Feasts of St. Peter and St. Paul
June 29, 2025

My dear parishioners,

Summertime has finally arrived! Please remember, starting July 1st through Labor Day September 2nd, our summer schedule will kick in. Weekend Masses will continue as follows: on Saturday at 8:30 AM, 5PM, and 7PM (Spanish Mass remains unchanged), and on Sunday at 7:15 AM, 9:15 AM, 11:15 AM, and 5PM. Please note that our weekday 12PM Mass will be suspended beginning Tuesday, July 1, and will resume on Tuesday, September 2.

Last Friday, we celebrated the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. As you could see, I placed our statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in a prominent position by the altar for the weekend of Corpus Christi through Friday the 27th. This is really to highlight the connection between the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Most Blessed Sacrament. We, as Catholics, need the Precious Body and Blood of Christ to live strong faith-filled lives. We also need time to come quietly before the Blessed Sacrament in prayer, petition and thanksgiving. As we consider, Jesus Christ our brother and savior, we reflect on this beautiful new statue donated to us by a devout parishioner several months ago. As I mentioned in my homily last weekend, please note his caring face, his heart open for love for all, his pierced hands which reach out to all and his feet. Note the dirty toenails reminding us that life is a messy business and Christ walked dusty roads to bring salvation to many. Let's never be afraid, if you will, to challenges, tasks, and making difficult decisions centering on Christ's peace for us and those we are connected.

As we celebrate the Feasts of St. Peter and St. Paul this weekend, we reflect on St. Peter, a strong impetuous man who followed all for Christ. This impetuous man who made mistakes and yet who was given the responsibility of the first Pope. Christ understands our frailty and empowers us to be who he invites us to be. St. Paul initially hated Christ and hated Christians. He was a strong persecutor of the early Christian church. Christ called him by name, and he was brought to the house of the elders where he was forgiven by the Christian community and embraced. He then, with Peter, became a champion for the early Christian community navigating difficult decisions in uniting Jewish and Christian converts who came with very different customs and values.

I am so proud of our SVM parish. We are filled with people who are thoughtful, generous and willing to sacrifice. Our first initiative in many years of donating gently used items was a tremendous success, our van had to be emptied 3 times! The beautiful gifts you gave are now being used by our brothers and sisters in Paterson and Dover. Thanks also to our Diocesan Initiative we received many bags of rice and anti-bacterial wipes, which is what our parish was asked to collect for the food pantries in Paterson and Dover. I am in the process of renewing a former outreach group regarding assisting in acts of charity. The primary group will support that of the working poor. Anyone who would like to be part of this group, email me directly.

Fr. Jose spent two special weeks with his family in Mexico, he returned late last Wednesday, we look forward to hearing his stories and are glad to have him home.

Our beloved Fr. Yojan is spending his first weekend in Resurrection in Randolph and formally begins as their pastor on Tuesday, July 1st. We extend to him our prayers and love as he takes on the responsibility for this faith-filled community and continues to be director of Catechesis for the diocese. We look forward to having Fr. Yojan visits us frequently, there will always be a place for him in our guest room. Thank you, Fr., Yojan for being an inspiring priest to us, blessed are the people of Resurrection as they begin to love and support you just as we always will.

God Bless,

Fr. Owen

Knights of Columbus

Recently at the Knights of Columbus 4th Degree Assembly Communion Breakfast, Michael Dreitlein of our local Dr. McDowell Knights Council was awarded "Patriot of the Year" for his work with the Bring a Hero Home (BAHH) Program.

This program works with the various branches of the United States Military to bring service personnel home for holidays and special occasions who, while they have the leave, would not be able to come due to lack of funds. This year, thanks to your support, the Dr. McDowell Council was able to help bring 59 service members home.

While the whole Dr. McDowell Council is involved in this effort, it has been Mike's spearheading of the program, along with hard work of the other BAHH committee members, that has enabled this program to be as successful as it is.

Congratulations Mike! Well Deserved!

The Sacred Heart and the Eucharist

For Corpus Christi through June 27, our Sacred Heart of Jesus statue has been placed near the altar to highlight the deep connection between the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Sacrament. May this image remind us of Christ's love, his sacrifice, and his presence in the Eucharist. His heart is open to all, even in the messiness of life.

El Sagrado Corazón y la Eucaristía

Desde Corpus Christi hasta el 27 de junio, la estatua del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús está colocada junto al altar para resaltar la conexión con el Santísimo Sacramento. Que esta imagen nos recuerde el amor de Cristo, su sacrificio y su presencia viva en la Eucaristía. Su corazón está abierto a todos, incluso en medio del desorden de la vida.

A Gift of Sacred Art

We offer our sincere thanks to iconographer Joakim Chaoussoglou for his generous heart and gifted hands. Joakim recently presented two beautiful icons to Fr. Owen as a gift to our parish community. His work is not only a reflection of deep faith and tradition, but a lasting blessing for all who come to pray and worship.

Un Regalo de Arte Sagrado

Ofrecemos nuestro más sincero agradecimiento al iconógrafo Joakim Chaoussoglou por su generoso corazón y manos talentosas. Joakim entregó recientemente dos hermosos íconos al Padre Owen como un regalo para nuestra comunidad parroquial. Su obra no solo refleja una profunda fe y tradición, sino que también es una bendición duradera para todos los que vienen a orar y adorar.

Joined Together in Christ

We joyfully congratulate the newly married couples: Christopher Walter Sweeney & Alexandra Kelly Brueno (left) and David Joseph Fiumara & Amy Rose Hachey (not pictured). May the Lord bless your union with love, faith, and lifelong grace. As you begin this sacred journey together, know that your parish community is praying for you and rejoicing with you.

Welcome to the Family of Faith

¡Bienvenidos a la Iglesia de San Vicente Mártir!

Fiestas de San Pedro y San Pablo
29 de Junio de 2025

Mis queridos feligreses,

¡Por fin llegó el verano! Recuerden que, del 1 de julio al 2 de septiembre, Día del Trabajo, nuestro horario de verano comenzará. Las misas de fin de semana continuarán de la siguiente manera: el sábado a las 8:30 a. m., 5 p. m. y 7 p. m. (la misa en español se mantiene sin cambios), y el domingo a las 7:15 a. m., 9:15 a. m., 11:15 a. m. y 5 p. m. Tengan en cuenta que nuestra misa de lunes a viernes a las 12 p. m. se suspenderá a partir del martes 1 de julio y se reanudará el martes 2 de septiembre.

El viernes pasado celebramos la festividad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Como pudieron ver, coloqué nuestra estatua del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús en un lugar destacado junto al altar durante el fin de semana de Corpus Christi hasta el viernes 27. Esto es para resaltar la conexión entre el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y el Santísimo Sacramento. Como católicos, necesitamos el Preciosísimo Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo para vivir una fe firme. También necesitamos tiempo para acercarnos en silencio al Santísimo Sacramento en oración, petición y acción de gracias. Al considerar a Jesucristo, nuestro hermano y salvador, reflexionamos sobre esta hermosa estatua nueva que nos donó un devoto feligrés hace varios meses. Como mencioné en mi homilía del fin de semana pasado, observen su rostro bondadoso, su corazón abierto al amor por todos, sus manos perforadas que se extienden a todos y sus pies. Observen las uñas sucias de los pies, que nos recuerdan que la vida es un caos y que Cristo recorrió caminos polvorientos para traer la salvación a muchos. Nunca tengamos miedo, por así decirlo, de los desafíos, de las tareas y de la toma de decisiones difíciles centradas en la paz de Cristo para nosotros y para aquellos con quienes estamos conectados.

Al celebrar las fiestas de San Pedro y San Pablo este fin de semana, reflexionamos sobre San Pedro, un hombre fuerte e impetuoso que lo siguió todo por Cristo. Este hombre impetuoso que cometió errores y, sin embargo, recibió la responsabilidad del primer Papa. Cristo comprende nuestra fragilidad y nos capacita para ser quienes él nos invita a ser. San Pablo inicialmente odió a Cristo y a los cristianos. Fue un feroz perseguidor de la iglesia cristiana primitiva. Cristo lo llamó por su nombre y fue llevado a la casa de los ancianos, donde fue perdonado y acogido por la comunidad cristiana. Luego, junto con Pedro, se convirtió en un defensor de la comunidad cristiana primitiva, abordando decisiones difíciles para unir a conversos judíos y cristianos que provenían de costumbres y valores muy diferentes.

Estoy muy orgulloso de nuestra parroquia SVM. Estamos llenos de personas consideradas, generosas y dispuestas a sacrificarse. Nuestra primera iniciativa en muchos años de donar artículos usados en buen estado fue todo un éxito; ¡tuvimos que vaciar nuestra camioneta tres veces! Los hermosos regalos que nos dieron ahora están siendo utilizados por nuestros hermanos y hermanas de Paterson y Dover. Gracias también a nuestra Iniciativa Diocesana, recibimos muchas bolsas de arroz y toallitas antibacterianas, que es lo que se le pidió a nuestra parroquia que recolectara para las despensas de alimentos de Paterson y Dover. Estoy en proceso de renovar un antiguo grupo de apoyo para apoyar obras de caridad. El grupo principal apoyará a los trabajadores pobres. Si desea formar parte de este grupo, contácteme directamente por correo electrónico.

El Padre José pasó dos semanas especiales con su familia en México, regresó tarde el miércoles pasado, esperamos escuchar sus historias y estamos contentos de tenerlo en casa.

Nuestro querido Padre Yojan pasa su primer fin de semana en Resurrection, Randolph, y asume oficialmente como párroco el martes 1 de julio. Le enviamos nuestras oraciones y cariño al asumir la responsabilidad de esta comunidad llena de fe y continuar como director de Catequesis de la diócesis. Esperamos con ansias que el Padre Yojan nos visite con frecuencia; siempre habrá un lugar para él en nuestra habitación de huéspedes. Gracias, Padre Yojan, por ser un sacerdote inspirador para nosotros. Benditos sean los feligreses de Resurrection, quienes comienzan a amarlo y apoyarlo como siempre lo haremos.

Dios los bendiga,

Jr. Oron

Caballeros de Colón

Recientemente, en el Desayuno de Comunión de la Asamblea del 4º Grado de los Caballeros de Colón, Michael Dreitlein de nuestro Consejo local de Caballeros Dr. McDowell fue galardonado como "Patriota del año" por su trabajo con el Programa Bring a Hero Home (BAHH).

Este programa colabora con las distintas ramas de las Fuerzas Armadas de los Estados Unidos para que el personal militar pueda regresar a casa durante las vacaciones y ocasiones especiales, ya que, aunque disfruta de licencia, no podría asistir por falta de fondos. Este año, gracias a su apoyo, el Consejo Dr. McDowell pudo ayudar a 59 militares a regresar a casa.

Si bien todo el Consejo Dr. McDowell está involucrado en este esfuerzo, ha sido la iniciativa de Mike, junto con el arduo trabajo de los demás miembros del comité de BAHH, lo que ha permitido que este programa tenga tanto éxito. ¡Felicitaciones, Mike! ¡Bien merecido!
