by James J. Drummey (www.wandererpress.com, Nov. 6, 2025)

Q. I am glad that the president has restored Oct. 12 as Columbus Day and not Indigenous Peoples' Day. What was the rationale for displacing Columbus after centuries of celebrating his exploits in discovering the Americas?

A. The problem with Columbus, says historian Paul Kengor, is that he was a “dreaded DWEM (Dead White European Male),” who allegedly brought to this hemisphere “ disease, slavery, colonialism, imperialism, racism, sexism, ageism, homophobia, and whatever other litany they would like to cast at the feet of the villainous Columbus.”

Writing in the American Spectator, Kengor says that Columbus was a saint compared to the “Indigenous Peoples,” particularly the Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek, and Seminole Indian tribes. He says that “these tribes owned thousands of black African slaves and were brutal slave masters. They were so dedicated to slave ownership that many sided with the Confederacy during the Civil War. To this day, there are African American descendants of these slaves with lawsuits against these indigenous tribes seeking redress. (See my book, The Worst of Indignities: The Catholic Church on Slavery.)” Kengor, who teaches at Grove City College, says that one of the worst of these slavers was Stand Watie (1806–1871), a powerful Cherokee leader who not only supported slavery but became a Confederate general. He resisted the Emancipation Proclamation and was the last Confederate general to surrender in the Civil War. For detailed accounts of Watie and his life, says Kengor, see History.com, History.net, and RealClearHistory.com.

Those who study history carefully and objectively, says Kengor, will learn the true history of early America, “from its discovery by the great Columbus to the Mayflower to the American Founders to the Civil War.” But those “in the government schools and lousy universities” will get only “ a selective, politically correct, ideologically sanitized account,” he says. A real education “ will teach you that the indigenous tribes of this land were not some perfect, pristine people living in peaceful harmony until the wretched Columbus marched in and ruined utopia.”

Christmas Gift Giving Tree 2025

This year "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" is once again sponsoring a "Gift Giving Tree". We will be helping needy families from Brass School. A Christmas tree with tags on it will be located in the entry way of the church. Please take tag(s) the week-ends of 11/15 + 11/16 and 11/22 + 11/23. Please buy a gift appropriate for the tag, and return the gift back to the church by no later than 12 noon Mass on 11/30. Attach the tag to the wrapped gift, so we will know how to direct the gift. The gifts will be taken to the schools the week of 12/08 and the school faculty then delivers the gifts to the homes of the families. Please help brighten Christmas for these needy families. Money donations would also be appreciated. Money gifts are used for food vouchers that are evenly divided amongst the families. Please put money donations in an envelope marked "Gift Giving Tree", in the collection basket. If you take a tag from the tree, please be sure to return a gift by the 11/30 noon Mass. All tags must be accounted for. THANK YOU !!!!!

Please join us Sunday nights 6pm at St. Therese to pray the Rosary & litany for our world & personal intentions before Jesus in the Tabernacle.
