Hormonal Birth Control Breast Cancer Risks:

Hormonal birth control is available in a variety of forms including pills, patches, implants, or injections. Due to their differences, researchers assumed their cancer risks would also differ. But a new study shows that each causes an equal, increased chance of developing breast cancer. "Pro-lifers have known for years about the link between hormonal contraception and cancer thanks to the work of Dr. Angela Lanfranchi," says PRI President Steven Mosher. "The only reason the public at large is still in the dark is because the FDA has helped the drug manufacturers minimize the connection." (PRI/Org: PRI Insider, Vol. 3, Issue 12, March 24, 2023)

The Holy name Society sponsored a brunch with guest speaker Juliana Taimoorazy from the Iraqi Christian Relief Council. She discussed how Iraqi Christians have been persecuted since the 1st Century. After seizing Mosul, ISIS attacked Christian towns forcing over 120,000 Iraqi Christians to flee their homes. Today, half of these Internally Displaced Persons have returned to their towns and are working on rebuilding their lives. The other half have left Iraq, and most are living as refugees in Turkey, Lebanon and Jordan. Through Operation Return to Nineveh, the Iraqi Christian Relief Council continues to create jobs, open businesses, build wells, provide education, deliver nutritious food, and meet medical needs to the families in the Nineveh Plain in Iraq. We ask that you join us on this sacred mission and make a donation to help these Christians. You can go online to <https://iraqichristianrelief.org/donate> or call 847-401-8846

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY: next Sunday, April 16:

In the 1930's Jesus appeared many times to a Polish nun, Sr. Faustina Kowalska, and revealed that He desires to pour out His mercy on souls. Jesus appeared with white and red rays emitting from His Heart, to symbolize the mercy which has continually flowed from His Sacred Heart pierced after death, when water and blood flowed forth. He told Sister Faustina that He wanted an image painted with the words, "Jesus, I Trust in You" to let sinners know they should not fear but rather trust in the infinite mercy of God.

Jesus also told Sister Faustina that He wanted the Sunday after Easter to be celebrated as the feast of Divine Mercy. (Next Sunday the Gospel reading from John ch. 20 recounts the institution of the Sacrament of Penance by Jesus with the words, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them".) Our Lord told Sister Faustina, "On that day, the very depths of my tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession [within eight days of Mercy Sunday] and receive Holy Communion [on this day] shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment."

Jesus promised a "complete forgiveness of sin and punishment" due to sin for those who confess their sins, and who receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday. This is likened to getting baptized over again, since baptism not only washes away all sins, but remits all punishment due to sins as well. If someone dies after having all the punishment for their sins forgiven, there is no need for any purification after death in Purgatory; that person goes directly to Heaven. What a wonderful outpouring of divine mercy!

Fr. Brian Mullady, O.P., to speak at St. Therese

Mullady will explain the Church's teaching on end-of-life issues, such as: ordinary v. extraordinary care for those sick and dying, the moral obligation to provide nutrition and hydration, durable powers of attorney, etc. On Tuesday evening, April 18 he will speak on the Eucharistic mystery, this being the first year of the Eucharistic Revival

Regina cæli

Attributed to Pope Gregory V (pont. 996–999)

Antiphon after Night Prayer,

Midday Antiphon in Easter Season

From the Easter Vigil until Pentecost, the Regina Cæli replaces the Angelus as a mid-day prayer. The joyful repetition of alleluia, interspersed with praises of Our Lady, the Resurrection, and a plea for intercession, make it an especially appropriate antiphon for the Easter season.

"The divine Motherhood of Mary is the source of all the perfections and privileges with which she is endowed. Because of it, she was conceived immaculate and is full of grace; because of it, she is ever virgin, she was taken up body and soul to heaven and has been crowned Queen of all creation, above the angels and saints. Greater than she, none but God. 'The Blessed Virgin from the fact that she is the Mother of God has a certain infinite dignity which comes from the infinite good, which is God.' There is no danger of exaggerating. We can never hope to fathom this inexpressible mystery; nor will we ever be able to give sufficient thanks to our Mother for bringing us into such intimacy with the Blessed Trinity' (FG, 276).

'Among the saints in heaven the Virgin Mary Mother of God is venerated in a special way. Because of the mission she received from God, her life is most closely linked with the mysteries of Jesus Christ, and there is no one who has followed in the footsteps of the Incarnate Word more closely and with more merit than she; and no one has more grace and power over the most Sacred Heart of the Son of God and through him with the Heavenly Father.

'Holier than the Cherubim and Seraphim, she enjoys unquestionably greater glory than all the other saints, for she is full of grace (Lk 1:28), she is the Mother of God, who happily gave birth to the Redeemer for us. Since she is therefore, 'Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope,' let us all cry to her 'mourning and weeping in this vale of tears,' and confidently place ourselves and all we have under her patronage. She became our Mother also when the divine Redeemer offered the sacrifice of himself; and hence by this title also, we are her children. She teaches us all the virtues; she gives us her Son and with him all the help we need, for God 'wished us to have everything through Mary' (MD, 169).
