Our Church - Our Faith

ORDER OF THE MASS

The Order of Mass is the script we follow for every celebration of the Eucharist. It contains the words and movements that are repeated at every Mass, from the Sign of the Cross to the Dismissal. It does not include the readings nor any of the hymns. It is the parts of the Mass that stay the same.

The Order of Mass is located in the middle of The Roman Missal—the big red book that rests on the altar or in the hands of a server. The Order of Mass also appears in many books and pamphlets that people use to participate at Mass. Most Catholics know their lines very well, though sometimes they consult the Order of Mass for long texts, such as the Glory to God and the Creed. Visitors find the Order of Mass helpful to figure out what is happening when, what words to say, and what postures to adopt.

In the year 2002, the Vatican issued a revised edition of The Roman Missal. Although the Order of Mass did not change very much, the publication of this volume in Latin prompted a new English translation of its contents.

New words always cause some initial confusion and frustration. But it is hoped that this new translation and any future adaptations from Rome will help Catholics pray with more attention and understanding.

Please pray for those who are sick, especially: Alina Quinn, Kevin Kelly, Malina Bennett, Sam Smith, Stephen Smith, Jesse Limoli, Donna Wright, Ed Clough, Kathy Brady, Ellen Gordon, John L., Baby Cade, Michael Kirchmer, Karolina Warchol, Laura Reilly, Baby Hadley, John Drelick, Judith Harrington, Steve Gimbl, Emily Farrell and Charley & Oliver, Robert Young, Giuseppe Margiotta

Prayers for the Sick and Dying

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is one of the best means of assisting the dying. Jesus revealed the power of this prayer to St. Faustina. The Lord gave many promises regarding recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and/or dying. There are parishioners who regularly pray the chaplet. We have a prayer chain and are accepting prayer requests. If you are interested in joining the prayer chain, please contact Bea Harrigan at (973) 827-0083. If you have a special prayer request, or prayers for a loved one who is sick and/or dying, you may call Bea Harrigan, Cheryl Avery at (973) 670-8550, or Denise Drogo at (973) 875-6863.

A Stewardship Opportunity to Consider...

Many parishioners are required to take Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from their retirement accounts each year. If you are age 70½ or older, you may be able to make a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) directly from your IRA to our church. Such gifts can help satisfy your RMD requirements while supporting the ministries, outreach, and daily operations of our parish.

Your generous donations enable us to continue serving our faith community, maintaining our church, and supporting those in need. We encourage you to consult your financial or tax advisor to determine whether a QCD may be beneficial for your individual situation.

Ushers —Ministers of Hospitality

We are looking for warm, welcoming smiles to greet all who gather at our liturgies each week. Participation in one weekend Mass and other special liturgy when available.
