…A TIME OF GREAT JOY

Given that Tuesday, February 2, will mark 12 years that I have served Saint Vincent Martyr parish as your pastor I thought I might do a little research in the significance of the number 12 in our faith tradition. Did you know that the number 12 is found 187 places in the Bible? The Book of Revelation alone has 22 occurrences of the number. The meaning of 12, which is considered a perfect number is that it symbolizes God's power and authority. Right there I can say that I can't think of a more perfect place to pastor then our good parish. What I have learned here is that in order to be a good pastor you must ground your authority in a loving relationship with Christ and always, and everywhere, give Him power over your life.

We learn in the Hebrew Scriptures, the Old Testament, that God specified that 12 unleavened loaves of bread be placed every week in the temple and be changed every Sabbath day. That of course reminds me of our Sunday worship which I look forward to every weekend. Seeing you in church, or in these days knowing that you are on the other side of the camera, brings incredible joy into my life. It is a profound honor to preside at our Eucharistic celebrations, leading you in prayer and lifting you up to our gracious God at every Mass.

Of course there is the 12 Apostles, chosen by Jesus and His Spirit, reminding us of the 12 tribes of Israel in the old covenant. Jesus right from the start pulls together a leadership team to learn from Him and to carry on His mission. Over these 12 years I have been blessed by an incredible team of devoted and dedicated men and women who walk with me and work with me in the vineyard of the Lord. Each brings their own gifts and talents, along with their own distinct personality, to the task of serving God's people. I have learned much from them and am grateful for their collaboration, support and friendship.

In the Book of Revelation we read that the New Jerusalem, which is made in Heaven and brought to earth by God Himself, contains 12 gates made of pearl which are each manned by an angel. Such a vision brings to my mind our beautiful sacred space, our beloved church. What a privilege it was for me to pastor us through the renovation of our church which could not have happened without the help of so many angels who gave of their time and talent and treasure to bring forth such a splendid temple for the Lord. We also find that there are 12 people noted in Sacred Scripture who are anointed for a unique test or responsibility. Given that Saint Vincent Martyr is quite the unique parish I would say being a pastor is indeed a unique responsibility, one that I continue to embrace with all my heart and all my soul. Just like some of these anointed ones were far from perfect I too have not always gotten it right. I am humbled by these limitations and weaknesses and apologize for whatever hurt I may have caused because of them. I have come to see these imperfections as openings to the perfecting grace of God – as Leonard Cohen writes: "There is a crack in everything, that's how the light gets in."

We also read in scripture about the high priest's breastplate, also called the breastplate of decision, which had 12 stones embedded in it. Truth be told I did need that piece of armor a few times during these 12 years!

Finally, the Scriptures first recording of Jesus' words occurs when He was 12 years old. It is when Mary and Joseph find Him in the temple, having searched for Him for three days. In response to His mother's expression of dismay and anxiety Jesus says: why were you searching for me. Did you not know I had to be about my Father's business!

Twelve years ago, on the Solemnity of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple I presented myself to you as your pastor. I pray that the Father's business that I have been conducting over these years has borne fruit in your lives and helped you grow in holiness, in faith, hope and love. As I continue to serve you in the future pray that I grow in grace and wisdom.

I hold each of you in a grateful heart. God Bless, Fr. George

BLESSING OF THROATS – FEAST OF ST BLAISE AND CANDLEMAS DAY

This Wednesday we will celebrate the Feast of St Blaise, the day on which priests bless the throats of Catholics. Due to COVID-19 restrictions we will not be able to bless individually but a general blessing of Throats will be administered at the weekend liturgies and on Wednesday.

Feb. 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is also known as Candlemas Day. The Church has a tradition of blessing candles that will be used throughout the year on this day. Please feel free to bring a candle to church to be blessed or have one ready at home for a blessing on Tuesday. Since Christians consider Jesus as the "light of the world" it is fitting that candles are blessed on this day.

Alpha 3 Begins in February!

We will begin our 3rd Alpha Experience this February. Our 11 weekly sessions will be held via Zoom.

ALPHA is a series of sessions designed to explore the Christian faith in a welcoming, nonjudgmental environment. Each session includes an engaging video, and then small group discussion. There is no obligation to say anything… and there is nothing you cannot say!

SAINT VINCENT MARTYR SCHOOL

Saint Vincent Martyr School will celebrate Catholic Schools from January 31st until February 5th. For 148 years our school has been steadfast in its commitment to provide children with an education that prepares them to excel academically, spiritually, emotionally, physically and socially. We are blessed with a stellar faculty and staff that daily gives fully of themselves to nurture the students and make the love of God known to them. Fr. George continues to animate us spiritually and his joy-filled presence lifts our spirits in this time of pandemic. We are grateful for our partnership with our parish and know that with God as our anchor we will continue to shine.

Many wonderful activities are planned for this week and we know that we have much to celebrate!

Winter Message Series

BEHO'LD, v.t. pret. and pp. beheld' L. observo, from servo, to keep.

To fix the eyes upon; To see with attention; To observe with care.

Fix your eyes on Christ, the Lamb of God.
Pay attention to God's presence and actions in your life.
Observe carefully how God is speaking to you in this week's readings.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Behold! The Holy One

Jesus' word astonishes those who hear it in the synagogue because He teaches with such authority. Thru Jesus, God vanquishes any evil, illness or troubles that might befall us because He reaches out with love and compassion. The evil spirit is no match for the Holy One, Who restores us to a right relationship to God and one another.

Challenge for the Week:
Reflect on how to create bridges of connections with others in your everyday life.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER FOR JANUARY 31, 2021

In today's Gospel we hear proclaimed the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. He teaches. He heals. And all are amazed. By their baptism, Christian stewards realize they are called to do the same in their lives. They are called to be the light of Christ each day. As we bring closure to the beginning of this new year, now is a good time to ask the Lord to fill our hearts with courage and faith, so that we too may publicly minister in his name. Let us ask that we may be liberated from our insecurities and fear so that we can share the Gospel authoritatively and work to heal at least one wounded relationship in the coming months ahead.

Please join us in praying for Pope Francis' intention for February: We pray for women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.

HOW YOU CAN HELP FAMILIES IN NEED

We are very excited to announce that St Vincent Martyr will be part of the new motel sheltering program at Family Promise. During our 2021 Host Weeks, we will provide "contactless" support to the families living in motel rooms, including meals, groceries, essential items, and virtual programs. Our parish has always generously supported this important ministry and the need is even greater now given the devastating impact of COVID-19 on our most vulnerable populations. To see how you can help by making donations toward food gift cards or internet minutes so children can attend school virtually, visit www.svmnj.org/housing. For information: Nancy Romain at 973-865-8346 or nerdmr@optonline.net.

Education

Youth Ministry

Christian Formation

To the families of children preparing for the sacrament of First Reconciliation:
Please go to our parish website where you will find how we plan to proceed with the preparation of the sacrament. We plan to celebrate the sacrament in February (dates and times, and further details to be shared at the workshop). We look forward to journeying together with you and your families.
https://svmnj.org/first-reconciliation-2021

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel reminds us "unclean spirits" still haunt our families. These "spirits" thrive inside our grudges, punishing silence, impatience and abruptness. Today Jesus offers you the "authority" to cast out these spirits from your life and your family.

Service

Pine Acres Update

Dear Parishioners:
Gerry and I want to Thank You for all your generous donations last year. They have meant so much to our Seniors! Due to the Corona Virus, we and our Volunteers have not been able to visit since March. In speaking to Pine Acres staff, it seems apparent that we will not be able to return until late Spring. We so appreciate all your donations and look forward to collecting them again later on this year. If you would be so kind to store your treasure in your homes, it would be greatly appreciated. Praying we will be able to resume sometime later this year.
Sincerely,
Anne Shearman and Gerry Storino

Serie: Contemplar

Contempla El santo

La palabra de Jesús asombra a quienes la escuchan en la sinagoga porque enseña con tanta autoridad. A través de Jesús, Dios vence cualquier mal, enfermedad o problema que pueda sobrevenirnos porque Él se acerca con amor y compasión. El espíritu maligno no es rival para el Santo, quien nos restaura en la relación correcta con Dios y con los demás.

Desafío: Reflexiona sobre cómo crear puentes de conexiones con otros en tu vida cotidiana.

Los Sacramentos

Reconciliación (Confesiones): Todos los Sábados a las 4:00pm o haciendo una cita con uno de los sacerdotes, ya sea llamando a la oficina o hablando con ellos directamente 973-377-4000 ext. 257.

Unción de los Enfermos:

Para las personas que están gravemente enfermas, hospitalizadas o preparándose para una cirugía, al igual que las personas de edad avanzada un asilo para la tercera edad. Para administrar este Sacramento; Favor llamar a la oficina de la parroquia para que uno de los sacerdotes administre la Unción de los enfermos. 973-377-4000 ext. 257.

Estados Unidos: es el tiempo de curar las heridas II

En un mensaje enviado ayer con ocasión del Martin Luther King Day, el Papa instó a los estadounidenses a "volver" al sueño del líder afroamericano. Los Estados Unidos necesitan realizar ese sueño incumplido de "armonía e igualdad". Un sueño que "permanece siempre presente" y que, de hecho, se hace aún más urgente en un país en el que, a pesar de las grandes posibilidades económicas, siguen existiendo injusticias y conflictos sociales, ahora también exacerbados por la pandemia. Por lo tanto, es el momento de dejar que el "nosotros" prevalezca sobre el "yo", de curar las heridas y de encontrar una unidad renovada basada en los principios que siempre han sostenido a la democracia estadounidense, haciéndola protagonista en la escena internacional.

Precisamente la cuestión de la reconciliación nacional será el desafío más arduo, especialmente en la primera fase de la presidencia de Biden. Se ha observado que nunca antes los componentes de una Administración habían sido tan multirraciales, empezando por la Vicepresidenta Kamala Harris. Junto al tema interno de la "curación" de la sociedad estadounidense, está también el frente ad extra, sobre el que están encendidos los reflectores internacionales. Después de años a menudo marcados por decisiones unilaterales o acuerdos bilaterales, existe de hecho una gran expectativa de "retorno" al multilateralismo y de reanudación de la relación de confianza con las organizaciones internacionales, empezando por las Naciones Unidas. En las últimas semanas ya se han anunciado algunos pasos en esta dirección, como el regreso de los Estados Unidos al Acuerdo de París sobre el clima. Una elección que converge con el compromiso del Papa Francisco a favor de la custodia de la Casa común, expresada en particular en la Laudato si'.

Por lo tanto, mientras Joe Biden se prepara para prestar juramento como el 46° Presidente de los Estados Unidos, lo que ha sucedido en el Capitolio en los últimos días nos recuerda que la democracia y sus instituciones son preciosas y no deben darse por sentadas simplemente porque han existido durante largo tiempo. Esta conciencia no debe quedarse en una declaración, sino que – para citar Fratelli tutti – requiere un esfuerzo concreto a todos los niveles. Compromiso no sólo de los líderes políticos, sino de todo el pueblo, y de sus movimientos, para promover el bien común y fortalecer la democracia. Esto vale aún más hoy, en un período histórico en el que, a pesar de los impulsos centrífugos y los intereses nacionalistas, la pandemia ha mostrado dramáticamente que "nadie se salva solo". https://www.vaticannews.vahttps://www.vaticannews.va

ORACIÓN A SAN JOSÉ:

Oh San José, cuya protección es tan grande, tan fuerte y tan inmediata ante el trono de Dios, a ti te encomiendo todas mis intenciones y deseos. Ayúdame, San José, con tu poderosa intercesión, a obtener todas las bendiciones espirituales por la intercesión de tu Hijo adoptivo, Jesucristo Nuestro Señor, para que, al encomendarme, aquí en la tierra, a tu poder celestial, te entregue mi gracias y homenaje. Oh San José, no me canso de contemplarte con Jesús dormido en tus brazos. No me atrevo a acercarme cuando Él descansa junto a tu corazón. Sostenlo en mi nombre, besa su delicado rostro y pídele que me devuelva el beso cuando respire por última vez. San José, patrón de las almas que parten, ¡ruega por mí! Amén.
