Our Church - Our Faith

THE PRIESTHOOD OF THE FAITHFUL

Mass depends on the participation of the priesthood of the faithful, according to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (5). "The celebration of the Eucharist is the action of the whole Church." Baptized Christians share in the royal priesthood of God's people. Everyone offers a spiritual sacrifice together with the priest in union with Christ.

"For this people is the People of God, purchased by Christ's Blood, gathered together by the Lord, nourished by his word" (ibid.). When we assemble at church, we come as God's own, a people loved so much that Christ shed blood for us. We gather as people of faith, as people God loves. We listen to God's Word—food for this chosen people.

This people is "called to present to God the prayers of the entire human family" (ibid.). We partake in the General Intercessions, or the Universal Prayer.

We are "a people that gives thanks in Christ for the mystery of salvation by offering his Sacrifice" (ibid.). The priest does not offer this sacrifice alone. All of us do. We all give thanks. Scratch the skin of any Christian and you should find thanksgiving in the blood. We offer the Eucharistic Sacrifice with the priest, giving thanks.

Finally, it is a people "that is brought together in unity by Communion in the Body and Blood of Christ" (ibid.). God's priestly people reach perfection in Communion.

"This people, though holy in its origin, nevertheless grows constantly in holiness by conscious, active, and fruitful participation in the mystery of the Eucharist" (ibid.). When we gather for Mass, we do not merely watch. We do not merely read along. We participate actively and consciously in the mystery around us. And we grow in holiness.

Low Gluten Communion Hosts

Are you or a family member allergic to gluten?

To receive low gluten Communion :

- Arrive 10-15 minutes before Mass and speak to an usher.
- You must receive communion from the priest.
- When it is your turn to receive; remind the priest that you
- require a low gluten host.

Please pray for those who are sick, especially: Alina Quinn, Kevin Kelly, Malina Bennett, Sam Smith, Stephen Smith, Jesse Limoli, Donna Wright, Ed Clough, Kathy Brady, Ellen Gordon, John L., Baby Cade, Michael Kirchmer, Karolina Warchol, Laura Reilly, Eleanor McLean, Baby Hadley, John Drelick, Judith Harrington

Prayers for the Sick and Dying

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is one of the best means of assisting the dying. Jesus revealed the power of this prayer to St. Faustina. The Lord gave many promises regarding recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and/or dying. There are parishioners who regularly pray the chaplet. We have a prayer chain and are accepting prayer requests. If you are interested in joining the prayer chain, please contact Bea Harrigan at (973) 827-0083. If you have a special prayer request, or prayers for a loved one who is sick and/or dying, you may call Bea Harrigan, Cheryl Avery at (973) 670-8550, or Denise Drogo at (973) 875-6863.

SEVEN MONTHS: You're in the home stretch with your spiritually adopted baby. He is completely formed, and has been since 8 weeks. All he is doing now is gaining weight – and making his mother uncomfortable with his size. But she's not worried now. In a short time, her baby will be born. She has planned to bring him home or place him for adoption. Either way, she knows she can receive the assistance she needs from people like you and from the crisis pregnancy centers. Your baby's mother appreciates the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. It hasn't been easy, but your prayers have given her grace to seek the help she needs.
