Our Church - Our Faith

WHY CATHOLICS COME TO MASS

PART 3

TO WITNESS & PROVIDE A LEGACY FOR OUR CHILDREN

Children watch their parents and grandparents. We form our young people by the way we participate in the Mass. Children who see that their parents go to church early to pray before Mass will want to imitate them.

Children who observe parents and other adults reverently receiving the Eucharist will more readily realize that the Eucharist is truly the body and blood of Christ. The example of parents is an essential part of preparation for first Holy Communion. Children whose parents tell them how much and why they love Mass will be less inclined to compare Mass to television and consider it "boring."

The way we celebrate Sunday will affect the way we live the remainder of the week and is a mark of Christian identity from generation to generation.

TO BE TRANSFORMED BY SACRAMENTAL GRACE

The Eucharist gives us strength to face life's challenges and to keep mindful of God's love for us. Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven...Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:51, 54, 56).

The graces and transformative insights God provides in each celebration of the Mass help move us toward happier, holier lives. As we prepare for Mass, we can pray confidently that Christ will give us sanctifying grace. When we arrive, we can ask God to speak to us through the readings, music, homily, and prayers, and show us how to become the persons we're created to be. We can then pray about how to put new insights into practice in the coming week.

Low Gluten Communion Hosts

Are you or a family member allergic to gluten?

To receive low gluten Communion :

- Arrive 10-15 minutes before Mass and speak to an usher.
- You must receive communion from the priest.
- When it is your turn to receive; remind the priest that you require a low gluten host.

Please pray for those who are sick, especially:

Prayers for the Sick and Dying

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is one of the best means of assisting the dying. Jesus revealed the power of this prayer to St. Faustina. The Lord gave many promises regarding recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and/or dying. There are parishioners who regularly pray the chaplet. We have a prayer chain and are accepting prayer requests. If you are interested in joining the prayer chain, please contact Bea Harrigan at (973) 827-0083. If you have a special prayer request, or prayers for a loved one who is sick and/or dying, you may call Bea Harrigan, Cheryl Avery at (973) 670-8550, or Denise Drogo at (973) 875-6863.
