Our Church - Our Faith

"THE LORD BE WITH YOU"

When you say, "Good morning!" are you saying this is a good morning? Or that you wish it were a good morning? Or that this morning is good but other mornings aren't?

When the priest says, "The Lord be with you," just what does he mean?

This greeting originates in the Old Testament Book of Ruth. Ruth, the great-grandmother of King David, landed her husband Boaz by gleaning conspicuously in his barley fields. Boaz returned to the fields that day and greeted the workers with, "The Lord be with you!" (Ruth 2:4). At the time, it was equivalent to saying "Good morning!" St. Paul used the same greeting (2 Thessalonians 3:16), and our reply at Mass, "And with your spirit," is also found in his writings (2 Tim 4:22; Philemon 25; Galatians 6:18; Philipians 4:23).

These expressions entered the liturgy in the first centuries of the Church's life. When we hear, "The Lord be with you," we're hearing the greeting of our ancestors in the faith.

Who is "the Lord"? For Boaz, it meant God. But for Christians it means Christ. At his Ascension, Jesus promised he would be "with us" (Matthew 28:20), as he would be whenever two or three gather in his name (Matthew 18:20).

Customarily only priests and deacons greet the assembly in this way. Others should probably just say, "Good morning." The reason has more to do with the reply, in which the assembly entrusts to the priest the role of leadership. The priest who says, "The Lord be with you," has no need to say, "Good morning." He's just done it.

We hear this greeting, or a variation on it, four times at Mass: at the Introductory Rites, the Gospel, the Eucharistic Prayer, and the Final Blessing. Each time it alerts the assembly that something is about to happen.

Some presiders improvise the saying, "The Lord is with you." Admittedly, the Latin original, Dominus vobiscum, allows this interpretation, but its meaning is a lot like "Good morning." It doesn't mean so much that it is a good morning, but that we hope you have one.

This ancient greeting, a simple dialogue between priest and people, greets, proclaims Christ, establishes roles, and alerts us that great things will follow.

Prayers for the Sick and Dying

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is one of the best means of assisting the dying. Jesus revealed the power of this prayer to St. Faustina. The Lord gave many promises regarding recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and/or dying. There are parishioners who regularly pray the chaplet. We have a prayer chain and are accepting prayer requests. If you are interested in joining the prayer chain, please contact Bea Harrigan at (973) 827-0083. If you have a special prayer request, or prayers for a loved one who is sick and/or dying, you may call Bea Harrigan, Cheryl Avery at (973) 670-8550, or Denise Drogo at (973) 875-6863.

A Stewardship Opportunity to Consider...

Many parishioners are required to take Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from their retirement accounts each year. If you are age 70½ or older, you may be able to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) directly from your IRA to our church. Such gifts can help satisfy your RMD requirements while supporting the ministries, outreach, and daily operations of our parish.

Your generous donations enable us to continue serving our faith community, maintaining our church, and supporting those in need. We encourage you to consult your financial or tax advisor to determine whether a QCD may be beneficial for your individual situation.

On Sunday July 19th, women who share in the loss of a spouse, will gather for refreshments, light conversation, and camaraderie in Boland Hall at 2:30pm.

Women of H.E.A.R.T. - healing, encouragement, acceptance, renewal, togetherness. This will be a monthly opportunity to get together and share treats and more!

All are welcome! RSVP to Pam@stfrancisvernon.org
