To the two beautiful parish families of Saint Vincent Martyr in Madison and Saint Gerard Majella in Paterson.

Allow me to introduce you to one another. Saint Vincent Martyr is the older of you both, having been established as a parish in 1825, after being a mission of Saint Peter's Church in New York City. Saint Gerard was established as a parish in 1961, formed from the mother Church of Saint Michael's in Paterson. Both of you have played an incredibly important role in my life. It was in 1995 that I made the decision to apply for the pastorate of Saint Gerard which had opened up with Monsignor Lou Bihr's move to Immaculate Heart of Mary in Wayne. I had been mentored up to that point by many fine priests – Msgr. Vince Malloy, Msgr. Kevin Flanagan, Msgr. Jake Rugel, Msgr. Jim O'Rorke and also Bishop Rodimer – all who taught me various things about being a pastor. If I had any doubt over whether I should have applied to be pastor, that doubt was quickly dispelled when Msgr. Mark Giordani, a former beloved pastor of Saint Gerard's, pulled me aside at a diocesan gathering, put his arm around my shoulder, and said to me: "Giorgio, you should go for the parish!" I still remember showing up at St. Gerard at its fundraising bazaar in my maroon Members Only jacket as the new kid on the block. And I really was a kid when it came to being a pastor. You, the parish of Saint Gerard Majella, patiently saw me through my formative years of shepherding a church and gave me a foundation in this pastoral ministry that I love so dearly. I was called away from serving you in 2002 when Bishop Rodimer asked me to take on the pastorate of Saint Anthony in Hawthorne. It was there that I honed my pastoral skills and was educated in the ins and outs of caring for a very large parish with many ministries and activities. At Saint Anthony I was able to introduce stewardship into the life of the parish and to initiate both Men and Women's Cornerstone. It was Bishop Serratelli who called in 2009 with the request that I consider taking on the leadership of Saint Vincent Martyr in Madison. Discerning that the Spirit was calling me in that direction I came to Morris County to begin a wonderful journey with you, Saint Vincent Martyr, a community eager to envision what we could be as church and ready to do the work needed to make that vision a reality. With you I experienced the power of listening, discerning and collaborating as we brought forth a pastoral plan for the parish that included growth in discipleship, the renovation of our church and the expansion of our school. It is you, the parish family of St. Vincent, that matured me in my role as pastor as I learned to live from a more contemplative stance in life, responding more authentically to the challenges of priestly ministry. And now I have been called by the Holy Spirit and Bishop Sweeney to return to where this journey of being pastor began, to leave you, my beloved church of Saint Vincent Martyr and to once again pastor you, my beloved church of Saint Gerard Majella. I return quite a bit older and a little bit wiser, grateful to the Vocationists for their outstanding pastoral care, and open to what may unfold in these elder years. I know that there is room in my heart for both of you and for all the other places I have been privileged to serve in my priesthood. Over these next three months as I minister to both of you, assisted by Fr. Manuel Cuellar, a zealous and talented young priest whose heart is afire with the love of the Lord, I will consider myself as standing on a singular expanse of holy ground extending from Madison to Paterson, the one Spirit bridging the distance. I know that you all will be patient as we effect this transition and discover the future that God has set before us all. May God sustain us in His love and bless us with his peace. Holy Mary, Mother of God and of the Church, pray for us. Saint Vincent Martyr, pray for us. Saint Gerard Majella, pray for us! God bless.

Fr. George

A PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

Father of all nations and ages,
We recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations;
for what has been achieved we give you thanks,
for the work that still remains we ask your help,
and as you have called us
from many peoples to be one nation,
grant that, under your providence,
our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Stewardship

"WHOEVER LOSES HIS LIFE FOR MY SAKE WILL FIND IT"

As Christian stewards, are we willing to "lose our life" to be disciples of Christ? In any major life commitment, we are required to give up certain things. For example, in marriage, people relinquish some individual freedoms and autonomous decision making, and in return receive: love, companionship and family. Are we willing to welcome others and share our gifts? Good stewards share their time, talent and treasures with those who are in need. Today's Gospel reminds us that all who give even just "a cup of water to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded." Let us take the time to welcome others and reach out to those in need. There are many opportunities within our parish to act upon today's Gospel. These include but are not limited to: the Hope House Food Collection, Family Promise as well as the Youth Ministry trip to Appalachia. Take some time and think about how you can help those around you and share your gifts with others.

Adult Confirmation Classes

Classes Begin July 5

St. Vincent is now offering an adult Confirmation process for any interested baptized Catholic. Generally, this formation process will involve instruction and faith sharing sessions during July and August via Zoom and leading up to Confirmation in the Fall of this year. The focus of the program is to connect the practice of our Catholic Faith to our experiences in our everyday lives. For many who participate in this program, it is an opportunity to see, for the first time, the faith of the Church with an adult understanding. The resources are varied and many and they include a scripture study of the Gospels, The US Catholic Catechism for Adults, the Bible and some of the Vatican II documents. Participants will look at how their image of God affects the way they are in relationship with Him and spend significant time connecting daily life with the underlying meaning of incarnation and Eucharist.

For more information, please contact Jan at jan.figenshu@svmnj.org or ext. 253 or register online at <https://www.svmnj.org/adult-confirmation>.

Portrait of SVM Parish

In mid-May, we met for 3 listening sessions to discern who we are as a parish in order to assist Bishop Sweeney in the selection process for our new pastor.

We are an amazing Parish!

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

"If any person may have been abused by any priest, they should immediately contact their local County Prosecutor's Office and the Diocese's Victims Assistance Coordinator: Dr. Ken McNiel at 973-879-1489. Mark Condon, Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia, 973-777-8818 x205 or Sister Joan Daniel Healy, S.C.C., Chancellor/Delegate for Religious, 973-777-8818 x248."

CHRISTIAN FAITH FORMATION REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN FOR 2023-2024

Our hope is that you and your family will find a place here that is both inviting and challenging. Inviting in the sense that you all feel welcomed and willing to participate in the programs that are offered here; challenging in ways that help all of us to grow in our understanding of the Roman Catholic faith and the ways that we are called to live out our discipleship in Jesus Christ. Because your involvement is integral and we value your commitment to your child's faith, we look forward to working in partnership with you.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact the Christian Faith Formation Office by phone or email (Monday-Thursday 9am-3 pm). Please visit our website for more information and online registration <https://svmnj.org/registration>.

In the Community

DCM Associates, Inc. is honored to partner with The Seeing Eye to recruit volunteer puppy raisers!

Puppy raisers are VOLUNTEER foster families, from all walks of life, who nurture and care for their pups until they are about 14- to 16-months-old. When Seeing Eye puppies reach the age of seven or eight weeks, they are delivered to the homes of volunteer puppy raisers who live within driving distance of The Seeing Eye. Over the course of a year and a half, puppy raisers host a puppy in their home. The family provides love, care, obedience training and social exposure to assist the puppy in becoming a future Seeing Eye® dog. They teach the puppies basic manners and commands, and socialize them to a variety of social situations and experiences that range from shopping and car rides, to visiting airports and boarding airplanes.

If you would like to discuss the opportunity further with an actual Volunteer Puppy Raiser contact Joseph F. Duffy, Vice Chairman at DCM Associates joe.duffy@dcm-associates.com.
