For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, no human being must separate.

"Do you think that I have come to establish peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."

Prior to saying the above quoted words, Jesus proclaims that he has come to set the earth on fire - and He most certainly did! His teaching was turning things upside down in the prevailing religious mindset of his day. He was hugely counter-cultural in his approach to being in right relationships with God. He was bringing together Jews and Samaritans, he was questioning pious preaching, he was mixing it up with 'sinners', he was giving unprecedented importance to women, widows and children, he was challenging people to rethink faith - in other words he was stirring things up, sparking quite a bit of controversy. He was calling people to awake from their complacency to repent and to believe.

So no, Jesus was not having a bad day in last week's Gospel. He was being passionate about His mission - which would lead to His Passion, Death and Resurrection - the baptism in which He would be baptized - a baptism of fire!

We are very pleased to announce that this year's recipient of the Diocese of Paterson Vivere Christus Award is our devoted Business Administrator, Kathy Simonelli. This coming March 17, Kathy will mark 40 years of service to our parish community. Not only is Kathy a dedicated employee of our parish, she is also a committed parishioner. Her involvement in the life of the parish is extensive. During the years that I have been Pastor, Kathy has continued to serve as a Eucharistic Minister, participated as a committee member in our ENVISION process, oversaw the financial aspect of our church renovation and school expansion and, with her good husband, Neil, ran our annual parish picnic. I think what Kathy enjoys most is being a grandma and spending time with her two sons and their families. We congratulate Kathy on this honor - well deserved as a good and faithful steward!

Stewardship

Intentionally and consistently offering the Lord the best of our Time, Talent, and Treasure through a stewardship way of life is a form of spiritual discipline. These spiritual disciplines teach us to become ever more aware of God's constant provision for us and they keep us on the narrow path towards the Kingdom of Heaven. The more we embrace this way of life, the more we can be "trained" by the Lord in the ways of true discipleship. Though sometimes difficult, these disciplines become a source of spiritual strength.

Jesus does not want us to merely go through the motions of faith. He wants much more from us and for us. He wants to know us deeply and for us to get to know Him so that we become His holy disciples. This is not a burden; it is a privilege. But it does take discipline, the discipline of a stewardship way of life.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE THIS WEEKEND

For many years now, our parish has helped students get back to school with all the materials and supplies they need. Your contributions of supplies such as: backpacks, crayons, pencils, colored pencils, glue sticks, yellow highlighters and post-it sticky notes, etc. help to make the start of school a little easier and more affordable for many families. Your donations may be placed in the vestibule of the church throughout the week. If you know of a family that could benefit from this outreach, please call Maureen Dorney at 973-765-9662 or Marilyn D'Amelio at 973-377-0682. We are anxious to help all those in need. ### El Salvador. tradición, fiesta y hermandad en Festival del maíz

El cultivo del maíz permitió el desarrollo de relaciones sociales en los momentos de siembra y cosecha. Para los campesinos, el dominio del calendario lunar, el manejo del ciclo de lluvias, la preparación de la tierra y la participación comunitaria en estos procesos, son momentos vitales.

Manuel Cubías – Ciudad del vaticano

Muchas culturas del continente americano están asociadas, desde sus mitos fundadores con el cultivo del maíz, especialmente las mesoamericanas. En todos estos territorios se impulsaron diversas técnicas agrícolas que posibilitaron el desarrollo de este y otros cultivos.

Cultura del maíz

El cultivo del maíz permitió el desarrollo de relaciones sociales en los momentos de siembra y cosecha. Para los campesinos, el dominio del calendario lunar, el manejo del ciclo de lluvias, la preparación de la tierra y la participación comunitaria en estos procesos, son momentos vitales. En el momento de la cosecha, la recolección y consumo del grano también tiene una dimensión comunitaria y que se evidencia en el compartir.

Existen más de 300 variedades de semillas. Existe una fuerte presión en el mercado de semillas por la introducción de las especies genéticamente modificadas, que terminarían con la manera en que las comunidades han mantenido los conocimientos ancestrales y esta cultura festiva que culmina en el compartir comunitario. La protección del maíz debe ser una tarea que involucre a los pueblos de América.

Identidad cristiana

Numerosas parroquias en El Salvador han instituido, como parte de su identidad comunitaria y cristiana, la celebración del Festival del Maíz, puesto que esta cultura permite dar gracias a Dios por la cosecha y permite a la comunidad compartir los frutos que la tierra les da, en un ambiente de fiesta y hermandad.

Parroquia María Auxiliadora, Chalatenango

Mauricio Quijada, Párroco de la Parroquia María Auxiliadora de Chalatenango, comparte la experiencia de este año: “El maíz es base de nuestra alimentación y nos devuelve la alegría en tiempos tan difíciles para vivir la experiencia de comunidad. Esta es una oportunidad especial para hacer conciencia del cuidado del medio ambiente. Para ello la parroquia ha tenido a bien animar y concientizar a los feligreses sobre el cuidado del medio ambiente, como el papa francisco lo pide en la Laudato Si, y se han repartido arbolitos a los feligreses para que puedan plantarlos como una experiencia y recuerdo de esta celebración.

Lo que se busca es dar gracias a Dios y formar comunidad en torno a todo aquello que favorece la convivencia y el cuidado del medio ambiente. Esta es una comunidad que siempre sigue dando testimonio de una vida cristiana y comprometida con el evangelio y la palabra de dios y el cuidado de la creación”.

El Festival inició con el desfile de una carroza con la imagen de la virgen María Auxiliadora y con el paseo de las jóvenes que vestían ropas confeccionadas con todos los elementos que da el maíz. Después se celebró la eucaristía, presidida por el P. Mauricio Quijada y el P. Manuel Acosta. Luego de la misa, se procedió a un acto cultural y a la degustación de los platillos preparados por miembros de la comunidad cristiana. (Tomado Vatican news 08/20/19)
