

Welcome to St. Vincent Martyr Church

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 25, 2026

My dear parishioners,

With great joy and gratitude, we begin the celebration of Catholic Schools Week. What wonderful history we have here in Madison. Our school was founded by the Sisters of Charity in 1806 and remains in capable hands today through Sister Noreen, our very own Sister of Charity. Sister Noreen, along with our dedicated Vice Principal, Anne Marie Gisoldi, and our devoted teachers and staff, lead a strong academic school firmly centered on Christ. Here, each child is encouraged to become the best version of themselves and to develop the gifts God has given them. I am proud and honored to serve as pastor of this great school and to help carry on its tradition of academic excellence for many years to come. My vision for our school families is that, through active participation in Mass and living out our Catholic values, our faith will be passed on from generation to generation. My hope is that our little kids and big kids alike will grow to become strong, faithful members in our pews and of the surrounding Catholic parishes.

Each week, I greatly enjoy teaching our 7th and 8th graders religion and other faith-based subjects in the wonderful atmosphere of the church. I especially enjoy watching them act out Gospel stories at our Wednesday school Mass. I continue to see the 6th graders as my schedule allows. I also love interacting with our 2nd graders, and these days our focus is preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

I have been friends with the Marconi family since my early days at St. Patrick's in Chatham. On Thursday the 15th, I anointed Carol Romano Marconi at the wonderful care facility where she was so well cared for. I then celebrated her funeral on Saturday, January 24th. Carol was born and raised in Madison. She and Nick, her husband, were married in our church before moving to Chatham. Her brother was Fr. Gene Romano of Hermitage in Chester now deceased, and her brother-in-law is the Most Reverend Dominick Marconi, who is now retired. I extend our prayers to their five children and the entire Marconi family. As I laid Carol to rest beside Nick in our cemetery, I reflected on how she had completed the full circle of life: a devout Catholic, a loving daughter and sister, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. May she rest in peace.

As you know, I traveled to Washington, DC, on Wednesday afternoon and returned home on Friday evening, the 23rd. Though the days were busy, they were filled with great joy and hope. Fr. Alex, Fr. Phil, and I had the privilege of leading the Knights and Dames of the Order of Malta. During our time there, we celebrated Mass and spent time in prayer and reflection with the Sisters of Life. I am proud to have proclaimed the dignity of human life in our nation's Capitol. As I mentioned in my homily this past weekend, life encompasses every stage, from its beginning in the womb through natural death. Every human being is deserving of dignity and respect, and as a society, we are called to nurture the gifts God has given to all.

Last week, I appointed Barbara Doyle and Beth Poore as coordinators of our new Volunteer Ministry. Inside the bulletin, you will find a letter from them outlining our mission. In the coming weeks, they will be reaching out to all our volunteer groups. Their dedication to our parish will allow me to spend more time in pastoral ministry. Thank you, Barbara and Beth, for saying yes!

On behalf of our Catholic school families, I thank our parents and grandparents for their commitment to living our Catholic values, and I thank all in our parish who faithfully pass on our Catholic identity: intellectually, academically, and spiritually. May you enjoy the beautiful celebrations of this special week.

Happy Catholic Schools Week!

God Bless,

¡Bienvenidos a la Iglesia de San Vicente Mártir

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
25 de Enero de 2026

Mis queridos feligreses,

Con gran alegría y gratitud, comenzamos la celebración de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas. ¡Qué maravillosa historia tenemos aquí en Madison! Nuestra escuela fue fundada por las Hermanas de la Caridad en 1806 y hoy continúa en excelentes manos gracias a la Hermana Noreen, nuestra querida Hermana de la Caridad. La Hermana Noreen, junto con nuestra dedicada Subdirectora, Anne Marie Gisoldi, y nuestros comprometidos maestros y personal, dirigen una sólida escuela académica firmemente centrada en Cristo. Aquí, cada niño es alentado a convertirse en la mejor versión de sí mismo y a desarrollar los dones que Dios le ha dado. Me siento orgulloso y honrado de servir como párroco de esta gran escuela y de ayudar a continuar su tradición de excelencia académica por muchos años más. Mi visión para nuestras familias escolares es que, mediante la participación activa en la Misa y viviendo nuestros valores católicos, nuestra fe se transmita de generación en generación. Mi esperanza es que tanto nuestros niños pequeños como los mayores crezcan y se conviertan en miembros fuertes y fieles en nuestros bancos y en las parroquias católicas que nos rodean.

Cada semana disfruto enormemente enseñar religión y otras materias basadas en la fe a nuestros estudiantes de 7.º y 8.º grado en el maravilloso ambiente de la iglesia. Disfruto especialmente verlos representar historias del Evangelio durante la Misa escolar de los miércoles. Continúo viendo a los estudiantes de 6.º grado cuando mi agenda lo permite. También me encanta interactuar con nuestros estudiantes de 2.º grado, y en estos días nuestro enfoque está en la preparación para el Sacramento de la Reconciliación.

He sido amigo de la familia Marconi desde mis primeros días en San Patricio en Chatham. El jueves 15, ungué a Carol Romano Marconi en el excelente centro de cuidados donde fue atendida con tanto cariño. Luego celebré su funeral el sábado 24 de enero. Carol nació y creció en Madison. Ella y su esposo Nick se casaron en nuestra iglesia antes de mudarse a Chatham. Su hermano fue el P. Gene Romano de Hermitage en Chester, ya fallecido, y su cuñado es el Reverendísimo Dominick Marconi, ahora retirado. Extendemos nuestras oraciones a sus cinco hijos y a toda la familia Marconi. Al sepultar a Carol junto a Nick en nuestro cementerio, reflexioné sobre cómo había completado el círculo completo de la vida: una católica devota, hija y hermana amorosa, esposa dedicada, madre, abuela y bisabuela. Que descanse en paz.

Como saben, viajé a Washington, D.C., el miércoles por la tarde y regresé a casa el viernes por la noche, día 23. Aunque los días fueron intensos, estuvieron llenos de gran alegría y esperanza. El P. Alex, el P. Phil y yo tuvimos el privilegio de guiar a los Caballeros y Damas de la Orden de Malta. Durante nuestro tiempo allí, celebramos la Misa y compartimos momentos de oración y reflexión con las Hermanas de la Vida. Me siento orgulloso de haber proclamado la dignidad de la vida humana en la capital de nuestra nación. Como mencioné en mi homilía el pasado fin de semana, la vida abarca cada etapa, desde su comienzo en el seno materno hasta la muerte natural. Todo ser humano merece dignidad y respeto, y como sociedad estamos llamados a cuidar los dones que Dios ha dado a todos.

La semana pasada nombré a Barbara Doyle y Beth Poore como coordinadoras de nuestro nuevo Ministerio de Voluntarios. Dentro del boletín encontrarán una carta de ellas donde explican nuestra misión. En las próximas semanas, se pondrán en contacto con todos nuestros grupos de voluntarios. Su dedicación a nuestra parroquia me permitirá dedicar más tiempo al ministerio pastoral. ¡Gracias, Barbara y Beth, por decir que sí!

En nombre de nuestras familias de la escuela católica, agradezco a los padres y abuelos por su compromiso de vivir nuestros valores católicos, y agradezco a todos en nuestra parroquia que fielmente transmiten nuestra identidad católica: intelectual, académica y espiritualmente. Que disfruten las hermosas celebraciones de esta semana tan especial.

¡Feliz Semana de las Escuelas Católicas!

Que Dios los bendiga,

Volunteer Ministry

Dear fellow parishioners,

We are looking forward to serving our parish as Coordinators of Volunteers, allowing Fr. Owen more time to concentrate on other areas of life at St. Vincent Martyr.

Both of us realize that our many volunteers are truly the backbone of our vibrant ministries, and we want each of them to have a voice and feel appreciated.

Our initial goal is to touch base with each volunteer ministry lead to discuss what is working well, make any adjustments that would make the group's experience even more successful, and better understand how we can be of help.

We also encourage any volunteer to candidly share their thoughts with their ministry lead or contact us directly.

We applaud the dedication of our volunteers and stand ready to help them in any way to make their efforts as productive as possible. Stay tuned!

Dear Fr. Owen,

Please express my gratitude and appreciation to the good people of St. Vincent parish family for the gift cards you collected for Our Lady of Victories parish families at Christmas time.

These gifts most definitely provided comfort and cheer and made the lives of our families happier and more enjoyable this Christmas!

On behalf of the staff and our parish family, I express our gratitude to you for your care and concern, but most of all for your friendship and love. A special "Thank You" to you, and all who helped you with the collection of the gifts! I want you and them to know that you are truly "Angels" in our midst!

Please remember all of us at Our Lady of Victories in your prayers. And we promise to remember you and the parish family of St. Vincent's Church in our prayers.

May every day of the New Year 2026 be filled with God's choicest Blessings!

The Peace of Jesus be with you,

Dear Friends at: St. Vincent Martyr Church,

On behalf of Catholic Charities and Catholic Family & Community Services, please accept our sincere gratitude for your generous support of this year's Christmas Blessings Project.

Through your kindness, we were able to share gifts with more than 1,400 family members, veterans, seniors, and children—bringing joy, comfort, and hope to those who needed it most this Christmas. Our clients and their families were truly moved by your generosity, and we are profoundly grateful for the love of God you help us extend to the community.

The impact we make each Christmas season is only possible through the collaboration of our parishes, parishioners, partner agencies, and dedicated donors. Your compassion and commitment make this ministry a true labor of love. We pray that God continues to bless you and your family, and we wish you good health and many blessings throughout 2026 and the years ahead.

Thank you once again for your steadfast support of our mission and for helping us serve those who rely on us.

God Bless,
