

OUR LADY of MT. CARMEL PARISH

SEPTEMBER 9, 2018 · TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:33b-34

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Religious Education

Religious Education for Grades 1-11 starts on September 16!

Registrations will take place after all the Masses on August 25-26 thru September 9. Registration forms may be found in the back of the church.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) classes are one dimension of faith formation and religious education for Catholic students in grades 1-11. The program teaches Catholic history and doctrine, fosters communion, and prepares students for Christian service. This program is available to all who do not receive religious education classes on a regular basis at a Catholic School.

As a reminder, receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion (grade 2) requires two years of faith formation. The Sacrament of Confirmation (grades 9-11) is a three year faith formation.

Elementary grades are 1st to 6th Grade and meet on Sundays from 11:00 a.m.-11:50 a.m.

Middle School & High School grades meet on Sundays from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

From September 26 through November 4 you're invited to join other Christians for 40 Days for Life—40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You're also invited to stand and peacefully pray during a 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside PLANNED PARENTHOOD OF KENOSHA, 3601 ROOSEVELT RD, KENOSHA. Please help spread the word about this important community outreach.

If you'd like more information—and especially if you'd like to volunteer to help, please contact:

Bishop Morlino issues a call to root out ‘homosexual subculture’ in Church hierarchy

August 18, 2018 (LifeSiteNews) – Bishop Robert Morlino of Madison, Wisconsin, issued today a powerful pastoral letter in the wake of the most recent sex abuse scandals. In the pastoral letter he speaks about the “depravity” that has been allowed to fester in the Church and insists it must be “rooted out” even from within the U.S. episcopate:

“It is time to admit that there is a homosexual subculture within the hierarchy of the Catholic Church that is wreaking great devastation in the vineyard of the Lord,” he writes. The sex abuse crisis has continued, he says, because the modern Church has become too comfortable with sin in her teaching and practice.

He says: “For my part – and I know I am not alone – I am tired of this. I am tired of people being hurt, gravely hurt! I am tired of the obfuscation of truth. I am tired of sin. And, as one who has tried – despite my many imperfections – to lay down my life for Christ and His Church, I am tired of the regular violation of sacred duties by those entrusted with immense responsibility from the Lord for the care of His people.”

“For too long we have diminished the reality of sin – we have refused to call a sin a sin – and we have excused sin in the name of a mistaken notion of mercy,” he writes. “In our efforts to be open to the world we have become all too willing to abandon the Way, the Truth, and the Life.”

He continues: “We must be done with sin. It must be rooted out and again considered unacceptable. Love sinners? Yes. Accept true repentance? Yes. But do not say sin is okay. And do not pretend that grave violations of office and of trust come without grave, lasting consequences.”

“For the Church, the crisis we face is not limited to the McCarrick affair, or the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report, or anything else that may come. The deeper crisis that must be addressed is the license for sin to have a home in individuals at every level of the Church. There is a certain comfort level with sin that has come to pervade our teaching, our preaching, our decision making, and our very way of living.”

“If you’ll permit me, what the Church needs now is more hatred! As I have said previously, St. Thomas Aquinas said that hatred of wickedness actually belongs to the virtue of charity. As the Book of Proverbs says ‘My mouth shall meditate truth, and my lips shall hate wickedness’ (Prov. 8:7). It is an act of love to hate sin and to call others to turn away from sin.”

The bishop urges the faithful to unite with him and the clergy “in making public and private acts of reparation to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for all the sins of sexual depravity committed by members of the clergy and episcopacy.” He is asking all clergy, religious, and diocesan personnel to fast and abstain from meat during the Church’s traditional Autumn Ember Days on September 19, 21, and 22. “Some sins, like some demons, can only be driven out by prayer and fasting,” he writes.

“Right now there is a lot of justified anger and passion coming from many holy and faithful lay people and clerics across the country, calling for real reform and ‘house cleaning’ of this type of depravity. I stand with them,” he concludes.
