register. The introductory session will be held:

A Family Perspective

Disagreements are common in families. But what would you say if Jesus posted the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control one another? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.

El Centurión: La Fe

Esta semana comenzaremos a reflexionar el capítulo 11 del libro "De la Cruz a la Tumba Vacía", de nuestro obispo Serratelli, traducido a nuestra lengua.

"A medida que Marcos relata los detalles de la Crucifixión, se inspira fuertemente en el Antiguo Testamento. Jesús es crucificado entre dos criminales (ver Isaías 53, 12). Aquellos que lo ven a Él se deslizan y se burlan de Él (ver Salmo 22, 7-8, 69, 8, Lamentaciones 2, 15). Los soldados dividen sus vestiduras echando suertes (ver Salmo 22, 19). Le ofrecen vino para beber (ver Salmo 69, 22; Proverbios 31, 6-7). Jesús expresa su completo sentido de abandono repitiendo las primeras palabras del Salmo 22.

Estas alusiones del Antiguo Testamento hablan del hombre justo que sufre. Sirven para interpretar el evento histórico de la Crucifixión. Jesús es el Justo, el Inocente, quien sufre y es vindicado en su muerte. La cruz es parte del plan de Dios. Marcos terminará su relato de la Crucifixión con la confesión del centurión de esta verdad.

El centurión que se para en el Calvario ve en el Cristo moribundo algo que nunca antes había visto. Los romanos regularmente crucificaban a los enemigos del estado: rebeldes, asesinos, revolucionarios y cautivos que son tomados en la guerra".

Continuaremos la próxima semana con este capítulo.

Feliz domingo. P. Darwin L.
