The Holy Family Of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

My dear parishioners,

We gather to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. I love these days between Christmas and the beginning of the New Year. Most of us have a little down time where we get to spend time with family and friends, enjoy the tree and sleep in a little bit longer.

The Feast of the Holy Family is a wonderful day to give God thanks for our biological family and our family of SVM. We look at Mary and Joseph and how their arrangement was different than the norm. Joseph being the stepfather as he took on the role of “dad” and nurtured the baby Jesus through adolescence, all the while Christ was growing in size and age, in preparation for his baptism by John the Baptist.

Most families today include a mother and a father. Some, however, are led by a single parent, grandparents who are co-parenting, or blended families with stepmothers and stepfathers. What matters most is making it work. At its core, a child needs positive male and female role models in some capacity to help shape their identity, nurture their gifts, and grow into who God calls them to be.

It's very difficult being a parent, in that the sacrifice and care of the child or children is ongoing. Yet we know what goes around comes around meaning as we look to the older parent, the one who needs support in illness and mental decline. At this point, the adult child becomes the caregiver for their beloved parent who needs support in old age.

A family is about the whole life of a person from the moment they are born until they die. Being nurtured and nurturing back is part of the cycle of life. How blessed are we as Catholics that we have the true faith handed down directly by Christ to help us navigate this world into eternal life.

I enjoy seeing our little children racing up for Holy Communion, crossing their arms for a blessing and sometimes pretending they are 2nd graders, trying to receive Holy Communion. I love to hear the little voices and the cries of the infants reminding us of the hope today and of the future Catholics that will sit in the pews long after I am retired. We are blessed and gifted here at SVM. We are blessed by Sister Noreen, our school principal who works hand in hand with our parents to reinforce the Catholic teachings and beliefs. We are blessed with Steven who works with parents and our children in the public-schools teaching and preparing them in the ways of our faith. We are blessed with Ivana, our youth minister who works joyfully with our 9th and 10th graders as we together continue to teach them their faith through retreat and outreach and to be prepared for Confirmation.

I am grateful to Anne along with her team and volunteers for welcoming and preparing our adults who seek faith through Baptism, Holy Eucharist and Confirmation. We are blessed by our staff who help our parish to function in so many ways, ensuring that our parish is well run and cared for. We are blessed with our many volunteers who in varied ways support the many ministries of parish, and who are central to who we are in Madison. Together we make our blended SVM family.

Thank you to each one of you, loyal and true for being an active disciple on the journey and in our many stages of life being who God calls us to be.

I take this opportunity to wish you a happy and holy New Year. Remember our mass schedule is inside the bulletin and online. As we celebrate the Feast Day of Mary Mother of God on January 1st, may we be guided by her as she points us to Christ who is our Savior, Redeemer and Brother.

God Bless you and Happy New Year!

La Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José

Mis queridos feligreses,

Nos reunimos para celebrar la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Me encantan estos días entre Navidad y el comienzo del Año Nuevo. La mayoría de nosotros tenemos un poco de tiempo libre para compartir con la familia y los amigos, disfrutar del árbol de Navidad y dormir un poco más. La Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia es un día maravilloso para dar gracias a Dios por nuestra familia biológica y por nuestra familia de SVM.

Contemplamos a María y a José y cómo su situación familiar era diferente a la normal. José, como padrastro, asumió el papel de padre y cuidó del niño Jesús durante su infancia y adolescencia, mientras Cristo crecía en estatura y edad, preparándose para su bautismo por Juan el Bautista. La mayoría de las familias hoy en día tienen un padre y una madre; sin embargo, algunas tienen un solo progenitor, o abuelos que comparten la crianza, y ciertamente existen familias reconstituidas con madrastras y padrastros.

La mayoría de las familias hoy en día incluyen una madre y un padre. Sin embargo, algunas están encabezadas por un solo padre o madre, por abuelos que crían juntos a sus nietos, o por familias ensambladas con madrastras y padrastros. Lo más importante es que la familia funcione. En esencia, un niño necesita modelos positivos, tanto masculinos como femeninos, en alguna capacidad, que le ayuden a formar su identidad, a cultivar sus dones y a crecer hasta convertirse en la persona que Dios lo llama a ser.

La familia abarca toda la vida de una persona, desde el momento de su nacimiento hasta su muerte. Ser cuidado y cuidar a los demás forma parte del ciclo de la vida. ¡Qué afortunados somos los católicos de tener la verdadera fe, transmitida directamente por Cristo, para guiarnos en este mundo hacia la vida eterna! Disfruto viendo a nuestros pequeños corriendo a recibir la Sagrada Comunión, cruzando los brazos para recibir la bendición e incluso a algunos que intentan hacerse pasar por niños de segundo grado para comulgar.

Me encanta escuchar las vocécitas y los llantos de los bebés, que nos recuerdan la esperanza del presente y de los futuros católicos que se sentarán en los bancos de la iglesia mucho después de que yo me haya jubilado. Somos afortunados y privilegiados aquí en SVM. Contamos con la bendición de la Hermana Noreen, nuestra directora, quien trabaja de la mano con los padres para reforzar las enseñanzas y creencias católicas.

Tenemos la dicha de contar con Steven, quien trabaja con los padres y nuestros hijos en la enseñanza en la escuela pública, preparándose en los caminos de nuestra fe. También tenemos la dicha de contar con Ivana, nuestra ministra de jóvenes, quien trabaja con alegría con nuestros alumnos de noveno y décimo grado, enseñándoles la fe a través de retiros y actividades de servicio, y preparándose para la Confirmación. Agradezco a Anne, junto con su equipo y voluntarios, por acoger y preparar a nuestros adultos que buscan la fe a través del Bautismo, la Sagrada Eucaristía y la Confirmación. Nos sentimos bendecidos por nuestro personal, que ayuda a que nuestra parroquia funcione de tantas maneras, asegurando que esté bien administrada y cuidada.

Nos sentimos bendecidos por nuestros numerosos voluntarios que, de diversas maneras, apoyan los muchos ministerios de la parroquia, que son fundamentales para nuestra comunidad en Madison. Gracias a cada uno de ustedes, fieles y leales, por ser discípulos activos en este camino y por ser, en las diferentes etapas de la vida, quienes Dios nos llama a ser.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para desearles un feliz y santo Año Nuevo y les recuerdo que el horario de misas se encuentra en el boletín y en línea. Al celebrar la Fiesta de María Madre de Dios el 1 de enero, que ella nos guíe y nos muestre el camino hacia Cristo, nuestro Salvador, Redentor y Hermano.

¡Que Dios los bendiga y feliz Año Nuevo!

Jr. Owen

SVMS Christmas Concerts

SVMS hosted a series of Christmas concerts that joyfully celebrated the season. The morning performance featured students in PK3 through 1st grade, whose songs, smiles, and enthusiasm filled the room with warmth and delight. The evening concert showcased students in 2nd through 5th grades and concluded with a meaningful Nativity scene, reminding all in attendance of the true spirit of Christmas.

Conciertos Navideños de SVMS

SVMS organizó una serie de conciertos navideños para celebrar con alegría la temporada. La presentación de la mañana contó con los estudiantes de PK3 hasta 1er grado, quienes con sus canciones, sonrisas y entusiasmo llenaron el ambiente de alegría y ternura. El concierto de la tarde presentó a los estudiantes de 2.º a 5.º grado y concluyó con una significativa representación del Nacimiento, recordando a todos el verdadero espíritu de la Navidad.

Join us for a Bible Study, Winter 2026: Radical Hospitality

For the 2026 winter session (Jan. and Feb.) we will be studying 1-3 John (and more) – focusing on Radical Hospitality. Jesus walked through the crowds of desperate people, into the sinner's house, and right up to the Samaritan woman (John 4). He touched the sick, the broken and the shunned. Jesus covers our lack of love and brings us back into the light. We will examine what it means to "walk in the light as (Jesus) is in the light" (1 John 1:7). By imitating Jesus' actions on earth, we can bring light to the outcasts in our communities and our world.

There will be three sessions to choose from: Tuesday Morning, Tuesday Evening and Sunday Evening. The schedules are as follows:

- Tuesday, 10 am – Noon, in the St. Peter's Room at SVM Parish Ministry Center: Jan: 13, 20, 27, Feb: 3, 10, 17
- Tuesday, 6 – 8 pm, in the St. Peter's Room at SVM Parish Ministry Center: Jan: 13, 20, 27, Feb: 3, 10, 17
- Sunday, 6 – 8 pm, in various Parishioners homes: Jan: 11, 18, 25, Feb: 1, 8 (2 – 4 pm), 15

Each participant is asked to read the appropriate portion of the booklet before the session, answer the questions and come ready to discuss; book will be provided once you sign up. For any and all questions and to sign up please contact:

Men's Retreat - Walking with Ignatius January 16th-18th

Led By

Fr. Phil Florio, S.J. & Fr. Ken Gavin, S.J.

Ignatian Spirituality is rooted in the experience of St. Ignatius Loyola, whose conversion began as he recovered from war wounds. Over years of prayer and reflection, he gained deep insights into the spiritual life, later captured in his Spiritual Exercises, the foundation of Ignatian Spirituality.

At its heart, Ignatian Spirituality is about attentiveness, actively noticing God's presence in our daily lives, and responding to His guidance. It teaches us to recognize how God works in everything: our work, relationships, culture, creativity, and creation itself.

Our retreat, led by two Jesuits at the Loyola Center in Morristown, begins with supper on Friday, January 16, and concludes with lunch on Sunday, January 18. Visit www.Loyola.org to learn more.
