TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Oct. 10, 2021

In his statement of Respect for Life Month, Bishop Joseph Naumann, the chair of the USCCB's Committee on Pro-Life Activities shared the following:

The month of October brings with it our annual observance of Respect Life Month. As part of the Year of Saint Joseph declared by Pope Francis, this year's celebration highlights the example of that great saint. As the faithful protector of both Jesus and Mary, we find in St. Joseph a profound reminder of our own call to welcome, safeguard, and defend God's precious gift of human life. Despite the mysterious circumstances surrounding Mary's pregnancy, St. Joseph took her into his home at the word of the angel. He guided their journey to Bethlehem, found shelter, and welcomed the infant Jesus as his son. When Herod threatened the life of the Christ Child, St. Joseph left his homeland behind and fled with Jesus and Mary to Egypt. Like St. Joseph, we are also called to care for those God has entrusted to us – especially vulnerable mothers and children.

Bishop Naumann then goes on to suggest ways of following in the footsteps of St. Joseph, in particular by advocating against taxpayer- funded abortion and by getting involved in programs such as Walking with Mom's in Need, "walking in the shoes" of mothers experiencing a difficult pregnancy as they struggle with poverty and other social challenges. In my mind, the need to do and say something to advance the Culture of Life in our country and to uphold the rights of the unborn was reinforced by a headline that I saw in the October 1 issue of the Star Ledger – Murphy: Bill to enshrine a woman's right to an abortion should be law by end of year. This proclamation was made by our governor to the host of a news comedy show who received it as "a good news story." I cannot see how anyone, regardless of one's political persuasion, could ever term abortion as good news. Besides this, to use the word "enshrine" to talk about the bill borders on sacrilegious. We enshrine that which is sacred in our lives, that which we want to honor as holy. In this month of October we enshrine Our Lady of the Rosary, who certainly weeps over the children lost to abortion.

We know that the other terminology we use regarding this issue is reproductive rights. At the heart of this argument is protecting the rights of the individual. It seems to me that there is a way of thinking that exists in our society that puts the rights of the individual above all else. Just look at what we have seen with the whole issue of mask wearing. How many times have we heard that it is my right to determine if I will or won't wear a mask. Even when not wearing a mask could jeopardize the health of another, some people still insist that they have a right to disregard what is being asked of them for the good of the community – the good of the other. Is not love truly about seeking the good of the other – are there not times when we have to sacrifice what we want and to serve the common good? Maybe there is something deeper and greater involved in upholding the sanctity and dignity of all life from the moment of conception, through the many and varied life issues we are facing today, right through to natural death. Perhaps it means putting ourselves in the perspective of a bigger picture that recognizes and embraces the truth that life is not about us, but that we are about life. Just a thought!

A million thanks to Steve and Laurie Mindnich for heading up an all-star team that made our Catholic presence in Madison strongly felt on Bottle Hill Day. And another million thanks to our outstanding Knights of Columbus for organizing a wonderful parish picnic. We are blessed by your generosity of time and talent! God bless you all.

Stewardship

What Does God Want For Us?

Today's Gospel is a tough one for most of us to digest. "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." Let's face it, in today's society where it seems that everyone is trying to get ahead, the idea of giving up everything we have may seem rather ridiculous. However, let's consider the following passage from Cardinal Collins' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship. "Deep stewardship begins with gratitude and ends with accountability. Sometimes, stewardship is referred to as 'the attitude of gratitude.'

God blesses us with every gift, every talent and everything that we possess. Life itself is a beautiful gift from God. We can start our gratitude practice by thanking the Lord for blessing us with another day. This will allow us to appreciate our time on earth and work towards sharing our gifts and making better use of our talents and treasures.

So what does God want for us? He only wants the best for each of us. It's up to us to give back for everything that we receive.

Our next step for council members will be to act as facilitators at the Parish Planning Day scheduled for November 21 at 1:30 pm. All parishioners are invited to attend that event as we create goals and objectives for the previously mentioned priority areas. (For a more detailed explanation of this initiative please read Father George's comments in the October 3 bulletin.) This is such an exciting time for our parish as we continue to grow and plan for our future. Your input will be invaluable.
