FROM THE DESK OF FR. DOOLEY

Hello friends,

Staff farewell to Amy Zachritz

Our staff bids a fond farewell to our bookkeeper, Amy Zachritz. She will be taking a step back due to family commitments. She has been a great contributor to our team and helped us to pay our bills! While it is a goodbye for staff, we will still see Amy! She is the 3rd Grade Catechist for our Parish School of Religion program and she is also on our Finance Council. Thank you, Amy!

Fall Fest! – Saturday, October 8th - 11:00am-9:00pm

The Fall Fest is almost upon us! Thank you to the Home and School Association, volunteers and the Parish and School Staff for their planning and execution of this great parish event. Special thanks to our sponsors as well! We have plenty of activities planned, including the chili cookoff, silent auction, bingo, and kids' games. I'm excited to have a large social event again for our parish!

Please note the main parking lot will be closed for the 4:30pm Mass on Saturday, October 8th. You will need to park in the neighborhood or at nearby businesses.

I hope to see you at the Fall Fest! Have a great week.

Under the protection of Our Lady of Peace,
Fr. Dooley

CHILDREN'S CHOIR IS RETURNING!

Rehearsals will be on Sundays after the 11:30am Mass. The rehearsal time will be 12:45pm to 1:30pm. Students who are interested should meet Mrs. Cottrill at the double doors of the school directly across from the church doors. Questions? Contact Mrs. Cottrill at jcottrill@olp-parish.org.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF OUR PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION

There's been a lot of talk about PSR recently, so I thought I'd pop into the bulletin to explain who we are and what we do.

PSR stands for Parish School of Religion. Some of you may be more familiar with the term CCD - Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. (I, for one, am glad for the change to PSR - it's a lot easier to explain!) Our ministry provides religious instruction for children in grades PreK through 8 who do not attend Catholic school. We are blessed to have a record number of students in our program this year - 131! To give you some perspective, 10 years ago when I first became involved with the program, the number of children was closer to 70. We have 11 dedicated Catechists (religion teachers) who guide our children on their faith journey. Over a dozen volunteers serve as classroom aides and help at special events - like our Fun & Fellowship Day in November and our Christmas party.

Over the years, the PSR program has seen big changes. At one time, the children met in the church basement; now they meet in the school. Father Dooley and Deacon Jeffrey play an active role in PSR and commit to visiting the children each Sunday. Originally, our religious education program was established to minister to the children of Our Lady of Peace Parish. In recent years, we have had more families reach out to us from neighboring parishes seeking in-person instruction for their children. About one quarter of the children enrolled this year come to us from sister parishes.

If you are looking to volunteer with children, be a witness of your own Catholic faith through teaching and example, and want to be a part of a healthy, vibrant, and growing ministry, please contact Jennifer Pawley at jpawley@olp-parish.org.

-Jennifer Pawley, Director of Parish School of Religion

A NOTE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Dear Our Lady of Peace Family,

This weekend, Father Dooley will gather all on the front lawn of the church to bless your pets. This is done in honor of St. Francis of Assisi, whose feast day is October 4.

I know that many of you have pets. Sometimes you hear the phrase, "you own your pets," but to true pet lovers, these animals of all kinds, shapes and sizes are much more than purchased property. They are an extension of the family, a companion to young and old, and an opportunity for us to love and care for those who depend upon us.

At my house, we are currently without any pets. My stepson's dog, Toodles, died this summer after a long dog life of perhaps 14 or 15 years. It was not known for certain as Stephen and my wife adopted this little mutt from the dog shelter. Stephen had grown up with Toodles, and so it hit him the hardest.

When I got married three and a half years ago, I brought two parakeets into the mix, Louie and Lily. Lily had an untimely demise when she got out of the cage and flew full force into a window. Louie died of natural causes at the age of eleven.

Many of the students here know that I do have pets of a kind on the desk in my office. They are tiny shrimp who live in a sealed ecosphere globe. Three of them, down from the original five, have lived on my desk for nine years. They are the easiest pets I have ever had. They need no walking, feeding or cleaning. All that they need to sustain them is inside the glass bubble.

My family has always favored dogs, mostly big ones. I grew up with a Black Lab/German Shepherd mix, named by my brother for some reason, Christopher Blue. My kids grew up with Golden Retrievers. My son, Braden, has one now, Benny the Jet. In my college days, I did have a gray cat named Mrs. Slipslop who came and went as she saw fit, and actually could see the ghost with whom I lived (for another time).

When I was a kid getting my monthly Boy Scout magazine, Boys Life, they would run an ad in the back every month for adorable spider monkeys which could be had for $16.95. Each month, I begged my parents to let me get one. They were wise and refused my pleas. In high school, I found a small black dog wandering around St. Charles. I took her home assuming she was a puppy and would grow up to be another big black lab so I named her Bubba after the iconic Colts football player. Bubba never grew. It is actually thought that she had some Chihuahua in her!

There are, of course, pets of many species: gerbils, hamsters, fish, snakes, turtles, and hermit crabs. Some adventurous souls keep ferrets, pigs, and huge talking parrots as pets. My grandson, Brady, currently houses a lizard in his room. No matter the kind, we always name our pets. As children, we promise to do all the work necessary for their care and then end up giving much of the responsibility to our parents. Except for goldfish who tend to have a burial in the ceramic sea of the bathroom, we bury our pets with solemnity and dignity, mourning them with sincerity and grief.

They say that pet owners come to resemble the animals they keep (I am not sure what that says about me and my shrimp) but we do seem to latch on to pets whose personality traits are similar to ours. I have a next-door neighbor who, like the Hound Dog who roams the yard next door, makes a lot of noise for no good reason. We also tend to stereotype people by the pets we own. "She's a cat lady," we will say, or "He is a strange guy, he keeps a big ole' hairy tarantula in his living room."

St. Francis is known for his love of all creatures which is why he is the patron saint of pets. The care we have for our extended family is another opportunity to care for God's creation and to be thankful for the wonderful and beautiful world He has gifted us with. May we care for all creatures, great and small, and do the same for each other.

Our Lady of Peace is a pro-life community! As a parish, we continue to demonstrate our belief in the value for life by providing invaluable aid to families in need. As part of our commitment to life, the Knights of Columbus are hosting a "baby shower" to support mothers, fathers and their children in our community. During the month of October, we are inviting you to donate: diapers, baby wipes, bottles, baby books, baby shampoo, baby washcloths and towels.

Bring your donations to the parish Gathering Space and place by the baby carriage. You may also make a financial contribution to this campaign - please make check payable to OLP and note the donation is in support of the Knights baby shower!
