PARISH-WIDE SURVEY coming: Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will be participating in a parish-wide survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute. Please help us by participating in this 10-15 minute survey. The survey will be available beginning Feb. 23 through March 23, and can be accessed online at www.disciplemakerindex.com; one must select the Archdiocese Milwaukee and our parish to take the survey.

The survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you deepen your relationship with Christ. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information and publish results about the community as whole. This information will help Fr. Campbell and Fr. McDermott and our parish pastoral council as we plan for the future and try to help everyone in our parish to be authentic disciples of Christ.

If you don't use the computer or have online access you can complete the survey with a paper (hard) copy, which will be available at the entrances of the church after weekend and daily Masses, or at the parish office. Completed surveys on paper should be turned in at the parish office. The results of the survey will be shared this spring/summer. Thank you for helping with this important project!

New Stations of the Cross coming:

Soon we will have new Stations of the Cross which will be beautiful full-color photographic reproductions on canvas of the fourteen stations, with a border around each station that matches the border around each of the ten Carmelite Saints in our sanctuary. Stephen Cascio, who designed our sanctuary, is doing the work. Hopefully they will be put up for the Lent season.

As Muslim Government ignores slaughter of Christians, Nigerian Bishops beg West for help

February 10, 2020 (LifeSiteNews) — The president of the Nigerian Catholic bishops' conference has called on Western nations to "make known the atrocities" inflicted upon Christians and other groups in Nigeria by Islamic terrorists.

Archbishop Augustine Obiora Akubeze, the bishop of Benin City, told Aid to the Church in Need that Boko Haram "have attacked both Muslims and Christians in the past. But presently, they are focusing mainly on the killing and kidnapping of Christians."

The Catholic bishops in Nigeria say the government is complicit in the murder of Christians in the country and that they do not do enough to help communities under attack. After explaining that "[p]eople are kidnapped for ransom basically in every part of Nigeria," Archbishop Akubeze said that for the government "to do nothing ... makes it difficult to convince more Nigerians that there is no connection between one-sided appointments of officials and the lack of prosecution of perpetrators of these crimes against humanity and the seemingly selective killing of Christians."

Last month, Bishop Matthew Hassan Kukah of Sokoto said the only difference between the Nigerian government and Boko Haram "is Boko Haram is holding a bomb." On Christmas Eve, 2019, Boko Haram reportedly killed seven people in an attack on a Christian village. On Boxing Day 2019, Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) released a video of its members beheading 10 Christians and shooting one Muslim. Bishop Kukah said that the Nigerian government is "using the levers of power to secure the supremacy of Islam." He said this "gives more weight to the idea that it can be achieved by violence. With the situation in Nigeria, it is hard to see the moral basis they have to defeat Boko Haram." "They have created the conditions to make it possible for Boko Haram to behave the way they are behaving,"
