This week's summary of the Preparatory Document for the 2023 Synod looks at the chapter entitled: Synodality in Action: Pathways for Consulting the People of God. It begins with these words: "Enlightened by the Word and grounded in Tradition, the synodal path is rooted in the concrete life of the People of God." In the people's journey together there is a synodality, a listening to one another that takes place, that in and of itself makes the church more Synodal. I guess you could say that it is a work in progress. This process of conversion unfolds as the Church prays, reflects, and shares at different levels and with different degrees of intensity, incorporating the strengths and achievements as well as the limitations and difficulties of the community. It includes "the experiences activated by the present synodal journey and those in which forms of 'journeying together' are already being experienced in ordinary life, even if the term synodality is not known or used."

Next, the document considers the fundamental question that guides the consultation of the People of God: A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together." How is this "journeying together" happening today in your particular Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journey together"? I continue to be amazed at how much this resonates with what we are striving to discern as a parish. There are many ways we are "journeying together," not least of which is the process that has led to our parish planning day. It is there that we hope to hear the Spirit's invitation into our next steps as a faith community.

Going deeper, the document asks us to reflect on what joys have we experienced in this process. One such joy for me is seeing the efforts unfold to serve the members of our church who are in their 20's, 30's and 40's. Then the question is posed about what difficulties and obstacles have we encountered. My response here would be the challenge of encouraging folks to participate more fully in the process and the challenge of getting people to think from a parish wide perspective and not from individual silos. The next question is to talk about what wounds has the process brought to light. Here I would say the wounds caused by us in Church leadership when we lack sensitivity to people's life situations or when we have not modeled Christ for them. Other wounds are caused by gossip, jealousy, and pettiness when that rears its ugly head in the Church. Finally, the question is posed about what insights has our experienced elicited. Again, for me it would be the importance of making sure we really listen and striving to create an environment where every single person is heard and seen.

I invite you, dear readers, to reflect on these questions from your own personal perspective. Ultimately, we come to the task of determining where the voice of the Spirit resounds and what the Spirit is asking of us. What is consistently confirmed in our dialogue with one another, what are our prospects for change, what steps do we take and where do we register consensus, and what path is opening up for us as a Church. One could say that these questions really form the task for our Planning Day.

There are different articulations of Synodality. The first is the everyday life of the Church such as unfolds here at the parish. The second is the structures and processes in which the canonical and theological synodal nature of Church is expressed in an institutional way at the local, regional, and universal levels, such as the Conference of Bishops. The third is the synodal processes and events in which the Church is convoked by the competent authority according to specific procedures determined by the ecclesiastical discipline, such as the Synod in 2023. Although these three ways are distinct, they must be held together in a coherent way so that they do not work against one another and undermine the credibility of the Church. Without this interplay the style of synodality is reduced to rhetoric and its processes and events become empty formalities. Furthermore, "journeying together" should be understood from two interconnected perspectives. The first perspective is the internal relationships of the Church – the pastors and the Faithful and the communities into which they are divided, various forms of monastic, religious and consecrated life, schools, hospitals, charitable organizations and all the other entities that make up the life extending even to the relationships and common initiatives with the brothers and sisters of other Christian denominations with whom we share the gift of the same Baptism. The second perspective considers how the People of God journeys together with the entire human family.

I will conclude this summary next week with the ten thematic nuclei to be explored on the Synodal path of communion, participation, and mission. Stay Tuned!

Open to any parish member over the age of 18 who is interested in sharing prayer, music and fellowship. The group will meet monthly on Monday evenings in the Parish Center Library. All discussions will be confidential and include Fr. Chris as well as a grief counselor. Interested participants can contact Karin Szotak at 973-714-6654 or KASZ210@me.com for more information.

If Thanksgiving is right around the corner, then Christmas cannot be far behind. Work is underway for our annual Christmas outreach. Each year we have had a generous and warm response to the poor and struggling in our community, and throughout our Diocese. Because of the generosity of so many of you, we are able to bring some of Christ's light into the lives of many.

Once again this year due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and the effects that it has had on so many, we have decided to limit the scope of our Outreach and focus it on the many local Madison families and senior citizens who are in need of our support.

While the Outreach will function quite differently from the way it has in the past, your help is still very much needed as:

- We would like to be able to provide each gift recipient with a gift card to either Walmart, Target or Old Navy, to assist them with their clothing needs since the gift requests we receive from local families are often for clothing, specifically warm, winter clothing.
- We would like to be able to provide each child with a physical gift to open on Christmas morning as well as a gift card to Walmart or Target to help their family fulfill any additional gift requests they may have. The majority of the children in the program are under the age of 16 and their requests for gifts are often very simple.
- We would very much like to provide each family with a food gift card to either Stop&Shop or Shoprite to enable them to plan a Christmas meal without the constraints of a tight budget.

If you would like to participate in the Christmas Outreach this year, you may do so by:

- Making a financial contribution either on-line or by mailing a check (made payable to St. Vincent Martyr) to St. Vincent Martyr Office, 26 Green Village Road, Madison, NJ 07940 marked for the attention of the Christmas Outreach Coordinator;

OR

- Purchasing a gift card (ideally in increments of $25) for Walmart/Target/Old Navy/Stop&Shop or ShopRite either on-line or directly from the appropriate store.

Gift cards can be mailed to St. Vincent Martyr Office, 26 Green Village Road, Madison, NJ 07940 marked for the attention of the Christmas Outreach Coordinator or dropped into the Christmas gift card baskets at the front and rear doors of the church when you attend Mass;

OR

- Adopting a child/children and purchasing their gift request. Please contact Jeanne on 201-988-4246 or via email at jeanneb1967@optonline.net for more details.

For a quick and easy way to contribute to this year's Christmas Outreach, you can use the link on the website. By clicking on the Christmas Outreach link under the News category you can make a financial contribution or donate a gift card from the comfort of your home. Finally, if we find that the contributions/donations we receive exceed what we need for the local families, we will make a monetary donation to one or more of the charities we would normally have supported with the Christmas Outreach.

Thank you for in advance for your contribution; any donation, no matter the size, is greatly appreciated.

Jeanne Buckley, Christmas Outreach Coordinator

Stewardship

Honoring the King

On this final Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the great solemnity of Christ the King. Let us reflect on how we can enthrone Jesus in our hearts through our commitment to stewardship.

Kings often receive the finest of things in order to showcase their importance. Jesus, as our King, deserves our very best. We do this by offering Christ the “first fruits” of our time in prayer. When we set aside a portion of everyday for prayer, we are expressing the importance of God in our lives. We become loving and faithful servants who long to be in the presence of our God. Instead of us trying to fit prayer into our lives after our other commitments, we should schedule our day around our prayer life, and give our King our very best.

Once we enthrone Jesus as King of our lives, we can then serve Him. We recognize that The Lord desires the service of charity and sacrifice. St. Rose of Lima says, “When we serve the poor and the sick, we serve Jesus”. As stewards, let us use our gifts to serve our fellow parishioners, the rest of the world, and in turn, serve the King of kings.

2021 Diocesan Ministries Appeal

“Let Your Light Shine”

This time of year, as we plan to celebrate Thanksgiving, please consider making a gift to the Diocesan Ministries Appeal. Each year, tens of thousands of people in profound need seek out the services of our Catholic Charities and, with the help for the Diocesan Ministries Appeal, they find an open door and a compassionate response. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2021appeal.org.

PASTORAL COUNCIL

Every year the Pastoral Council selects four members from our parish community to fill the vacancies created by members who have completed their terms. We are delighted to announce the slate for this year. The prospective members are: Rosana Delacruz, Susan Gallina, Leslie Rohrbacker, and Chris Shubeck. We thank them for their applications and enthusiastic willingness to serve. They will be formally chosen at a ceremony to be held this Monday, November 22 at 7 pm in the church. Please congratulate them and pray for their successful tenure. Father George will be happy to respond to any questions or comments you may have.

HOPE HOUSE FOOD COLLECTION – THIS WEEKEND

This weekend is our monthly food collection for Hope House, Dover. Items such as cold cereal, oatmeal, coffee, tea, jelly, rice, pasta, tomato products, canned vegetables, soups, peanut butter, paper products and more. ### FAMILY PERSPECTIVE - BY BUD OZAR

CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

When we are young, our parents "tell us about Jesus" and we believe what our parents believe. At some point we must leave our parents' faith and ask Pilate's question: "Are you the King?" Pilate is just asking these questions on our behalf.
