Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We are blessed to have a powerful gospel for us this 3rd Sunday of Lent. We have the story of the Samaritan woman at the well where she encounters Jesus for the first time. She was going to the well for ulterior motives that wasn't the best of intentions. She left being changed by Jesus when He offers her life-giving waters where she will never be thirsty again. She had to be convinced by the sincerity of Jesus' invitation.

We are doing the same thing in our lives. We had made the mistake of running after cheap loves and imitation of it that left us hungrier and lonelier than before. We must reach that critical stage of renouncing and admitting our powerlessness of this sin. We need to be able to let God enter into this void that exists within our hearts. God longs to fill this void with His presence, His love and mercy.

Sincerely,
Fr. The Hoang

Lord Jesus, we bow before you, before you to whom all power is given. We will love you, O Lord. We will treasure you. Your thoughts shall be our thoughts, that we may learn how you are named in heaven, on earth, and below the earth. Watch over us and be with us until you can come, until the time is fulfilled when you will appear among us and establish God's kingdom. Then the whole world will rejoice and all people will bend their knees before you, the one Lord and Savior. Amen.

DOWR OPEN HEARTS WOMEN'S CONFERENCE MARCH 21, 2026

On Saturday, March 21, 2026 the Diocese of Winona-Rochester (DOWR) is sponsoring an Open Hearts Conference at Lourdes High School, 9am-5pm in Rochester. The conference will provide an opportunity for young women in High School, College and beyond to step away from the busyness of daily life and prayerfully explore the possibility of religious life. Throughout the day, participants will meet women from various religious communities, hear their stories and gain insight into the path of discernment. Come experience a glimpse of life rooted in prayer, community and joyous service to our church. The day will feature keynote talks, time to talk to religious sisters, a Q and A panel and community prayer and more.

Registration cards and information are on the bulletin board at the church entrance. We hope you will join us or spread the word to someone who should! Register today!
