Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Easter is here! The Lord is risen, alleluia, alleluia!!!! This is a great time of rejoicing as we celebrate with our family and friends. Another springtime for a new beginning. We have this great opportunity to use this time of gathering to forgive, to love, and to be more merciful towards our families and those who have hurt us.

We are a people of the resurrection! We look to the future with great hope since Jesus has conquered death once and for all. We rejoice in this great gift of eternal life and a new beginning.

I pray that on this joyous day, God will shower you with his utmost love and mercy.

Sincerely,
Fr. The Hoang

DAILY PRAYER in TIME of WAR

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of Heaven and Earth,
I, with Your Virgin Mother, Our Lady of Guadalupe, lift up my heart to Your Most Sacred Heart.

I ask You, through the intercession of Saint Louis, King of France, to guide the leaders of nations in every war against unjust aggressors, so that life and freedom may be protected and peace, which is the fruit of justice, may be restored.

In a special way, through the intercession of Saint Michael the Archangel,
I ask the help of Your grace for our armed forces who give their lives in the service of their fellow citizens.
May all soldiers be Your faithful and selfless servants, that Your reign may be established in all hearts, in all families, and in all nations.

Long live Christ the King! Long live the Virgin of Guadalupe!

Amen.

Amen

The Story of Easter
Easter is the greatest celebration of the Christian faith—the day we rejoice in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

After celebrating the Last Supper with His disciples on Holy Thursday, Jesus suffered and died on the cross on Good Friday, offering His life for the forgiveness of our sins. He was laid in the tomb, and it seemed that all hope was lost.

But on the third day, something extraordinary happened.

Early on Easter morning, women went to the tomb and found it empty. An angel proclaimed the joyful news:

“He is not here; He has risen!” (Luke 24:6)

Jesus had conquered sin and death. He appeared to His disciples, bringing them peace and renewing their faith. Through His Resurrection, He opened the gates of eternal life for all who believe in Him.

Easter reminds us that no darkness is greater than God's light, no sin stronger than His mercy, and no death more powerful than His love.

Alleluia! Christ is risen—He is truly risen!
