Stewardship & Evangelization – the Chicken or the Egg?

Archbishop
Jerome E. ListECKI

At one time or another, you have probably heard the saying, “which comes first – the chicken or the egg?” You may have even used this adage when you were discussing something and weren’t sure where to begin or the process of how something got started.

In church circles, there are some people who have the “chicken and egg” discussion regarding stewardship and evangelization. One school of thought tells us that stewardship leads to evangelization. Another way of thinking emphasizes that evangelization must come before stewardship.

As I have said many times, my top priorities are Catholic Identity (who we are), Evangelization (what we do) and Stewardship (how we do it). So, while no one can definitively answer the question of which comes first – the chicken or the egg – I can tell you for sure that you need both!

Perhaps we might be wise to consider stewardship and evangelism as two branches of our faith “tree.” Both flow from embracing our faith fully – the gifts and the responsibilities – and then acting accordingly. Both call us to share all we have: our time, our talents, our resources and our faith, as we do our part to live as God intended, and invite others to do the same. Stewardship and Evangelization – one does not exist without the other.

Those involved with stewardship understand that the most important goal of stewardship formation is deepening our relationship with Jesus so that we can live more faithfully as his disciples in the world. In other words, the ultimate goal of stewardship formation is evangelization. When our faith lives are alive and on fire, we cannot help but share our love of Jesus with others.

We also understand that evangelization is central to the mission of all we do as Church. Through evangelization, we come to know, and to share, the Good News of Jesus Christ. Evangelization, simply stated, is encountering Jesus, embracing his call to discipleship, and sharing that call with others.

Disciples who practice stewardship as a way of life recognize God as the source of all they have, are, and will be. Good stewards recognize the most precious gift given by our gracious and generous God is the gift of faith and they recognize that this gift must be shared with others in our faith community and the larger world.

So, it’s not as important which came first as it is that we are faithful disciples whose lives are rooted in Catholic Identity, Evangelization and Stewardship.

What does this mean for me?

Stewardship and evangelization call us to share all we have – “our time, our talents, our resources and our faith.” When have I witnessed someone truly doing that?

Archbishop ListECKI states that the goal of stewardship is to deepen one’s relationship with Jesus in an effort to “live more faithfully as his disciples.” What have I been doing or could I do to deepen my relationship with Jesus?

All Saints Catholic School

Are you deciding where your child will attend school next year? Don’t just take our word for it, but perhaps consider the more than 450 families that choose All Saints Catholic School for their child/ren and who continue to re-enroll year after year. We still have some spots available for the 2017-18 school year! (262)925-4024 (allsaintskenosha.org)

Fr. Campbell's Wed. 6am Men's Bible Study: Wed. June 21, Mount Carmel School. Enter through door facing west/Columbus Park. Bring a Bible; we read/discuss the upcoming Sunday readings. Be a man—get up early & come to the class! Strong coffee served!

Corpus Christi Blood & Food Drive

The combined blood drive will be held on Monday June 26th at the Holy Rosary parish hall from 2:30pm to 7:30 pm. The food and money that is collected will be donated to support the homeless.

Sign-ups continue through June 25. Please check the WWW.BCW.EDU website, if you have questions. Baked goods would be appreciated, and would need to be delivered to Holy Rosary by 2pm on 6/26. Hourly door prizes will also be drawn.

Christ shed his Precious Blood for us, and with our donation of Blood we can help others in desperate need. Thank You!

New Altar Coming Next Week!

The new high altar will arrive next week, but some final work will be done here; should be completed last week of June. Archbishop ListECKi will be here at Mass to bless our new altar on Sunday, July 16th, on the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and the last day of our festival. Note: There will be a special Mass that day – at 11am, for the Archbishop. The normal 10am English Mass will move to 11am, and the Latin Mass (normally at 12 noon) will be moved to 9am that day.

New Church Roof Coming Soon!

In addition to our new high altar (arriving next week), we will be getting a new roof on the church this summer, hopefully soon after the festival. Our present roof is wearing thin in some areas, and as a result we have had a couple of water leaks in the ceiling of the church which has caused damage. The damage will be repaired after the new roof is put on.

ST THERESE FESTIVAL

The St. Therese Parish Festival will be held on Friday, July 21, 5pm - 11pm, Saturday, July 22, 5pm - 11pm, & Sunday, July 23, 12pm - 7pm on the church grounds. Food, Friday Fish Fry, drink, raffles, kids games, rides, Car Show on Sunday and live music by Bobby Way and The Way Outs, The New Vinyls & The Bugs and Caught In The Act. Main Raffle drawing Sunday at 7:30 pm. Come one and all to this annual event!
