HOLY HOUR

Every Wednesday from 12:45 pm-1:45 pm and it is livestreamed.

I found this Blessing Prayer in one of my favorite prayer books entitled, Prayers for the Domestic Church by Edward Hays. It honors St. Nicholas whose feast we celebrate this Monday, December 6. In the Hundt household, this feast marked the beginning of our Christmas celebration as we put our shoes outside our bedroom doors, in the hope that St. Nicholas might bring us some goodies!

I always felt blessed that I have such big feet, giving St. Nicholas a bit of extra room to work with. Somehow, though, he managed to get the same amount of treats in my baby sister's shoes as he did in mine. I invite you to pray this whimsical prayer in your home , which is the domestic church – the place where the faith is first learned, the school of love where hope is found.

St. Nicholas, holy patron of children,
Bishop of the East,
we invite you to come among us
and to grant us your holy blessing.

Help us in this busy, busy season not to miss the miracle of the coming of Emmanuel in the days of preparation
as well as on the feast itself.
Help us not to be blind
to the gifts of getting ready.

Protest us from insincerity.
May every greeting we send be signed with love, friendship, and prayer.
May our greetings, so written,
be fun to open and treasures to keep.

Kind St. Nicholas,
Protect us from shopper's fatigue.
Show us how to take delight in the marketplace,
now transformed in beauty, lights and music.
Save us all from anxiety over what to give so that we may concentrate on how to give.

Stand by the stepladder
as we decorate our homes and trees and lives.
May our decorations not be mute
but rather singing symbols, sacred signs of the evergreen coming of the Lord of Life.

Help us to remember that mistletoe, holly
and all other ornaments of the season, were sacred signs to ancient believers.

But, most of all, jolly saint of toys and sweets,
help us stay youthful, humorous, playful and dream-filled as we prepare together for the coming of Christ with Advent longing.

St. Nicholas, pray for us. Amen.

Advent Message Series

Gift giving and receiving is a loved Christmas tradition which begins with The Gift of the season – Jesus.
We, as followers of Jesus, are a gift to Him and a gift to each other.
When we open this gift, we discover Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

2nd Sunday of Advent

PERSEVERANCE

This week, as we open the gift that is Christ, we discover Peace. The path to that peace is to love more expansively. What mountains need to be knocked down? What valleys need to be filled in for you to make a straight path for the Lord's peace? We discern our mountains and valleys through prayer. As we persevere in our advent prayer, we make way for Christ's coming and the promise of Christ's peace.

Challenge for the Week:

Let's prepare ourselves for the Lord's coming by carving out some time for prayer each day.
"I will bless the Lord at all times: praise shall always be in my mouth." Ps. 34:2

CHRISTMAS OUTREACH

Our annual Christmas outreach is well underway. Each year we have been blessed with a generous and warm response to the poor and struggling in our community, and throughout our Diocese. Because of the generosity of so many of you, we can bring some of Christ's light into the lives of many. There are a variety of ways that you can participate if you are interested.

If you would like to participate in the Christmas Outreach this year, you may do so by:

- Making a financial contribution either on-line or by mailing a check (made payable to St. Vincent Martyr) to St. Vincent Martyr Office, 26 Green Village Road, Madison, NJ 07940 marked for the attention of the Christmas Outreach Coordinator

OR

- Purchasing a gift card (in increments of $25) for Walmart/Target/Old Navy/Stop & Shop or ShopRite either on-line or directly from the appropriate store.
  Gift cards can be mailed to St. Vincent Martyr Office, 26 Green Village Road, Madison, NJ 07940 marked for the attention of the Christmas Outreach Coordinator or dropped into the Christmas gift card baskets at the front and rear doors of the church when you attend Mass.

For a quick and easy way to contribute to this year's Christmas Outreach, you can use the link on the website. By clicking on the Christmas Outreach link under the News category you can make a financial contribution or donate a gift card from the comfort of your home.

Finally, if we find that the contributions/donations we receive exceed what we need for the local families, we will make a monetary donation to one or more of the charities we would normally have supported with the Christmas Outreach.

Thank you, in advance, for your contribution; all donation, no matter the size, is greatly appreciated.

Jeanne Buckley, Christmas Outreach Coordinator

Stewardship

"PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD, MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT"

As we celebrate the second Sunday of Advent, what are we doing to prepare for the coming of Jesus? How are we looking to grow in Grace during Advent? What in our lives can we do better? How do we reset and focus on what is important in our lives? During this dark time of the year, both seasonally and within the world news, we can regain Hope! We can regain Hope and share that Hope with others. Advent is a Hopeful season and God is calling us to respond to Him. We can be responsive by looking for those occasions to exercise our stewardship. Opportunities abound, especially during Advent, to address others in need – simple gestures are just as meaningful. Now is the time to take stock of our lives as we await the feast of Christmas. Look freely for those opportunities to grow in Grace. Be open to goodness, give back and be the Gift as we "prepare the way of the Lord".

ATTENTION: MEN OF THE PARISH

In this week's Gospel Jesus extends personal invitations to Peter, Andrew, James and John. He extends a similar invitation to all of us, individually. The environment and atmosphere at the Loyola Retreat house provides the perfect conditions for us to receive this invitation. We don't have to give up our "fishing boat". We just need to pause long enough to hear what Jesus is asking of us at this point in our lives.
Our Annual Parish Men's Retreat is offered to all the men of the Parish from Friday evening, January 14th through noon on Sunday the 16th. For further information and reservations call one of the following men: jim Penders 973-377-8803, Mike Newman 973-822-2078, Bill Rojack 973-377-1962 or Steve Penders 973-443-0570. or to contact Loyola directly 973-539-0740 (ask for Scott) or Retreathouse@Loyola.org. Perseverancia Esta semana, al abrir el regalo que es Cristo, descubrimos la Paz. El camino hacia esa paz es amar de manera más expansiva. ¿Qué montañas hay que derribar? ¿Qué valles necesitan ser llenados para que pueda hacer un camino recto hacia la paz del Señor? Discernimos nuestras montañas y valles a través de la oración. A medida que perseveramos en nuestra oración de adviento, abrimos camino para la venida de Cristo y la promesa de la paz de Cristo.

Tarea:
Dedicar algo de tiempo a la oración todos los días.
