…A TIME OF GREAT JOY

The Altar Bread and Wine for the Week of January 31 – February 6, 2021 are in memory of

Charles and Theresa Kenworthy

I have found that in my nearly forty years of being a priest and praying with families in times of loss that some of the best tributes and words of remembrance spoken about one who has passed have been offered by a grandchild. This past week was no exception as I listened to and read two beautiful eulogies given for Palmina DeBiasse. Her two granddaughters captured the essence of their 'Grammy' in two distinctly beautiful ways. One of them spoke about life as a series of transformations, of dyings and risings. Until we come to the ultimate transformation which is being raised from death to eternal life. We call this the paschal mystery. To be a believer in Jesus Christ, to embrace Him as the Resurrection and the Life, not only means we are personally transformed as an agent. It also means the transformation of our world and culture. St. Paul tells us that all creation is groaning for redemption – we are called to a dynamic collaboration with God in making that happen.

The pandemic we continue to struggle through and the still unsettled political climate of our Nation could certainly be viewed as experiences of dying. How do we rise from this as a people transformed? I heard a possible answer to this question in a presentation given at an online day of reflection I participated in last year. What we do is stand in the present, look into the future and commit to the journey. As part of that commitment we embrace the unknown with an openness to new ways of doing things and new ways of being. These were the specifics that were offered:

1. Start where you are and not where you want to be.
2. Build relationships
3. Create community
4. Build trust
5. Remain steady
6. Go bold!
7. Live and Love large
8. Respect diversity
9. Distinguish difference
10. Resist division

It strikes me that anyone committed to building up the Kingdom of God, which is our call as Church will be quick to embrace these challenges. And they are challenging! They call us to move out of our smaller egoic self into that bigger version of self that is part of a greater reality we call the Body of Christ. But isn't that what living the paschal mystery is all about – dying to self and living for Christ who says to us as disciples and as church – BEHOLD, I make all things new!

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Behold! The Teacher

Amid our busy lives and routine, we can choose where we want to focus our attention, to which voice we want to listen. The teacher and preacher from Galilee seeks authentic disciples, ordinary people, able to respond extraordinarily. Jesus, our teacher, is calling us to a higher purpose – to build His Kingdom right here. Now, it is up to us to say Yes or No!

Challenge for the Week:
Do something ordinary in an intentionally loving way, making it extraordinary.

Alpha 3 Begins in February!

We will begin our 3rd Alpha Experience this February. Our 11 weekly sessions will be held via Zoom.

ALPHA is a series of sessions designed to explore the Christian faith in a welcoming, nonjudgmental environment. Each session includes an engaging video, and then small group discussion. There is no obligation to say anything… and there is nothing you cannot say!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER FOR JANUARY 24, 2021

Today's readings call us to be decisive in our faith. Imagine if Simon and Andrew, called by Jesus to follow him, looked at their Savior and said, "Thanks for the offer, but we will finish up fishing and meet you later." That is no way a disciple should respond to Christ's call. Yet, that is how we often respond to Jesus' offer to us, "Come after me." We can easily fall into the misconception that we have plenty of time to live active discipleship. But as faithful stewards of our time, we must change our ways and immediately follow Christ more intentionally, because Christ is calling us to act now.

As we settle into this New Year, let us ponder the ways we can renew our commitment to God. Let us ask ourselves: what are we casting our nets for? And are we willing to leave it behind for something much greater? And if not now, when?

FAMILY PROMISE VIRTUAL HOST WEEK ON FEBRUARY 7, 2021

We are very excited to announce that St Vincent Martyr will be part of the new motel sheltering program at Family Promise. During our 2021 Host Weeks, we will provide "contactless" support to the families living in motel rooms, including meals, groceries, essential items, and virtual programs. Our parish has always generously supported this important ministry and the need is even greater now given the devastating impact of COVID-19 on our most vulnerable populations. In the next few days, we will provide more information on our church website and bulletin describing the specific needs and ways to help. In the meantime, please feel free to contact Nancy Romain at 973-865-8346 or nerdmr@optonline.net. Please check our website for ways to participate.

Sunday Night Bible Study,

Please join some of your SVM parishioners for our Sunday Night Bible Study on Sunday evenings from 6 to 8 pm: Jan 24, 31, Feb 7, 14. We will be studying the 'Our Father' via ZOOM participation. Contact christinefarner@yahoo.com if interested.

A Family Perspective

It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch his sons walk away and follow Jesus. It was the end of "Zebedee and Sons Fishing, Inc." Our children were never ours. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.

Serie: Contemplar

¡Contempla El maestro! En medio de nuestras vidas ocupadas y nuestra rutina, podemos elegir dónde queremos enfocar nuestra atención, a qué voz queremos escuchar. El maestro y predicador de Galilea busca discípulos auténticos, gente común, capaces de responder de manera extraordinaria. Jesús, nuestro maestro, nos está llamando a un propósito más elevado: construir Su Reino aquí mismo. Ahora, depende de nosotros decir ¡Sí o No!

Desafío: Haz algo ordinario de una manera intencionalmente amorosa, haciéndolo extraordinario.

ESTADOS UNIDOS: ES EL TIEMPO DE CURAR LAS HERIDAS I

Faltan pocas horas para la ceremonia de juramento en Washington del 46° Presidente de los Estados Unidos, Joe Biden. Una presidencia que, tras las elecciones contestadas por parte de Donald Trump y el dramático asalto a Capitol Hill, tiene ante todo por delante la tarea de reparar los desgarros en el entramado social estadounidense.

Alessandro Gisotti

Los Estados Unidos están aún sacudidos por lo que sucedió el 6 de enero con el asalto al Capitolio que causó la muerte de cinco personas. Un evento sin precedentes que, sin embargo, manifestó dramáticamente las divisiones presentes en la sociedad estadounidense que van más allá de la dimensión política. Una polarización que se ha profundizado en los últimos años y que, según muchos observadores, no está destinada a desaparecer a corto plazo. No es coincidencia que el tema elegido por el nuevo presidente Joe Biden para la ceremonia de juramento sea America United. Esta necesidad de unidad nacional es ampliamente sentida por los ciudadanos, también en la conciencia de que sólo si se unen será posible hacer frente a la pandemia y a la grave crisis económica que se ha producido.

También el Papa Francisco siempre ha subrayado el valor de la unidad de los estadounidenses inscrito incluso en el escudo de la nación, E pluribus unum. En su viaje apostólico a los Estados Unidos del año 2015, fue el primer Pontífice que se dirigió al Congreso reunido en sesión conjunta. En aquella ocasión pronunció un discurso que – a través de figuras como Lincoln, Dorothy Day, Merton y Martin Luther King – subrayó lo que hace que la democracia estadounidense sea de alguna manera única. Desde aquel discurso, de hace cinco años, hasta sus palabras a la hora del Ángelus del pasado 10 de enero sobre lo que había sucedido en el Capitolio cuatro días antes, Francisco siempre ha animado a rechazar las tentaciones perturbadoras y a trabajar, con paciencia y coraje, por la reconciliación y la unidad.

ORACIÓN A SAN JOSÉ:

Oh San José, cuya protección es tan grande, tan fuerte y tan inmediata ante el trono de Dios, a ti te encomiendo todas mis intenciones y deseos. Ayúdame, San José, con tu poderosa intercesión, a obtener todas las bendiciones espirituales por la intercesión de tu Hijo adoptivo, Jesucristo Nuestro Señor, para que, al encomendarme, aquí en la tierra, a tu poder celestial, te entregue mi gracias y homenaje. Oh San José, no me canso de contemplarte con Jesús dormido en tus brazos. No me atrevo a acercarme cuando Él descansa junto a tu corazón. Sostenlo en mi nombre, besa su delicado rostro y pídele que me devuelva el beso cuando respire por última vez. San José, patrón de las almas que parten, ¡ruega por mí! Amén.
