Ladies Society Community Service Project for Walkin' In My Shoes

Every year the Ladies Society participates in a community service project. This year the Ladies Society will be supporting the Walkin' In My Shoes organization's In the Hands of Hope program. This program provides aftercare outreach services to homeless women and men who have been recently released from incarceration and need to re-enter society. They are provided counseling and each person gets a duffel bag or backpack with essentials. The Ladies Society is assisting by collecting donated items to be given to those who seek assistance from this program. We ask all parishioners to support this program by donating any of the following items: shampoo, conditioner, lotion, soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, nail polish, make up cases, pens and make up items.

These items can be placed in the 'In the Hands of Hope' marked box which will be placed in the church vestibule. Please place donated items in the box beginning on Sunday, May 5 through Sunday, May 19. Please call Claudia at 262.914.0672 with any questions. Thank you for your support!
