Former Planned Parenthood worker Abby Johnson's address last week at the Republican National Convention detailed how Planned Parenthood promotes abortion, especially among minorities (Blacks & Hispanics)

CHARLOTTE, North Carolina, August 25, 2020 (LifeSiteNews) – Abby Johnson took the stage of the Republican National Convention Tuesday evening to present a harrowing snapshot of the reality behind the euphemisms of abortion, and to call on America to stand up to it by supporting President Donald Trump.

Johnson is a former Planned Parenthood abortion facility director who converted to the pro-life cause in 2009, and has since exposed numerous details about the inner workings of the abortion industry. She now leads And Then There Were None, a nonprofit dedicated to helping people leave the abortion industry. Her story was turned into a successful motion picture last year, Unplanned.

Johnson began her remarks by explaining how she was recruited into Planned Parenthood at a job fair. “I truly believed I was helping women,” she said. “But things drastically changed in 2009.”

That year, a trio of incidents opened her eyes: being chosen as employee of the year and attending the organization’s gala, where the Margaret Sanger Award, named for Planned Parenthood’s infamous racist founder, is presented; being ordered to double the abortions performed at her facility because “abortion is how we make our money”; and having to participate in an ultrasound-directed abortion.

“Nothing prepared me for what I saw on the screen: an unborn baby fighting back, desperate to move away from the suction,” Johnson, who herself is post-abortive, said. “And I’ll never forget what the doctor said next: ‘beam me up, Scotty.’ The last thing I saw was a spine twirling around in the mother’s womb before succumbing to the force of the suction.”

“For most people, abortion is abstract. They can’t conceive of the barbarity,” she went on. “For me, abortion is real. I know what abortion sounds like, I know what abortion smells like. Did you know abortion had a smell? I do.”

“I now support President Trump because he has done more for the unborn than any other president,” she declared, starting with restoring and expanding the Mexico City Policy that bans foreign aid to international abortion organizations. . . .

Prior to addressing the convention, Johnson said she “felt a lot of pressure to make the most provocative, impassioned, memorable pro-life...speech ever made,” after which listeners would not “ever be able to say, ‘Wow, we had no idea that those things happen during abortion.’ They’re going to know.”

HOLY NAME SOCIETY FUNDRAISER!

The Holy Name Society is putting on a fund-raising program in lieu of the 2020 Mount Carmel Festival. We ask parishioners to donate to the Church what they would normally have donated to the Festival. Holy Name Society members will be at the front entrance of the church before and after all Masses on September 19/20 and 26/27 to collect donations. In addition, Holy Name members will also be available on Saturday 19th and 26th from 10am to 12 noon in front of the garage (where the fried dough is made during festival). A member of the Holy Name will walk up to the car to assist.

The Holy Name Society will give a "Thank You" package for each donation of $100 or more to the first 250 donors. The Thank You package will consist of:

- 1) A commemorative face mask with an image of Mother Mary and baby Jesus
 - 2) Hand sanitizer 4oz
 - 3) Brown Scapular (blessed)
 - 4) A package of made pasta donated by the Ladies Society
- Additional masks will be available for sale as well.

Congratulations to Stephenie Meyerhofer & Gabrielle Meyerhofer (both married to twin brothers), who recently were baptized, confirmed, and received their first Holy Communion.

Sign up for FLOCKNOTE!

To sign up: Send the word LOOP (typed in all caps as a text message) to this address: 84576. Then you will be in our parish "loop" & will receive texts and emails from Fr. Campbell on important news/events in the parish. Please pass on this info to others!
