LAKE CITY

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This weekend, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity! It is a very daunting thing to try to understand the nature of the Holy Trinity. Sometimes as human beings, we like to complicate things. What if Jesus wants us to be close to him and all persons of the Trinity like we are close to our own families?

Jesus often talks about desiring that the children of God are close to the Father just as the Father and He are so close to each other’s. It is also fitting that we are celebrating this weekend for Fathers as well. Happy Father’s Day to all of you who are earthly and spiritual fathers. Thanks for all that you do! I have a gift for you with St. Jsoeph’s prayer card at the end of the Masses.

Sincerely, Fr. The
