Scripture Readings
May 19, 2019
Fifth Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas traveled to many towns and found many disciples willing to help them preach. They warned their disciples of the trials they would face. Paul and Barnabas then returned to Antioch, where their journey had begun, and told the congregation there of the progress they had made.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

John had a vision of a new earth, and a new Jerusalem coming down from heaven. Then a voice described Jerusalem as a place where God would live among his people and comfort them. The former world had vanished, and pain, death and suffering had left the world as well.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

After Judas left the last supper, Jesus warned the other disciples that he would not be with them much longer. Jesus gave them a new commandment to love one another as he had loved them. He stated that their love for each other would distinguish them as his disciples.

Mother's Day

Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers. May God bless you for the many sacrifices and offerings you make for your children and your family. We should be grateful to you not just on one day, but all year long, for the important role you play. We should also keep in our prayers today those who perhaps find Mother's Day to be a difficult time — mothers who have lost children; children who have lost their mothers; women who are having difficulty becoming mothers; those who struggled and even failed to be the best possible mothers; and mothers and children who are estranged. Blessings for everyone!

Good Shepherd Sunday

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday because of the shepherd imagery found in St. John's gospel and throughout the liturgy each year on this day. It is also known as World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We are reminded to pray for more men and women to respond to God's call to the priesthood, religious life, marriage, and single life. Each of us is called by name by God at Baptism to enter into relationship with him through the person of Jesus Christ. Through a sincere and honest relationship with Christ, we discern a further calling. Those callings include the priesthood, religious life, marriage, and single life. No matter to what state in life we are called, we are called to something unique and special for the Kingdom of God. No one state is better than the other. All are important for the Kingdom. This weekend, locally, we celebrate different vocations. On Friday we celebrated the Sacrament of Matrimony with Luciano Cundari (parishioner) and Caitlin Conroy. On Saturday morning in our diocese, Bishop Serratelli ordained eight men to the Priesthood. Today we honor and pray for all of our mothers, living and deceased. Each week at each Sunday Mass, we are joined by Religious Sisters who bless us with their presence, witness, and prayer. The parish also flourishes due to the hard work and commitment of many single women and men. We all have a place in the Kingdom. We all make a difference. Never forget that!

Trip to the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart, Newark

The Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark presents a series of half hour concerts on Wednesdays, featuring the great Schantz Organ in the gothic splendor of Newark's Cathedral Basilica. On May 22, we will be taking a trip from the parish to see Janet Natale, soprano, and Merynda Adams, harpist, perform. Both Janet and Merynda have been to St. Catherine's for special occasions. Following the concert, there is a tour of the Basilica. Space is very limited. First come, first served. Bus will leave St. Catherine at 10:30 am and return by approximately 2:30. Light snacks will be provided or bring your own lunch to enjoy on the bus. Sign up in the church vestibule. The cost of the trip is $20. Payment can be placed in the collection basket or dropped off at the office.

Parish Trip to Broadway

On Saturday, June 1 the parish will be heading to the Vivian Beaumont Theatre at Lincoln Center to see Gerard Bernard Shaw's, My Fair Lady. A limited number of tickets are still available. The bus will depart St. Catherine's on June 1 at 11:00 am for a 2:00 pm show. If you have confirmed tickets, please remit the $95 payment to the parish office or drop in a marked envelope in any weekend collection. For tickets or questions, please contact Whitney 973-586-2777 or queendubose@aol.com.

Peace,
Fr. Jared

LITURGICAL Q & A

Each week we will post a question and answer about the liturgy. If you would like to submit a question, please do so to lisahward@aol.com

What is a homily?

A homily is a preached reflection on the Word of God just proclaimed and an application of it in our lives. The homily is preached by a Bishop, Priest, or Deacon.

Congratulations and blessings to Luciano Cundari and Caitlyn Conroy who were recently married at St. Catherine's

DAME MARIE, HAITI SPONSORSHIP

Last year our sponsorship program for St. Catherine School in Dame Marie, Haiti was a huge success. Your support is the reason behind the wonderful progress and growth of the school. If you would like to participate this year, your $300 sponsorship will help support a designated class. Checks should be made payable to St. Catherine of Siena and put in an envelope marked "Haiti Sponsorship" and dropped in any weekend collection basket. Thank you all for your continued support.

SOUP KITCHEN SHOPPERS NEEDED

The St. Catherine's volunteer team is looking for helpers to shop once a month for the food items we bring to the Morristown Community Soup Kitchen on our service day. It is a simple five item list bought in bulk at COSTCO, and cost is reimbursed. The items are stored in the St. Catherine's parish center kitchen the weekend before the 2nd Monday of each month, where they are picked up by volunteers serving Monday morning. This is a great way for families and/or teenagers to be involved in this ministry. Please contact Carol Kennedy 973-402-1503 for more information.

You are cordially invited to attend the
St. Paul Inside the Walls Springtime Reception
Cocktails and elegant fare catered by The Brownstone

Saturday, June 8 at 7:00 pm
205 Madison Ave, Madison

This event is our major fundraiser for the year. Your support makes possible the many ministries and programs that promote the vital mission of Catholic evangelization throughout the area.
